SPLENDIN STEEL PLATE MEZZO-TINT ENGRAVING OF MAJOR-GEN. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN,

ON THE BATTLE FIELD OF ANTIFFAM.
Size of Picture, 19 by 24 inches.
The original painting was made from life, to order of the publisher, by the celebrated Artist, C. Schussele, Esq. (who is the only one the General ever sat to.) It represents him on his celebrated horse Daniel Webster, (presented to him by the citizens of Cincinnati,) taking an observation of the field, in the latter part of the day, as the Rebels were falling back. In the foreground are seen the desolutions of the battle-broken guns, shattered trees, &c. In the distance, amongst the smoke and dust, are staff officers, artillery, cavalry and infantry. The whole picture is an admirable composition, and displays the rare genius of the Artist.
