THE UNION.

"These States are glorious in their individuality, buf their collective glories are in the Union. By all means, at all hazards, are they to be maintained in their integrity and the full measure of their constitutional rights—for only so is it worth preserving. It is the perfection of the prismatic colors, which blended, produce the ray of light. It is the completeness of these assembled sovereignties, lacking nothing which they have not lent for a great purpose, that makes the Union precious. This word Union is a word of gracious omen. It implies confidence and affection—mutual support and protection against external dangers. It is the chosen expression of the strongest passion of young hearts. It is the charmed circle within which the family dwells. It is a man helping his fellow-man in this rugged world. It is States, perfect in themselves, confederated for mutual advantage. It is the people of States, separated by lines, and interests, and institutions, and usages, and laws, all forming one glorious nation—all moving onward to the same sublime destiny, and all instinct with a common life. Our fathers pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honors, to form this Union—let ours be pledged to maintain it."—Geo. W. Woodward, July 4, 1851.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That Andrew G Curtin, the shoddy candidate for Governor, signed the bill for the repeal of the Tonnage Tax on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, against the remonstrances of Hon. S. A. Purviance, his Attorney General, and Eli Slifer, his Secretary of State.—Pittsburg Gazette, July 22.

That he signed it "upon a private agreement in writing, made by Thomas A. Scott, for the company, to pay the sum of $75,000 per annum into the Treasury, which agreement he concealed from the people and afterwards surrendered to the Company, without even preserving a copy of it."—Pittsburg Gazette, July 22.

That he signed three acts of a Republican Legislature, "stripping the Sinking Fund of at least EIGHTEEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS!"—Pittsburg Gazette, July 22.

"THAT HIS NOMINATION WOULD BE DISGRACEFUL TO THE PARTY AND HIS ELECTION IMPOSSIBLE!"—Pittsburg Gazette, August 5.

It is only necessary to remind the reader that the journal making these bold and monstrous charges is the ablest and most widely circulated Republican print west of the Allegheny mountains.

GOVERNOR CURTIN AND THE SOLDIERS.

It is very clear that a desperate effort is to be made by Governor Curtin and the leading demagogues and corruptionists interested in his re-election, to secure the soldiers' influence. If the citizen soldiery of Pennsylvania cannot vote, under the Constitution and laws, out of their respective election districts, a dispensation from the War office may be obtained, permitting them to return to their homes on the eve of the election, by which the disability would be removed. But whether such dispensation be secured or not, the soldiers have a home influence Mr. Curtin and his friends mean to secure, if possible. If this important advantage can be fairly achieved by the Abolition candidate and his lieutenants, we shall not object—but we do object to the attaining of it under false pretences, by demagogueism and dishonorable expedients. While we should discountenance the introduction of party politics into military camps, we certainly should join in a request to the War Office that all the soldiers of Pennsylvania, without distinction of party, be furloughed to return to their respective districts before the next election, and cast their votes for Governor, Supreme Judge, Members of the Legislature, &c., but we warn Governor Curtin and his friends that the people of Pennsylvania will not submit to a contemptible fraud, such as was practiced in New Hampshire and Connecticut, where the soldiers who would vote the Abolition ticket alone were furloughed, and the Democrats retained in camp, and where a Democratic officer was dismissed the service for circulating "Copperhead tickets."

But, whether the soldiers obtain such furloughs or not, we enter our protest against the plan of electioneering adopted by the Governor and his friends of hanging his picture up in the military hospitals, and visiting the soldiers in camp under one pretext and another, for the purpose of haranguing them on politics, and representing Andrew G. Curtin as "the soldiers' friend," "the soldiers' candidate," &c., as though he were exclusively their friend and candidate, with other contemptible expedients to which honorable men could not resort. These tricks of the mere demagogue, which no candidate for Governor, worthy of the position, would countenance, seem to constitute Curtin's chief reliance. They will certainly not increase his popularity with the high-minded, reflecting portion of the community, and if our soldiers are made of the stuff we think they are, they will reject with disdain the advances of a candidate who bases his hopes of success upon the opinion that they are extremely gullible and can be won by flattery better than by truth and reason.—Patriot & Union.

Patriotism.—Perhaps some people don't know what patriotism means. To such we would commend the following paragraph, which we clip from the Providence Post.—If after reading it, they do not understand the meaning of the term, we sincerely hope that they can never learn: "The city of Worcester is the big Abolition centre of Massachusetts. It is the home of Higginson, and has been running over with a certain kind of patriotism ever since the war commenced. Seven hundred men were recently drafted in the city of Worcester.—Let us look for them. One hundred and two have never reported, and are now deserters. Four hundred and sixteen were exempted, against one hundred and eighty-two who were accepted. The army gets just eighteen men. The rest pay three hundred dollars or get substitutes. Smart old town is Worcester!"

An Outrage by a Negro on a White Girl.—On Sunday morning last, while the daughter of Mr. Daniel Messick, residing a few miles from this town, was passing from her father's to a Mr. Wilkens, one of their neighbors, she was assaulted by a negro man belonging to David Pepper, Esq. Her cries for help attracted the attention of some neighbors near by, who ran to her assistance and prevented the brute from consummating his design. The spot selected by him was in a thick woods through which she had to pass, and had her cries failed to bring assistance, no doubt he would have accomplished his hellish purpose. We understand that he attempted to stop her making a noise by placing his hand over her mouth, and in her efforts to free herself she was nearly stripped of her clothes.—The negro was caught and lodged in the jail here on Sunday evening.—Sussex Messenger.

For all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

As an Alleviator of Pain, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, Rheumatic Disorders of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has never been known to fail.

For Neuralgia, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of Headache in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

Toothache also will it cure instantly.

For Nervous Debility and General Lassitude arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

For Piles.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

Quinsy and Sore Throat are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

Sprains are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

Bruises, Cuts, Wounds, Sores, Ulcers, Burns and Scalds, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.
