Terms.

The Computer is published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STABLE, at $1 75 per annum if paid strictly in advance-$2 00 per annum if not paid in advance. No aubscription discontinued, unless at the option of the publisher, until all arrearges

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates. Job PRINTING done with nestness and dispatch.

OFFICE in South Baltimore street, nearly opposite Wamplers' Tinning Establishment -"Confiler Printing Office" on the sign.

Professional Cards.

D. McConaughy, TTORNEY AT LAW, (office one door west of Buehler's drug and beek store, Chamersburg street,) ATTORNEY AND SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS AND PENSIONS. Bounty Land Warrants, Back-pay suspended Claims, and all other claims against the Government at Washington, D. C.; also American Claims in Fagland. Land Warrants located and sold, or bought, and highest prices given. Agents engaged in locating warrants in Iowa, Illinois and other western States Apply to him personally Gettysburg, Nov. 21, '53.

Wm. A. Duncan.

H. A. Picking

A TTENDS to SURVEYING, Writing of DEEDS and WILLS, CLERKING OF SALES, &c. Residence, in Straban township, on the road leading from Gettysburg to Hunterstown, two miles from the former place. Charges moderate and satisfaction guaranteed. Feb. 1, 1864. 6m

Edward B. Buehler,

TTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly ettend to all business entrusted office at the same place, in South Baltimore against them as shall be just.

Adams, are to be then and there to prosecut of the same place, in South Baltimore against them as shall be just.

ADAM REBERT, Sheriff. Sheriff's office, Gettysburg, Mar. 28, 64. opposite Danner & Ziegler's store. Gettysburg, March 20.

J. C. Neely, TTORNEY AT LAW .- Particular atten-

A TTORNEY AT HAW,—Particular moves-tion paid to effection of Pensions, Bounty, and Back-pay, Office in the S. E. corner of the Damond. Gettysburg, April 6, 1863. tf Dr. James Cress, DELECTIC PHYSICIAN, thankful for pub-I lie natronage heretofore extended to him, s friends that he will continue the practice of his profession in Gettysburg and vicinity. "Belectic" means to choose or select. Hence, we select the best, safest and most re-liable remedies from all other sectarian medifrom the experience and sarctioned by the practice of the ablest Eclectic Practitioners, and discard those more injurious, such as antimony, arsenic, mercury, blue pill, blood let-ng, acc. Office in the east end of York street, in the dwelling owned by Henry Welty. Gestysburg, Sept. 28, 1863. 3m

Dr. Wm. Taylor informs the inhabitants of Gettysburg and vicintly that he will continue the practice of his profession at the old stand, next door to the Compiler Office, Gettysburg, Pa. Thunkial for past favors, he begs to receive a share of future patronage. [Sept. 28, 1863. tf

Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal's OFFICE and Dwelling, N. E. corner of Baltimore and High streets, near Presbyterian Church, Gettysburg, Pa. Nov. 30, 1863. If J. Lawrence Hill, M. D.

door west of the Lutheran church in Onambers pre street, and opposite Picking's Store, where those wishing to have any Dental Operation performed are respectfully invited to eath. Repeasyns Bris. Horner, Rev. C. P. Kranth, D. D. Blev, H. L. Baugher, D. D., Rev. Prof. M. Jacobs, 2 rof. M. L. Stover Prof. M. Jacobs, Prof. M. L. Steever.

Adams County

Gettysburg, April 11, '53.

MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. - Incorporated March 18, 1851. OFFICERS. President—George Swope. Vice President—S. R. Russell. Secretary-D. A. Buehler.

Tredsuser .- David M'Creary. Executive Committee-Robert McCurdy, Jacob King, Andrew Heintzelman. agers-George Swope, D. A. Buehler, R. M'Curdy, Jacob King, A. Heintzelman, D. Me-Creary, S. R. Russell, J. R. dersh, Sumuel Group, Administrator of the estate of Maria Durberaw, E. G. Fahnestock, Wm. B. Wilson, Mowery, late of Butler township, dec'd.

