THE COUNTY TICKET.

We place at our masthead to-day the ticket nominated by the Democratic County Convention on Monday last. The Convention was composed of as good material as ever brought together for the same object—men who felt the importance of the trust confided to them by their constituents, and that it therefore became them to exercise their best judgments in making the nominations. In discriminating between the gentlemen proposed as candidates, the task they were to perform was one of no little delicacy, because in most instances claims of several candidates for the same office were strongly urged. But all could not be nominated. The result was the ticket above given. That it combines all the elements of strength—merit, respectability, competency and honesty—no candid man can deny. Indeed, when so many good names were presented, none other than a good ticket was to be looked for.

JAMES H. MARSHALL, Esq. of Hamiltonban, the candidate for the Legislature, is one of our most intelligent farmers, and commands the respect of all who know him. His qualifications are undoubted—even his most bitter political opponent cannot urge a word against him. A few years ago he served a term in the office of County Commissioner, where his upright and business capacity won universal admiration. He will, in the Legislature, reflect credit upon himself and the county.

For Associate Judge, HON. ISAAC E. WIERMAN, of Huntingdon, was unanimously recommended, a well deserved compliment, because, during his term upon the Bench, he has performed his duties in the most unexceptionable manner—always impartial, clear-headed, and resolved to deal out "equal and exact justice to all men." That Judge Wierman is "the right man" for the place—we need not tell the voters of Adams county—they all know it.

ADAM REBERT, of Franklin, is the nominee for Sheriff. We are entirely safe in predicting that he will fill this important office admirably. He is a correct and prompt business man; possesses a good head and a good heart. No one will regret assisting to place him in the Sheriff's office for the three coming years.

SAMUEL LILLY, of Mountpleasant, is the candidate for Register and Recorder. This is also an important office, for which Mr. Lilly has very excellent qualifications. He is a good Clerk, and will be found attentive and obliging, and always at his post. He will suit the position exactly.

And so will JAMES J. FINN, of Oxford tp., that of Clerk of the Courts. He, too, is a first-rate Clerk, and possesses every other qualification: He will perform all his duties faithfully and well, and to the satisfaction of the public.

JACOB TROXEL, of Gettysburg, is the candidate for County Treasurer. He is meritorious and competent. He held the position a few months, by appointment, upon the death of Wrayright Ziegler, and won golden opinions from all who had business with the office. Never were the county accounts more correctly kept, and all who had settlements to make were pleased with his accommodating and attentive disposition. He will discharge the trust as acceptably as any.

For County Commissioner, SAMUEL MARCH, of Reading, is the nominee. He is an active and intelligent business man, and the tax-payers may rely upon their interests being safe in his hands. There are few men in the county better qualified for the place than he, and such we have entered upon his duties.

GEORGE MACKLEY, of Tyrone, has been assigned the Directorship of the Poor. All who know the man will say that this is an excellent selection. The wants of the poor and the interests of the tax-payers will receive his best attentions.

JOHN ELDER, Esq., of Berwick tp., is a first-class accountant, and will make a capital Auditor.

Dr. THOMAS O. KINZER, of Littlestown, for Coroner, is also well qualified and will perform his duties faithfully.

Such is the Democratic ticket. It appeals for support to all who have the true interests of the county at heart. It does more—it represents "THE GOOD OLD CAUSE" of the cause of the old Union under the old Constitution. All will vote for it who, in the language of Senator Douglas, "hold that this Government was made on the WHITE MAN, by WHITE MEN, for the benefit of WHITE MEN, and their posterity forever." All who vote against it to that extent endorse the ruinous policy of Abolitionism which the Republican leaders have adopted.

Vote, when you go to the polls, think of this. If you vote the Democratic ticket, you express condemnation of the miserable negro fanaticism which is now preying upon the very vitals of the nation. If you vote against the Democratic ticket, it will be claimed as an endorsement of the present state of things, which is rapidly tending to negro equality and the consequent degradation of the white man.

Never were PRINCIPLES more deeply involved in an election, and it is for principles which underlie our very structure of government—upon which depend the freedom of speech, of the press, and of religion—everything that an American citizen can hold dear—that we strike, when we urge Democrats—all men—to vote this ticket.

Democrats of Adams! But three weeks remain until election day. The contest in this State may decide the fate of the nation, and our county has her part to do in this great work. There must be no differences about men now. Constitutional Liberty is at stake. To work! to work! to preserve this sacred legacy, bequeathed to us by our sires of the Revolution.

