HANOVER BRANCH RAILROAD.

Mr. Kline, of Berks, a few days ago, read in his place, in the House at Harrisburg, the following bill, which was appropriately referred, and will no doubt be acted upon in due time:

WHEREAS, By a recent struggle in defence of the Constitution and the Union, which took place on that sacred soil in the vicinity of Gettysburg, in which the sons and patriots of our ancestors, (the noble sires of the Revolution) have left their all, families, lives and fortunes in behalf of the same;

And whereas, The people throughout the loyal States labor under great inconvenience in their pilgrimage to and from the "sacred" soil, by means of the irregular connections and accommodations on the part of the Hanover Branch Railroad company;

And whereas, The citizens along the said Hanover Branch Railroad greatly endanger their lives, &c., in crossing said railroad, for want of proper notice, on the part of said company; therefore,

Be it enacted, &c.—SECTION 1. That the Hanover Branch Railroad Company be, and are hereby, required to keep and maintain proper fencing along the line of said railroad, from the Hanover Junction to the borough line of the borough of Hanover, and to make cattle guards at all crossings of public roads, and maintain the same in good condition, and at the crossing of said railroad on any turnpike and public road, the said Hanover Branch Railroad Company shall station a flagman for the purpose of signalling any danger to horsemen, vehicles, drovers and persons generally using said turnpike and public road.

SEC. 2. That the said Hanover Branch Railroad Company be, and the same are hereby, required to run a separate passenger train from Hanover Junction to Hanover in a time not exceeding thirty five minutes, (length 12 1-5 miles;) also, from Hanover to Hanover Junction in the same time, and make the regular connections with the Northern Central passenger trains to and from Baltimore.

SEC. 3. That it shall be the duty of the president and directors of said Hanover Branch Railroad Company to see that the provisions of the above and foregoing sections be complied with; and a failure on their part, after the expiration of six months, from the passage of this act, shall subject the said Hanover Branch Railroad Company to a fine of fifty dollars for each day that the provisions of said sections shall be uncomplied with, after the expiration of six months, to be recovered as debts of like amount are recovered before any justice of the peice in the county of York, one-half of said amount to go to the directors of the poor, for the benefit of the poor of said county, and the other half to the informer, who shall be a competent witness.

SHARP TRICK OF CONTRACTORS.

Our Eastern horse dealers are most generally noted as being "sharp on a trade," but the sharpest trick that has been played by the Abolition horse contractors was recently near Washington city. They "done" the Government nicely, and this is the way they performed the feat, as related by a Washington correspondent:

THE INGENUITY OF REPUBLICAN SHARPERS.—It will be remembered that some weeks ago, a great stampede of horses took place from the Government enclosure a few miles below this city on the Potomac. It was reported that a full thousand of them had run into the river and been drowned. It is taking out that the whole thing was one of the many contrivances gotten up about here to rob the Treasury. It would seem that some two thousand of these horses had not been branded, and the stampede was a gotten up affair to set those unbranded horses loose. So also was the report that a thousand of them were drowned, a made up story without a particle of truth in it.—These unbranded horses were afterwards caught, and a number of them, equal to that reported drowned, were re sold to the Government at one hundred and forty five dollars per head. That is pretty sharp practice, even in the horse line, where such wonderful tricks of trade are reported as occurring. The affair will, I am told, undergo an investigation some time between this and the close of the war.

☞This is only one of the thousand tricks played on the Government by its political friends! Verily, the Government is being restored to its ancient purity by "honest (?) Old Abe!" and his office holders and contractors!

THE LEGITIMATE RESULT.

The Administration in its holy name efforts to elevate the character of the African and equalise them with the white people, two years ago benevolently sent from Massachusetts to Port Royal, South Carolina, at the expense of the whole people of the United States, a few hundred spinsters to educate, civilize and refine all the contrabands at that place. The New Hampshire Patriot, of the 4th of October, gives the result of this very benevolent experiment of Mr. Lincoln in the following paragraph:

"Private advices from Port Royal say that many of the female Abolitionists who went to Port Royal to teach the little n*gers how to read and pray, have been obliged within a few months to abandon their black charges and open nurseries on their own private account. An officer informed us recently that no less than sixty-four white spinsters had contributed to the population in and about Port Royal harbor. The climate seems to favor population even more than the production of Sea Island cotton by paid negro labor.

"The information furnished us by the officer concerning the sixty-four little mulattoes, has been confirmed by the testimony of Rev. Liberty Billings, Lieutenant Colonel of the 1st South Carolina regiment, who is here in consequence of ill health. He said it is a sad truth."

☞"After a calm, impartial and patient consideration of the subject, I am convinced that by the proper employment of our resources, it is entirely possible to bring this war to a successful military issue, and that such result should be accompanied and followed by conciliatory measures and that, by pursuing the political course I have always advised, it is possible to bring about a permanent restoration of the Union—re-union by which the rights of both sections shall be preserved, and by which both parties shall preserve their self respect while they respect each other."—M'Clellan's Report.

For such honorable and manly sentiments, remarks an exchange, the ablest general who has led our armies to victory, receives the abuse and vilification of the par excellence Unionists and "friends of christianity." The Butlers are their worthy models. "A re-union by which the rights of both sections shall be preserved," is despicable in the sight of these "christian philanthropists," only because it would be the death-knell of their corrupt and unholy ambition for self aggrandizement.

If this nation is ever to be united and prosperous, (and we pray God it may be,) it can only be by a union in which "both parties shall preserve their self respect, while they respect each other."—Providence (R. I.) Post.

Trouble in the Republican Ranks.—There is some talk that a big thing may happen next December when the Electoral Colleges meet to cast their votes for President. Something will "drap" in case Mr. Lincoln, by military power, should choose, in defiance of the will of the people, a majority of electors.—In that event he would be tripped up, by unexpected votes against him in the Electoral Colleges, and especially if he should run, as his friends desire, without a nomination.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

A RETORT AND A PROPHECY.

We take the following passage from a recent debate in the Senate of Massachusetts:

Mr. Swan.—Now we have had part of one regiment come home after they had re-enlisted. They had a furlough of thirty days. The Administration, if they are wise men, if they have a particle of wisdom, when these old soldiers re-enlist, will give them a furlough of thirty days, and they don't care whether they come home before or after re-enlisting.

Mr. Carter.—They can't all be spared to come home at this time.

Mr. Swan.—They could be spared to come home to vote, and 17,000 of them came to New York to attend the election. They spared so many that the grand army of the Potomac was driven back to the lines of Washington, and now the Senator says they cannot be spared to take a furlough. This Administration can spare men as long as they see that the sparing of them can continue them in power—whenever they can take one step to perpetuate them in power—but they cannot spare them to come home and see their wives and little ones. Sir, I alluded to Gen. McClellan, and, although I am not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, I tell you that in one year from the 4th of March next, you will have occasion to say, that "the stone which the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner." Then we shall close this rebellion, and not till then.

The retort of Mr. Swan is a hit in the centre. It remains to be seen whether his prophecy is not a hit equally central.

☞We regard it as the height of impudence for those who have been the cause of this war, and have hounded off to death those who had no share in producing it, to thrust themselves forward as the eulogizers of those whose blood is upon their skirts.

☞A young man named Isaac Hogendobler was killed at a dance house in Columbia, Pa., on Thursday night week.

☞There is a libel suit in the Court of Exchequer, London, about a plate of bean soup.