H. A. Picking, Wm. B. McClellan, John Wolord, R. G. McCreary, John Picking, Abel T. Wright, John Cunningham, Abdiel F. Gitt, Gry, James H. Marshall, M. Eichelberger. (y, d 'tions to the county of Adams. It has been in successful operation for more than six years, and in that period has paid all losses and expenses, without any assessment, having also a large surplus capital in the Treasury. The Comrany employs no: Agents—all business being done by the Managers, who are annually elected by the Stockholders. Any person desiring an Insurance can apply to any of the above named Managers for further information.

The Executive Committee meets at the office of the Company on the last Wednesday in every month, at 2, P. M. Sept. 27, 1858. The Great Discovery

OF THE AGE.—Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism can be cured by using H. L. MILLER'S CELEBRATED RHEUMATIC MIX-TURE. Many prominent citizess of this, and the adjoining counties, have testified to its great utility. Its success in Rheumatic affections, has been hitherto unparalleled by any specific, introduced to the public. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists and storekeepers. Prepared only by H. L. MILLER, Wholesale and Retail Druggist, East Berlin, Adams county, Pa., dealer in Drugs, Chemicals Oils, Varnish, Spirits, Paints, Dye-stuffs, bottled Oils, Essences and Tinctures, Window Glass, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, &c., &c.

burg for "H. L. Miller's Celebrated Rheumatic Mixture." June 3, 1861 ff June 3, 1861: tf The Grocery Store

THE HILL.-The undersigned would on hand all kinds of GROCERES Sugars, Coffees, Syrups of all kinds, Tobacco, Salt. &c., Earthenware of all kinds Fruits. Sait, ac., Earthenware of all kinds, Fruits, Oils, and in fact everything usually found in a Grocery. Also, FLOUR & FERD of all kinds; All of which he intends to sell low as the lowest. Country produce taken in exchange for goods and the highest price given. He flatters himself that, by strict attention and an honest against to please, to merit a share of public parameters. raire to please, to merit a share of public pa-tionage. TRY HIM. J. M. ROWE. Feb. 23, 1863.

Removals.

HEundersigned, being the authorized person to make removals into Ever Green Cemetery, hopes that such as contemplate the removal of the remains of deceased relatives or friends will avail themselves of this season of the year to have it done. Removals made with promptness—terms low, and no effort spared to please.

PETER THORN,

March 12, '60. Keeper of the Cemetery, O to Dr. R. HORNER'S Drug Store and get his MEDICATED COUGH CANDY.

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

Br H. J. STAHLE.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY AND WILL PREVAIL."

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

46th Year.

GETTYSBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 18, 1864.

No. 29.

Proclamation

WHEREAS the Hon. Robert J. Fisher, President of the several Courts of Common Pleas in the Counties composing the 19th Instrict, and Justice of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, for the trial of all capital and other offenders in the TTORNEY AT LAW.—Office in the North-A TTORNEY AT LAW.—Office in the North-west corner of Centre Square, Getty-burg, [Oct. 3, 1859. If

A. J. Cover,

A TTORNEY AT LAW, will promptly attend A TTORNEY AT LAW, will promptly attend to Collections and all other business entrusted to him. Office between Fahnestocks' and Danner & Ziegler's Stores, Baltimore street Gettysburg, Pa.

[Sept. 5, 1859]

[Sept. 5, 1859]

[Juil Delivery and Court of Over and Terminer.] Jail Delivery and Court of Oyer and Terminer, at Gettysburg, on Monday, the 18th day o

April nest-April next—

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all the Justices of the Peace, the Coroner and Constaoles swithin the said County of Adams, that ther be then and there in their proper persons, with their Rolls, Records, Inquisitions, Examinations, and other Remembrances, to do those things which to their offices and in that behalf appertain to be done, and also, they who will prosecute against the prisoners that are or then shall be in the Jail of the said County of Adams, are to be then and there to prosecute

Jury List-April Term. GRAND JURY.

Tyrone-Henry J. Myers, (Foreman,) Andrew Bream. Hamiltonban-Isaac Harner, Jacob L. Firor. Huntington-Jacob Sheaffet. Oxford-James Robinson. Hamilton-John Ruff. Reading-Sciomon Jacobs. Latimore-Arnold Gardner. Germany—T." B. Klćin. Straban-John Lynch. Union-Daniel Basehore, Sr. Berwick tp .- John Richter. . Monntjoy-John R. Little. Butler-Jonas Orner. Menalleu-Henry Rice, Sr. Cumberland—Isaac Diehl. Franklin-Levi Irwin.
Mountpleasant-John Kerrigan.