UP NOW! ORGANIZE NOW! Lose not a moment. Leave nothing undone that ought to be done to insure success.

Our cause is just—our ticket is good—Arise, then, and let us roll up the largest Democratic majority Adams has ever given—a majority that, while it will send Abolitionism to the "garret," will proclaim to all the world that our now historic county is more firmly than ever "THE UNION AS IT WAS AND THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS."

The Abolition managers, with McCoughy at the head, have gotten up a call for a Convention of their party, to assemble here to-day, to nominate a county ticket. Whoever they may induce to accept a nomination will have reason to regret his waste of time and money about the evening of the second Tuesday of October next. THE PEOPLE, seeing the inevitable tendency of Abolitionism and sick of its fruits, will vote almost in a body for the Democratic nominees. They know that in this way only can they help to bring about a change for their own and the country's good.

Opposition candidates will soon be begging Democrats for their votes. But "the game won't win." There is not a Democrat in the county who has not been stigmatized as a "secessionist" or a "Copperhead" or a "Tory," and the Abolitionists will find out on election day that this fact will be remembered. Democrats can't "split" nor "scratch" this time, to accommodate men who want them hanged. Every Democrat in Adams county will fire a SHOT—A whole, pure, unadorned, unvarnished ticket—at the next election. Mark that!

Democrats, be assessed. Go to the Assessor of your district at once and have your name entered on the list of voters.—Remember, you must be assessed seven days prior to the election, unless you have paid a State or County tax within two years, for which you have a receipt or to which you are willing to be qualified. If you are a naturalized citizen, have your papers ready and carry them with you to the polls.

The Republicans have lately had much to say about a few "life long Democrats," who have gone over, "bag and baggage," to the Republican party in New York and elsewhere. Out west they have improved upon the practice here, and instead of announcing apostates as "life long Democrats," they are placarded as "Democrats of 40 years," "of 25 years," "of 19 years," &c.—long enough, in most instances, to have got all they could from the Democracy and therefore ready to go to the party which deals in cast off clothing.

The Democratic Mass Meeting to come off at Carlisle, on Thursday, the 8th of October, promises to be a grand affair. It has already been ascertained that ESQ. GED. BIGLER, Judge Wm. A. Porter, Hon. W. H. Witte, Hon. C. W. Carrigan, George Northrop, Esq., and other distinguished speakers, will be there.

They Give it Up.—The Juniata Sentinel complains that the Republican leaders in that county don't work for the success of the party, because they think it isn't worth while.

The elections in Vermont and Maine have of course gone Republican as usual, though in the former the Democratic vote is much larger than last year, and in the latter the Democrats seem to have carried some of the districts heretofore Republican. Maine has not been a Democratic State since 1825, and as for Vermont we all know that the Democrats never carried it.

The people of Pennsylvania must not overlook the important fact that Daniel Agnew, the Abolition nominee for Supreme Judge, is in favor of negro suffrage in Pennsylvania. Whilst a member of the Reform Convention, he persistently voted to confer that right upon all colored men in the Commonwealth. He is the friend of Andrew G. Curtin, and running upon the same ticket; their views and opinions are identical. Can the white-freemen of Pennsylvania cast their votes for the candidates of shoddy and negro equality?

A dispatch from Cincinnati states that immediately after the surrender of Cumberland Gap, Gen. Burnside tendered his resignation, on account of "political perplexities." The President refused to accept.

There is a report that Gen. Gilmore has tendered his resignation, because of difficulties between himself and Admiral Dahlgren, but it is not generally credited.

Andrew G. Curtin said, in his recent stump speech at Erie, that his "record was made up." This is true; and in order that the voters of Pennsylvania may know what "record" is, we refer them to the columns of the Pittsburg Gazette.

Hortwath & Bentley, Suters at the General Hospital, always keep a large stock of goods for sale, and at this time their assortment is unusually full—combining any amount of delicacies, with all the substantial. Those visiting the Hospital, as well as those stationed there, should give H. & B.'s establishment a visit.

IMMENSE DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATIONS.

On Thursday last, Sept. 17th, the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, the Democracy of the old Keystone met at six different points, to celebrate that event and counsel together for the good of our now distracted and bleeding country. We were present at the Lancaster meeting and can candidly say that it was one of the grandest outpourings of the people we ever witnessed. It revived recollections of the days of 1844. The railroads brought in their thousands, whilst delegation after delegation from the country districts paraded the streets, on horse-back and in every conceivable shape of vehicle, with bands of music, flags, banners, wreaths, &c., causing a perfect jam throughout the entire city. But the meeting was not only immense in numbers—it was enthusiastic in the highest degree, and among those participating were many, many, who have never voted with the Democratic party, but who will do so now, having, after impartial and mature reflection, come to the correct conclusion that in this way only can they assist in restoring "The Union as it was," under "The Constitution as it is."

