LOYALTY.

"The Henry R. Chamberlain, who was arrested in Hartford for adultery with Mrs. Nancy W. Bradley, of Ansonia, was President of the Loyal League of his town!—The papers say she was a very handsome woman—but the public would like to know if she is 'loyal?' If she is not, then Mr. Chamberlain is a very naughty man, for his league had voted not to have any 'business intercourse' with disloyal persons!"—New Haven Register.

The Ansonia League is not only one that protests against "business intercourse" with "disloyal persons," alias "Copperheads," alias Democrats; and if report speaks truly, its President is not the only "loyal" "Union League" President who has a fondness for "the flesh."

These things are not to be wondered at. Free-Loveism, like free-negro-ism, is but a branch of "higher law" Abolitionism, and it is not surprising that under the rule of the latter prostitution should have become common and "loyal"—even a "Government" necessity, alike in the civil as the military Departments.

Why, according to all accounts, the Capitol of the country has, since the in-coming of the Higher-lawism, become a general rendezvous of "thieves and harlots." A Republican journal recently estimated the number of white female prostitutes in Washington city at 15,000, and of blacks at 5000! Such a city as it now is, if existing in the days of righteous Lot, could scarcely have escaped a like destruction with that of Sodom. It abounds with iniquities hundred to those which drew the punishment of a just God upon the people and cities in the days of the prophets, when, as the Bible informs us,

"They committed adultry and assembled themselves by troops in harlots' houses;"

"They commit adultry, and walk in lies; they strengthien the hands of evil doers;"

"They have committed villainy in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name which I (God) have not commanded them."

This feature of the "higher law" Abolition age of which we have thus, incidently, spoken, is a rather sad and deplorable one, but as it exists under the shadow and with the countenance of "Government" loyalty, it is, of course, all right, and people of old fashioned Bible notions of morality and Christian doctrine and practice, who condemn it, must expect to be denounced by the "loyal" press and the "loyal league" as "copperheads" and "traitors," for Abolition "loyalty" spurns and disregards alike the Constitution and the Bible in war time!—Jeffersonian.

A QUERY TO BE ANSWERED.

It is well known, says a cotemporary, that a very small portion of the Army of the Potomac subscribed some $12,000 recently, as a testimonial to General McClellan. The movement met with the favor of Generals Meade, Sykes, Sedgwick and some of the bravest men of the army, but was stopped outright by a peremptory order from the Secretary of War, because unmilitary, against regulations, &c. We now see that General Thomas and other brave men are receiving high testimonials of respect from their fellow soldiers. Is this, too, against general orders and unmilitary? We are always glad to see honors bestowed where they are due, but the query comes back, why did the Secretary of War reject the harvest of honors prepared by brave men for their old commander? Is the Secretary of War still fearful that the stone which the builders rejected will become the head of the corner?

☞ The following very beautiful passage occurs in Judge Van Trump's able opinion in the case of Olds vs. Tod and others, for false imprisonment.

He is replying to the act of Congress which attempts to empower the President to imprison whenever and wherever he may please and at his discretion. He says:

"A justification is sometimes set up by the claimants of this power, upon the ground of necessity, in saving what is denominated the life of the nation. There can be no greater necessity, in a Government made by fixed and prescribed powers, than the strict observance of constitutional obligation; both by rulers and people. There is a greater necessity for this strict adherence to legal and constitutional restriction in periods of storm and commotion, in times of great pressure and excitement, than in the calm sunshine of peace and general order. There can be no life of the nation other than that which pulsates through the HEART OF THE CONSTITUTION, sending its life-currents through the great ARTERIES OF THE LAW, to every part of the body politic, giving life and health and vigor to the whole system. The sooner the American people and those intrusted with the powers of the Government shall become cognizant of this great political truth, the more permanent will be the hopes of constitutional liberty, and the more rational the faith in man's capacity for self-government."

The Case of Dr. Olds.—The Court of Common Pleas for Fairfield county, Ohio, in the case of Dr. Edson B. Olds against Governor Tod and others, for damages for false imprisonment, has denied the motion of defendent to remove the case to the Circuit Court of the United States.

An Old Porker.—Mr. Thomas Saylor, of Lower Nazareth, Northampton county, has an old sow which is 19 years old and has in her time furnished the family with 237 little pigs. She is as valuable as a Greenback press and should be given an extra peck of corn a day as a pension.

☞ The editor of the N. Y. Independent recommends the running of a negro for the next President of the United States.

☞ The New York Herald boldly advises the President to knock his Radical tormentors in the head and no longer try to soothe them.

☞ General order 253, issued by Maj. Gen. Thomas, dismisses from the service forty-five officers for different offences.

☞ Mr. Joseph Althoff has sold his farm of 90 acres, near Hanover, Pa., for $125 per acre. Mr. Isaiah Diller, purchaser.

☞ The Democratic party in Vermont has gained 3,000 votes since the election of 1862.

☞ Bennett says the devil is speaking through Beecher. A Cincinnati paper thinks that is rather rough—on the devil.

Eureka, Eureka!

THE "EXCELSIOR WASHER!" is acknowledged by all who see it, to be the most complete, and without exception, the most perfect Labor-Saving Washing Machine ever before invented. Its superiority over all others consists in the simplicity and durability of its construction, the rapidity and completeness of its work, and the almost incredible ease with which it is managed. A child of ten years, possessing ordinary judgment, can learn to work it in five minutes' time, and manage it as well as a grown person, except for very heavy goods. In a word it is the machine that is destined to take the place of every other machine. Persons in want, to get a machine will find it greatly to their advantage to examine this one before purchasing.

The undersigned have purchased the Patent Right for Adams County (excepting one township) and are making extensive preparations for their manufacture. Every machine will be found to be a good one, and warranted. Price $8 00. In connection with this machine there is a Patent Wringer, which performs the laborious part of washing with the greatest ease and such a better thing can be done by hand. They may be attached to a common Wash Tub, and are sold with the machine or separately as desired. Samples of each may be seen at our Gallery, on East York Street, opposite the Bank, Gettysburg, Pa.

How much better it would be to know their condition at once, as by abundance of evidence, Dr. S. has shown sufficient certificates in this city that he has cured advanced stages of Consumption.

Dr. Schenck's Principal Office is 39 North SIXTH Street, Philadelphia, Pa., where letters for advice should always be directed.