Berwick bor .- George Davis.

onowago-Absalom Aulabaugh. Liberty-W. Shover. Freedom-Calvin Krise. GENERAL JURY. Germany—Wm. Rittase, James H. Colehouse. Mountpleasant—Joseph Kuhn, Robert S. Lott Straban—Philip Donohue, John F. Felty. Strabau—Philip Donodue, John F. Felly, Hamilton—Peter Hoffneins; Jacob Stock, Franklin—John P. Butt, George Lady, Hintington—Abraham Rickes, Eli Gochenoui Conowago—John Weaver, Jacob Melhorn. Cumberland-John Maring, Jacob Beamer, Reading-Lewis Chronister, Andrew Hantz. Oxtord-Jacob Klank.

Liherty-John McKesson. Berwick tp.-Jacob Hull. Tyrone-James A. Miller. Butler-Martin Thomas, John G. Markley. Latimore Joseph Fickel, John Stitzel. Menallen—Amos Schlosser, Samuer Meals. Gettysburg-Wm. H. Culo David Mountjoy - John Horner.

Herwick bor. - Francis Strubinger.

Register's Notice.

OTICE is hereby given to all Legatees and other persons concerned, that the Adwill be presented at the Orphan's Court of dims county, for confirmation and allowance, on MONDAY, the 18th day of APRIL, 1864, nation. at 10 o'clock, A. M., viz:

ministrator of Rachel Brinkerhoff, deceased, settled by John G. Brinkerhoff and saac F. Brinkerhoff, Administrators of said Isuac Brinkerhoff, deceased. 25. The first and final account of George

26. The first and final account of George Group, Executor of the will of Mary Mowlate of Butler township, Adams coun-27. The first account of Samuel Brown Administrator of Eliza Fried, deceased, 29. The first and final account of Jacob Margaret Fidler, deceased.

31. The first and final account of George come when you would need these men, and Hollinger, Administrator of Michael Hollinger, that you were to blame in not calling for of Andrew Wilt, deceased.

33. The second and final account of Joseph Dysert, Executor of the last will and testament of Abraham Biehl, late of Union township, Adams county, Pa., deceased, exhibited by Amos Lefever, Administrator of the estate of said Joseph Dysert, deceased.

34. The account of Michael Bender, Guardian of Jonas Eppleman, deceased.

35. Second and final account of Hon. Isaac E. Wierman, one of the Administrators of Daniel Fickes, deceased.

SAMUEL LILLY, Register. Register's Office, Gettysburg, March 14, 1864, td*

Assistance Needed.

ON THE HILL.—The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity, that he has taken the old stand "on the Hill," in Baltimore street, Getty to him to call before that time and make pay-

Come, One and All! THE subscriber, having re-opened his Samond, invites the attention of his friends and the public generally, to his excellent ALE, PORTER, BROWN STOUT, WINE, CHAMPAGNE, TOBACCO, SEGARS, &c. He hopes, Action of the public stances is only equaled by the identity of the results. We have:

Sherman's reconnoissance.

Smith's reconnoissance. by strict attention to business and a desire to please, to receive a liberal share of custom.

H. W. CHRISMER.

Gettysburg, Aug. 24, 1863. tf Fruit and Ornamental

TREES FOR SPRING 1864 .- We respect fully invite attention to our superior stock of FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES AND SHRUBS, for the coming season. Our assortment is large and fine, and trees remark-ably thrifty and well grown. Catalogues can be had on application by mail, or at the office of "The Compiler."

EDW. J. EVANS & CO.,

York, Penn's.

Feb. 8, 1864. 3m

POETRY.

THE OFFICER.

[FROM BYRANGER.] Before our door they'll pass, pers My sister, do you hear the drum ? And see how gryly they advance?

