SYNOPSIS OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE ADAMS COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Agreeably to a call of the Executive Committee, the annual meeting of the Association convened in the village of Fairfield, Dec. 29th, 1863. The Association having been called to order by the President, Wm. C. Seabrooks was appointed Vice President and T. Kready Secretary pro tem. The following committees were appointed by the chair:

Business Committee—Aaron Sheely, J. W. McConnell, B. J. Reed.

On Resolutions—Wm. C. Seabrooks, P. Kready, Geo. W. Frederick.

On Finance—J. M. Tawney, Jno. W. McConnell, B. J. Reed.

After the appointment of the committees, J. W. McConnell read an able essay on the subject of Orthography, followed by an instructive discussion upon the subject, participated in by Messrs. E. Brown, S. P. Broomell, and J. K. Cook. Mr. A. Sheely, County Superintendent, after some very appropriate remarks upon the objects and purposes of the association, offered a series of resolutions for the government of the Institute, which, upon motion of Mr. McConnell, were, after some discussion, adopted. The following committees on Receptions was then appointed by the Chair:—E. Brown, J. K Cook, S. P. Broomell and J. H. Wert. A motion that the Institute from time to time have class drills in the various branches taught in common schools, after discussion by Messrs A. Sheely, Brown, Broomell, Sprenkle, Reed, Frederick, Lyttle and McConnell, was rejected unanimously. Mr. Sheely moved that Mr. Frederick favor the association with a sublecture on History: which was responded to by Mr. Frederick, in an able extemporaneous lecture on the utility of History and the best means of promoting its study. Messrs. Sheely and Broomell followed upon the same subject. On motion adjourned until 6½ o'clock in the evening.

EVENING SESSION.

Association opened with music by the choir and prayer by Vice-President Seabrooks, followed by a national air by the choir. After roll call, to which the members responded by sentiment, and reading of the minutes, essays were read by Mr. Brown on "Parental Cooperation," and S. P. Boomell on "The Utility of District Institutes," followed by discussion of these subjects by Messrs. Sheely, McConnell, Wert, Frederick, Lyttle, Broomell, Cook, Reed, Brown, and others. Association adjourned after singing of "Star Spangled Banner" by choir.

SECOND DAY.—MORNING SESSION.

Dec. 30th. Association opened with prayer by Mr. Brown. After considerable miscellaneous discussion, the subject of Mental Arithmetic was taken up by Seneca P. Broomell, followed by Messrs. Brown, Reed, Lyttle, Frederick, Cook, Wert, Sours, Sheely and Warren. On motion of T. S. Warren, the Association proceeded to the election of officers. After two unsuccessful ballotings for President, Association adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

After prayer by Rev. Mr. Titzel, the election of officers was resumed, resulting in the choice of the following persons to fill the various offices of the Institute for the ensuing year:

President, J. Kersey Cook Menallen; Vice President, P. Kready, Liberty; Secretary, J. Howard Wert, Mountjoy; Assistant Secretary B. J. Reed, Hamiltonban; Treasurer, R. A. Lyttle, Gettysburg; Executive Committee, George W. Frederick, Gettysburg; E. Brown, Menallen; William C. Seabrooks, Liberty.

President Lyttle, on leaving the chair, thanked the Association for their kindness to him in a neat little speech. Mr. Cook, upon taking the chair, acknowledged the compliment in a few terse and pertinent remarks. On motion of R. A. Lyttle, it was resolved that hereafter the officers of the Institute take their seats immediately after election. On motion the unfinished programme of the forenoon was resumed, Mr. Brown opening an able discussion upon the subject of English Grammar, followed by McConnell, Sours, Broomell, Lyttle, Frederick and Winer. Mr. Lyttle moved for a committee of three to assign subjects for essays, during the ensuing year. Motion carried and committee appointed by the chair, consisting of Messrs. Lyttle, Seabrooks and Brown. On motion of the Institute, the national song, "Battle Cry of Freedom," was performed by the choir in a superb manner, being loudly applauded by the audience. The next thing in order being the opening of the query box, four questions were drawn and discussed by Messrs. Frederick, Sours, Brown, Warren, Hankey, Sheely, Cart, Cook, Waner, Broomell, and others; some of them quite humorously. Mr. Lyttle offered the query, Has the County Superintendent the right to appoint essay writers for the Institute? Discussed by Messrs. Lyttle and Sheely.—After an exquisitely sung sonnet by Miss Swope, Prof. L. R Swinney, Principal of Franklin Academy, was introduced to the Association, and responded with a few appropriate remarks. A rereading of evening programme by the President, Association adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

Meeting called to order by Vice President Kready. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Titzel. Prof. P. D. W. Hankey was then introduced to the audience, favoring them with an able and instructive lecture on "The Public School System of Pennsylvania and its Abuses;" followed by music by the choir; and an essay by J Howard Wert on "Teaching as an Art and Science." The choir again followed with the beautiful sonnet, "One hundred years to come." After considerable discussion, the next annual meeting of the Institute was appointed for Bendersville, during the holiday weeks and the Semi-annual for Littlestown the 3rd week in June. Prof. Swinney being called for responded in an eloquent extemporaneous address, directed to parents. On motion, roll of districts called by Secretary, with the following results: Nine districts represented by forty-nine teachers; twelve districts unrepresented. School government discussed by Messrs. Brown, Warren, and Hankey. After music by the choir, adjourned on motion of Mr. McConnell.

THIRD DAY.—MORNING SESSION.

