Mr. Polk carried on the Government.

Mr. Polk carried on the Government and a war with Mexico at a cost of forty-three millions per annum. With these tens of millions he "conquered a peace," secured to us Texas, and bought the golden region of California.

Ask any blundering Union Leaguer.

"Are you in favor of a Union with Slaveholders?" and the answer will be "No." "Are you in favor of a Union with the institution of slavery preserved and protected by the Constitution as now?" and the answer, of course, is "No."

Everybody knows, or is supposed to know.

That person in carriages, going opposite directions on the road, they must pass each other. "But the wrong is not too familiar to us that, when we wish to pass a carriage going the same direction we must get to the left, and that the driver of a leading carriage is bound to let you pass if the road is wide enough."