What handsome, gallant men they are ! What loves in town they've left behind We country girls, though simpler far, Amongst them husbands perhaps may find,"

Before sweet Rose, a bright brunette, A cornet passing in his place, Cried out, "In faith my fate is set, I never saw a lovelier face, I count her charms, I mark her well:

Yes, in a year, this very day will return if shot and shell Permit, and carry her away." "Ah Rose" that foolish speech you heard,

I know it. by your cheek's bright bloom, And now without another word . You backward turn into the room. Since then, whene'er alone, sweet Rose Tells e'er the words she thought so dear

While for the anknown cornet flews A nightly prayer, a nightly tear. A-year of dreaming thus has past;

The day us fixed on shines at last, For HIM her gayest dress she takes.

All day she waits, comes in, goes out,
"Oh. hear you not the soldiers' tread?" Paces in tears her room about—
At midnight shricks, "He's dead! he's dead!

MISCELLANT

THE TRUTH TOLD.

LINCOLN'S HONESTY AND CAPACITY.

A Terrible Phillipic Against Lincoln by a Fremont Organ.

[From the New York New Nation.] We all recollect that worthy citizen of Athens who banished Aristides solely because it annoyed him to hear the epithet, "the Just," constantly coupled with his name. We have all been struck by this strange specimen of political liberty, and by the lack of judgment in the application. It was not because this undue notoriety given to the name of a surround the repubbecause the enithet of "just" was questionable, that the worthy citizen of Greece ban-ished Aristides. He would not even disand that was enough to ostracise its unfor-tunate bearer. In this we see an excess of iberty and a lack of political education.

Now we are annoved and irritated at hearing the words Abraham Lincoln and hones: v always coupled together; but being more generous than the excellent Athenian citizen aforesaid, we propose, before ostra-cising honest. Abe from the White House, to consider his right to the surname of To call one man honest out of upon all the rest. Let us look into his hon- and herry to the nation, the Lincoln party esty and capability. After three years of patient silence we have a right, and it is than a blind submission to the decrees norcover our duty, Me Lincoln, to examine of the government.

You commenced by confiding the fate of our cause, the honor of our arms, and the ring three years there of our cause, the honor of men having no higher and what was more generous than significant to the decree of the substitution of the substitution of the decree of the substitution of the subst ministration Accounts hereinafter mentioned claim to such trust than a host of voters at lence?

24. Account of Isaac Brinkerhoff, Adlitical and personal interests, and to transform into heroes men whose inefficiency has have done; what we have done; he, has
have done; what we have done; he, has

exoneration for acts which have eternally martyrs to their country who have fallen, you? 30. The second and final account of John You are now appealing to conscription, of energy abroad. Napoleon has trampled Klinepeter and Frederick Klinepeter, Adams we will not effect into a discussion of upon the right of a friendly republic; he ministrators of Frederick Klinepeter, de-ceased. come when you would need these men, and doctrine in our face.

oriving us of the services of men whose oppularity stimulated that enthusiasm.

It. This is the secret of the difference be-popularity stimulated that enthusiasm.

You have told the country that both the tween your currency and that of the rests originally in the people, and with the National and State Banks of 3½ per cent. South.

This is the secret of the difference be-popularity stimulated that enthusiasm.

You have told the country that both the south that of the people of the several States, and us, in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States, and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States and the wider rests originally in the people of the several States and th were reduced by desertions, and that they could not be recruited, fed, nor clothed and yet you are forced to act upon the defensive, being threatened at all points. Whenever you have directed the action of our troops they have been uniformly unuccessful; you have perpetually offered us the wretched spectacle of splendid resources and excellent chances of success sacrificed to incapacity. The only success which you out securing victory, and we must have whom they shall choose as their candidate. came near attaining, but the credit of which we intend to take from you, is due to the ncredible imaginativeness that you have isplayed in describing facts. Changes of ase, masterly retreats, and reconnoissance have succeeded each other with a rapidity

Thomas' reconnoissance. Kilpatrick's reconnoissance. Custor's reconnoissance. Gilmore's Charleston reconnoissance.

ous and disastrous. The sole concession we can make to your honesty is, that you 1862; you destroy fewer soldiers and burn less of the nation's property. How is it, that after three years of incom-

The result is everywhere the same, ridicupondering how to preserve the national journals that are paid to applaud and subapital and your bases of operation?