Dec. 31st. President and Vice President being both absent, Mr. Brown was called to the chair. Prayer by Mr. Waner. According to previous announcement the Association had the pleasure of listening to a complete and exhaustive lecture on the subject of "Language," delivered by the Rev. Mr. Titzel. The speaker glanced in a short introduction at the various theories advanced, concerning the origin of language. He then proceeded to speak at some length of the tyranny of language, showing, that the true method of freeing man from being the slave of words, was a liberal education. Especially was this necessary in the antecedent meanings of words derived from the languages. The next reason adduced for the study of language, was the light thus thrown upon many interesting subjects of scientific investigation; the speaker dwelling particularly on the resemblance which words in all languages present to the ideas intended to be represented. The speaker proceeded from this point, to show that national characteristics may be invariably inferred from the structure of the national tongue. This portion of the oration was beautifully illustrated by Roman, Grecian, German, French, English and Hebrew history, customs and derivations; he also illustrating by the salutations of different ages and nations, the materialistic tendencies of the present age. The next point of the oration was the necessity for the study of language, on account of the confirmation which it gives to the truths of Divine Revelation and the proof which it offers of the Unity of the Human Race. The address concluded with a chaste appeal to the audience, to make use of knowledge for the advancement of interests beyond the bounds of time.

Mr. Sheely moved a vote of thanks to the Reverend Mr. Titzel. Carried unanimously, the gentleman replying in a neat speech.—Singing by the Association. On motion of Mr. Frederick, the essayists Misses Swope and Witherow, excused. Mr. Lyttle moved that the executive committee hereafter call meetings of the Association to commence in the evening—carried. School Government discussed by Messrs. Brown, Weaner, Warren, Lyttle, Sours, Broomell, Cart and Prof. Swinney.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Association opened with prayer by Prof. Swinney. Mr. Sheely, County Superintendent, then favored the Association with an elaborate, beautiful and well-written lecture, directed to the teachers present; followed by Mr. Lyttle reading "Our Country and our Home," to the great pleasure of the Association; followed by a select reading by Mr. Pharney. After disposing of a number of motions, the subject of reading was taken up and discussed by Messrs. McConnell, Weaner, Cook, Kready, Lyttle, Broomell, Cart, Pharney and Prof Swinney. On motion of Mr. Wert, resolved, that when the Association adjourn in the evening it adjourn until the first of June. Committee on essays reported, and on motion of Mr. Wert, instructed to amend the report by addition of female essayists. "The Red, White and Blue" performed by the choir. After reading of the evening programme and transaction of miscellaneous business, adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

Prayer by Mr. Sours. Music by the choir led by Prof. Swinney upon the melodeon.—Written Arithmetic was taken up by Mr. Lyttle and Prof. Swinney. The next thing in order was the subject of writing, which was ably treated by Prof. Swinney, followed by the sonnet, "One Hundred Years to Come," by the choir; and an affecting reading of "the Maniac," by Prof. Swinney.

The committee on Resolutions offered the following:

1st, Resolved, That our County Institute is a necessity. So certain are we of its utility, that we would, if possible, make it obligatory upon all teachers to attend its meetings.

2d. Resolved That, we have heard with deep regret and sorrow of the death of Mr. Leas and Miss Stine, members of this Association. We feel that the Association has lost by their deaths able and efficient members.

3d. Resolved, That we return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Fairfield and vicinity, for the cordiality, with which they have received us; and, the hospitality extended toward us whilst in their midst.

4th. Resolved, That, we return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the officers of the German Reformed and Presbyterian congregations, for the use of their church edifice, in which we have held our interesting and profitable meetings.

5th Resolved, That we tender our warmest thanks to the choir, for favoring us with their excellent and patriotic music.

7th. Resolved, That the teachers of Adams county who have been enabled to meet in Fairfield for the discussion of educational advancement near the spot where but a few months before the greatest battle of history has been fought, between the contending armies of loyalty and treason; feel it incumbent upon them to express in terse but unmistakable language, their unanimous and unwavering support of the government in this dark hour of trial, which is threatening the very foundations of our Liberties, dearly purchased by revolutionary ancestors; and to unite in an earnest prayer to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe that ere we again meet in our present capacity, the Star Spangled Banner of our country may float over every inch of its surface, enabling us to again welcome to our noble fraternity its members now contending for Liberty in the armies of the Union.

Wm. C. Seabrooks, P. Kready, Geo. W. Frederick, Committee.

On motion of Mr Lyttle the resolutions were unanimously adopted separately, after remarks by Prof. Swinney, and Messrs. Lyttle, Brown, Broomell, Hankey, Cart, Sours, and Weaner. The 2nd resolution was adopted in silence by a rising vote, after eulogiums upon the deceased by Messrs. Brown, Lyttle, Hankey, Broomell and Weaner. The reading of the 7th resolution was received with unbounded applause. After beautiful and patriotic speeches by R. A. Lyttle, E. Brown, P. D. W. Hankey, J. D. Sours, S. P. Broomell and C. Weaner, "the Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the choir. President Cook and Secretary Wert being then called for by the audience, answered with short speeches.

J. H. Wert offered a resolution, returning thanks to Prof. Swinney; unanimously adopted. Mr. Lyttle moved, that the secretary prepare a condensed account of the proceedings of the Association for publication: carried. After an exquisite reading of the closing year by Prof. Swinney; and the performance of "The Battle Cry of Freedom" and the "Nation shall not Die," by the choir—

On motion of Mr. Lyttle, Association adjourned with a neat Valedictory oration by President Cook.

REMEMBER.—In a letter which Senator Douglas wrote to S. S. Hayes, Esq., dated Washington, Oct. 29, 1860, he says:
