Communicated. On the Death of Allen James Elmore Frazer, who was killed by the accidental explosion of a Shell, on the 20th of November, 1863. Dearest Allen, thou hast left us, We thy loss most deeply fiel; But 'tis God that hath beieft us, He can all our sorrows heal. No more with us his tuneful voice The hymns of praise shall swell, No more his cheerful heart rejoice When peals the Sabbath bell. Yet in yonder cloudless sphere, Amid a sinless throng, He utters in the Savior's ear The everlasting song No more we'll mourn, sweet brother,

But lift our earnest prayer, And daily every effort land To rise and join you there. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; Then in heaven with joy to great thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.