Ex-Gov. David R. Porter presided, assisted by a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Judge Woodward made his appearance on the stand, and was received with the wildest applause. He addressed a few words to the people. He would not discuss the issues of the day—it was not in his place. But should the voters of the State call him to the Executive chair, it would then be proper for him to do so, and he would do it with great plainness of speech.

Hon. J. Glancy Jones and Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, of this State, Hon. Henry Clay Dean, of Iowa, and others, very ably and eloquently addressed the throng, from two stands, when the meeting adjourned with cheers for Woodward, Lowrie, the Union, the Constitution and the Laws.

It was an auspicious gathering, and will not soon be forgotten by the many thousands participating.

The meeting in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on Thursday evening, was the Age, one of the greatest meetings ever held by the Democracy of that city.—The immense Square was literally packed, and all were in earnest.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND ITS TRADUCERS.

It is offensive alike to good sense and good taste to hear men who belong to ephemeral political organizations which, like Jonker's guard, spring up in a night and vanish in a day, launching their malignant slanders against a party which has its birth in the first "Leign of Terror," grew to vigorous stature under Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Jackson, and has hitherto shown its power to tread down and crush out every pretension to aristocracy and despotism in the government. These ephemerals, remarks the Patriot & Union, should some time learn that a party which is built upon the Constitution, and draws all its inspirations from Liberty and Justice; which in power administers the laws impartially, and when out of power seeks to compel those who are in to do so; which has always conducted the Government that none were oppressed and all were prosperous; which acknowledges and confines to all the obligations and covenants of the Constitution and disclaims to exercise powers not granted by the laws; which hates despotism and loves freedom, and which looks to the people as the source of all just power—these parties of a day should, we say, sometimes learn that the great party, so long, so nurtured, and so educated, is not to be put down, or its dominion arrested for any length of time, by any engine which they can bring to bear against it. Year after year they die, pass away, and appear again in new shapes, with new names and ideas. The Democratic party neither dies nor changes—it is the same now as it was at the beginning, and will be the same to the end of time. Being a party of principle it is indestructible, full of vitality and durable as the "eternal hills." Ex-Senator Wm. Allen, that glorious old soldier in the cause, who is now electrifying the people of Ohio by his bold denunciations of the abominations of Abolitionism, tells what Democracy is in "words that deserve to be carved in gold and remembered forever by a free people":

"Democracy is a sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted or compromised. It knows no boundaries, it appeals to no sects. It is the sentiment of Liberty, Labor and Property. It is the sentiment of Freedom, of Equal Rights, of Equal Obligations—the Law of Nature prevailing the Law of the Land."

REPEAL OF THE TONNAGE TAX.

Tax-payers of Pennsylvania—you have an account to settle with Gov. Curtin. The Legislature of this State, in 1861, released by law the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from the payment of Tonnage Tax, which deprived the State of a just revenue to the amount of some three hundred thousand dollars a year! Say more, at that time the Rail Road owned the State; and three hundred thousand dollars for the two previous years' tax. The Legislature, in a section of the same bill, repealing the Tonnage Tax, wiped out this debt! So by this one act of Legislature—which was then composed of a two-thirds Republican majority in both Houses—the State sustained a loss of the Tonnage tax, then amounting to $300,000 a year (it would be a million a year by this time), and also the $700,000 that was due her!

Gov. Curtin is charged with engineering this plundering Bill through the Legislature, and then placed his signature to it. Remember these facts, people of Pennsylvania, when you go to vote in October.—Sundry Democrats.

In every town and county of the State, honest men are leaving the despotism they are striving to revolutionize our form of government, and coming over to the Democratic side. You can count them in every township—men who have hitherto opposed the Democratic party, but who are now disgusted with the villainous promises and ruinous tendencies of Abolitionism. Let them come, and be welcomed into our ranks. Freemen should talk to their neighbors and urge them to come.—Sundry Democrats.

A Black Record.

CURTIN'S OWN PARTY SPEAKS.

The Soldiers' Great "Friend,"

THE TONNAGE TAX SWINDLE!

THE EDITORS OF THE PITTSBURG GAZETTE AND PITTSBURG DISPATCH, two Abolition papers, against Governor Curtin are being circulated in pamphlet form. They make a truthful and damaging record.

1st. That the Governor was the intimate friend of Charles M. Neal and Frowfield, who swindled the soldiers in shoddy and shoes, and that the committee of investigation were managed to cover up and smooth over the fraud.

2d. That the Governor favored and signed the bill repealing the "Tonnage Tax," although he confessed it was "an atrociously wrong." That he signed the bill with "indecent haste during a recess of the Legislature," notwithstanding "he had given the most positive assurance that it should be vetoed," and notwithstanding he "was solemnly and repeatedly pledged to refuse it his assent."

3d. That he "signed" this Tonnage tax swindle "immediately after these assurances were given," and that there was a private agreement in writing, made by Thomas A. Scott, for the company to pay the sum of $75,000 per annum into the Treasury, WHICH AGREEMENT (THE QUIN CONFESSION) WAS SIGNED BY THE PEOPLE AND APPEARED SURRENDERED TO THE COMMITTEE.

4th. That the Governor was the intimate friend of Charles M. Neal and Frowfield, who swindled the soldiers in shoddy and shoes, and that the committee of investigation were managed to cover up and smooth over the fraud.

5th. That the Governor was the intimate friend of Charles M. Neal and Frowfield, who swindled the soldiers in shoddy and shoes, and that the committee of investigation were managed to cover up and smooth over the fraud.

Democratic County Convention.

The Delegates chosen by the Democrats of the several districts of Adams county, assembled in County Convention, in Gettysburg, on Monday, Sept. 14, 1863, and organized by selecting the following officers: President, JOHN FELTY, Esq. Vice Presidents, Capt. John J. GILLIN and Joseph H. SHARP. Secretaries, Lieut. Jacob F. PITTSBURGH and Frederick M. SHAW.

The credentials of the Delegates were then received, as follows: Franklin, Peter Keitzman, Geo. E. Plank, Huntington, Thomas G. Neely, Wm. B. Gardner. Reading, Edward Schaeffer, Michael A. Wine.

Tyrone, Jacob C. Pittenuff, Geo. Becker, Berwick, Joe. Joseph, Wm. C. Bowers, Berwick tp., Samuel Brown, Geo. Oster, Hamilton tp., H. Shireman, Jacob Stock, Oxford, John Stock, Henry J. F. Gilliland, Littleton, Jacob Hecht, John H. Myers, Mountjoy, Samuel B. Miller, Michael Ficeel.

Cumberland, Jacob Lott, Alfred Slonaker, Gettysburg, William Dutter, Gen. Gonder, Union, Joe. L. Shorb, Benj. F. Bollinger, Mountpleasant, David Sneeringer, George Smith.

Gettysburg, Wm. H. Culp, Geo. C. Grass, Freedom, J. Scott Wilson, Calvin P. Kiese, Liberty, Frederick McIntire, Wm. Reilly, Conowingo, Samuel Schwartz, Peter Neer.

Menallen, Nicholas Wierman, Clinton M. Swopes. Hamiltonban, Benj. J. Reed, Daniel Butler, Jacob Peters, Jacob Garliner.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention: C. M. Swopes, Joseph L. Shorb, John J. F. Gilliland, Hegy J. Kuhn and Benjamin J. Reed.

After making preliminary nominations for the several offices, the Convention adjourned until the afternoon.

In the afternoon the Convention assembled, and proceeded to balloting, which resulted in the nomination of the following ticket:

Assembly, James H. Marshall. Associate Judge, Hon. Isaac E. Wierman. Sheriff, Adam Rebert. Register and Recorder, Samuel Lilly. Clerk of the Courts, James J. Finn. County Treasurer, Jacob Troxel. County Commissioner, Samuel March. Director of the Poor, George Mackley.

Considering the long and arduous day, Coroner, Dr. Thomas O. Kinzer, Henry J. Stahl was selected as Representative Delegate to the next Democratic State Convention by acclamation.

The committee on Resolutions then made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Adams county endorse the preamble and resolutions contained in the report of the County Convention, at Harrisburg, on the 17th day of June, A. D. 1863, believing that the principles therein expressed, are best calculated to restore the Union, as it was, to preserve the Constitution as it is, and to deliver us from the confusion, degradation and bloodshed of this unwholesome civil war.

