"MURDER WILL OUT."

E. C. Morris, a wealthy citizen of Madison, Ill., has been arrested, charged with murdering a man nearly nine years ago.

In 1855, Clark and Morris were out hunting together, and Clark's testimony is that they came across a man in the woods, and that Morris drew up his gun and shot him.

A HARD HIT.

"Superb" Skank - Stewart, the celebrated importer of dry goods, has now in his store a magnificent shawl imported by him at a cost of three thousand dollars expressly for Miss Kate Chase, daughter of Hon. S. P. Chase.

A FEW FIGURES.

In the great political campaign of 1860, when all parties were thoroughly aroused, there were polled for the office of Governor in the State of Pennsylvania, 492,000 votes.

The Legal League City.

The Washington Republicans say there are 15,000 prostitutes in that city. This tells remarkably well for the morals of that city, under Abolition rule.

Who shall be the Democratic nominee for the Presidency?

The Columbus (Ohio) Statesman thus sensibly replies: "In some quarters there appears to be a desire to give the coveted question, and to put forward the names of individuals in connection therewith.

Every day brings forth some new development of the race.

Every day brings forth some new development of the race, by which Judge Woodward was defrauded of his election. Even in our own country, it appears there were frauds of which honest people never dreamed.

Gen. Rosecrans Shaved.

The Dayton, Ohio, "Journal," an Administration paper, asserts that "Secretary Stanton expresses the determination, qualified by profanity, that Rosecrans should not have another command while he is Secretary of War."

A Rebel Pleas'd.

The Richmond Enquirer is glad that Vallandigham and Woodard were defeated. It says their election would have created another crop of Unionists at the South.

Hard on Secord.

Wendell Phillips, in a Lecture delivered at Boston a few days ago, denounced Secord as "the martyr of every policy, the unbelieving Jude, the only rock ahead of the Ship of States, the nucleus around which gathers everything diabolical, everything timid, everything selfish, everything base in the nation."

The Muscatine (Iowa) Journal says:

"Cedar river is said to be literally swarming with wild geese. Cornfields are devastated, and the people living in the 'bottoms' declare that it is almost impossible to sleep, annoying in their wild and discordant music."

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

From the following list of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives, it will be seen that the Abolitionists have the meagre majority of 5 on joint ballot.

The Democrats gain 3 in the Senate and lose 6 in the House. Three Democratic candidates for the House were defeated as follows: One in Perry, beaten by one vote, one in Philadelphia, by about 40, and another in Millifin by about 75. Thus 188 more votes in those districts would have given us a majority on joint ballot.
