

Local & General.

For the Compiler.
Ma. Bates—Now that the terrible epidemic consequent upon the invasion of our soil has subsided, I presume it will not be out of place to dry you a few lines for publication.

Our quiet little town was thrown into a state of unusual excitement by the advance guard of the Federal division dashing unceremoniously over the hill and demanding the town to be opened.

The merchants, with the exception of Mr. J. A. Gardner, suffered but slightly. The unfortunate had not removed all his dry goods, being accessibly absent for some time prior to the invasion.