Resolved, That the Administration of Andrew G. Curtin, for its disgraceful treatment of the gallant men who rushed to the rescue of the country when the first news of the rebellion was heard, for his incompetency, dishonesty and wholesale peculations which have attended its mismanagement of the entire military affairs of the State; for its systematic oppression of all the brave soldiers of the Republic; and for its support of the present National Administration, whereby the interests of the State were neglected, and the sacred rights of her citizens invaded; for its utter disregard of the defenceless condition of that country, whereby the Rebel forces were poured in upon our soil, despoiling our husbandmen, plundering our merchants and rendering every species of property insecure, merits and should receive the severest condemnation of the people of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That we hereby instruct and direct our candidate for Assembly in this county, in the event of his election, and also our Senator, to use all honorable means to procure from the State or National Government, compensation for the losses of property sustained by our citizens by reason of Rebel raids and invasions; that inasmuch as our County has always promptly responded to the call of the Government for men to defend the flag of our fathers and maintain the integrity of the Union, we deem it but simple justice that our people should be remunerated for the loss and destruction of their property, and we shall hold no faithless any of our representatives failing to carry out the spirit of this resolution.

Resolved, That our Senators and members are hereby instructed to use every effort to repeal the charters of all incorporated companies in this Commonwealth which have at any time removed any of its employees, on account of the political opinions they hold, or sought in any manner to restrain them in the expression of such opinions, and also of all companies which have in any way attempted to obstruct or prevent the sale or circulation of Democratic newspapers in their towns, depots or manufactories.

Resolved, That the thanks of the people of Pennsylvania are due to Governor Woodard, for his prompt efforts for the defence of Pennsylvania—efforts which were practical and effective, whilst those of our Executive were of a character so confessed as to prove of little or no value.

Resolved, That we commend the gallant response of New York and New Jersey in her day of sore need.

Resolved, That the salvation of the country depends upon the success of the Constitutional Democracy as the only alternative, and we shall hail the nomination, by the State Convention, of Hon. George W. Woodward, the patriot, just and statesman, as our standard bearer, and Walter H. Lowrie, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and also as our candidate for the office of Associate Justice.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to the support of these worthy representatives of our principles as a sacred duty to our country and to our posterity.

Resolved, That in the arbitrary arrest and imprisonment of Robert J. Swain, Editor of the Compiler, which occurred some time past, we recognize an invasion of the guaranteed rights of personal liberty—an act indefensible and unwarranted by law and the Constitution, and we deem it our duty to be browbeaten upon by all patriots. That we condemn the evil spirit which actuated it and despise the meanness of the man who has made himself an instrument in depriving a loyal citizen of his liberty, and afterwards abhorrently attempting to continue his confinement.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the ticket this day nominated, and will spare no honorable effort to secure its triumphant election. It is composed of good and true men, who deserve the support of all who have the best interests of this now distracted country at heart.

The following persons were named as the County Committee for the ensuing year.

Gettysburg, Jacob Brinkerhoff, H. J. Stahl, Franklin, J. W. Lott, Huntington, Thomas G. Neely, Reading, Thomas D. Decks, Tyrone, John Eckert, Berwick tp., Francis Strubinger, Berwick tp., Samuel Brown, Hamilton, Abner S. Hildobrand, N. Straban, John Weitz, Littleton, Andrew Schulz, Mountjoy, Michael Ficeel, Cumberland, Cornelius Daugherty, Germany, Amos Dutten, Union, Benj. F. Bollinger, Mountpleasant, J. E. Smith, Freedom, J. Scott Wilson, Liberty, Frederick McIntire, Conowingo, Samuel Schwartz, Menallen, Ben. M. Swopes, Hamiltonban, Benj. J. Reed, Butler, John Jacob, Frederick McIntire, The Convention adjourned sine die.

TAX-PAYERS OF ALL PARTS, READ BEFORE YOU VOTE.

Who Will Vote for George W. Woodward?

The Bucks county Abolition organ asks, "Who wants to see a Copperhead Governor elected in Pennsylvania?" This honest answerer, in answer to the question, has named the following fourteen classes of voters, who will vote what Abolitionists call the "Copperhead" ticket in October:

1. Every soldier who was provided by Andrew G. Curtin with a shoddy uniform, with worthless shoes, and with defective blankets in order that the friends of that distinguished patriot could make large contracts, on which the Governor would receive his commission.

2. Every soldier who was sold out in the service of the United States for six months, upon the pledge, solemnly given by Andrew G. Curtin, that the man so volunteered should be exempt from the draft. A pledge which was violated almost as soon as it was made.

3. Every member of the gallant Pennsylvania Reserves, who, after performing prodigies of valor, were returned in the Federal service without being allowed to come home and receipt, while New England regiments were full of recruits. Because the Curtin had not manliness enough to demand that well earned reward for their faithful service.