Is it a reward for such success, for the Mr. Lincoln's honesty is of strange de-Capital and your bases of operation?

striking illustration of your peculier hones-ty by pledging yourself, in accordance with ble to make any better use of the incredi-to hold, with the immense resources at his command, the ground which his predeces-public, in the name and under the plea of popular sovereignty.

And to cap the climax, you are obliged satisfied with the measures taken by the bring back peace and union to this distractgovernment, approves them all and gives them his constant support...

It seems almost incredible. Are we in iven to the name of a constantinople, in St. Letersoning, in coming might after a time, prove dangerous, nor or in Paris? Are we the descendents of Constantinople, in St. Petersburg, in Rome those proud Saxons who refused to succumb ished Aristides. He would not even discuss the matter, the epithet annoyed him, greatness by a perpetual worship? Are we really the descendants of those disciples of Luther and Calvin, who rather than subject their reason to an authority which subject their reason to an authority which they despised, preferred to expatriate themselves to those shores, where through the agency of liberty, they founded our manufactured by some common impulse of passion, or of interest, adverse to the rights of tional greatness woich you are now striving to drown in a sea, of cowardice and adulato drown in a sea of cowardice and adula-tion, corruption and incomp. tency? Were our ancestors to visit the earth, they would contain the faction at present in this country to uphold a population of thirty millions, is not so certainly be surprised to see that, eighty much of a compliment to him as a sarcasm, years after the revolution which gave life their command, whose support you coveted a Some true radical patriots said not long in order total vance the welfare of the since, "We have lost confidence in Fresince, "We have lost confidence in Fre-mont. What has he done or said for a of treasure, so that you might be able to dazzle the eyes of the people with victories and that is more than he should have far more than real. We have permitted you to sacrifice tried patriots, whose popularity alternative alternative and the sacrificative alternative larity alarmed you and whose energy dis- us silent. Each time that a fresh concession to foreign powers brought an indigappointed your calculations.

sion to foreign powers brought an indig-nant exclamation to our lips, we re-trained ple; we have let you transform disgraceful its utterance. And yet have much grief, lefeats into victories; and even we made and love, and admiration, accompanied ho outery when you were reduced to beg each hetacomb of these unknown heroes, Administrator of Enza Fried, deceased.

28. The first and final account of Amos disgraced the honor of our arms. You have through the incompetency and the men and insatiable ambition of the men anything. What has become of the nation's deceased.

What have you done with considerations for their personal advancethe immense resources, unprecedented in considerations for their personal advance-B. Trostle, Administrator of the estate of history, that the nation has lavishly given Margaret Fidler, deceased.

And you have not displayed more talent

We ask, then, who is master now linger, deceased.

Ithem when the people's enthusiasm was America, he who lays down the law, or he 32. The account of Andrew Wilt, surviv- first aroused, when they certainly would who submits to the same? Is it Napoleon ing Executor of the last will and testament not have been refused you. You are to the III, or the successor of Washington? blame, insamuch as through your incapacity and personal schemes, the necessity for try inexhaustible natural wealth, and that that dictates secession and that that exer-God alone, by bestowing upon the counsuch an appeal has become a question of ardent patriotism which makes every sole cises the right of choosing a President and public safety. You are to blame for dediction here, has saved the country from rule declaring the principles that should govern priving us of the services of men whose in into which your selfishness would plunge > enough. The ruin which you have been unable to accomplish in four years, would to remain in power four years, would be the representatives of the sovereign proto remain in power four years longer.—

> Your Military Governors and their Provost tors under the Constitution, propose to Marshals override the laws, and the echo of make a declaration of principles to all the point to the inevitable end. And yet they the armed heel rings forth as clearly now States, and by the united action of all the in America as in France or Austria. You States, they hope to elect, at the proper have encroached upon our liberty with-both. You have dishonored us around by shameless misrepresentations as to our true condition. Places that we occupied in 1862 are 1850, John P. Hale, of New Hampshire, Let Gen. Crook order out his militurity guard now again in the hands of the rebels, and presented to the United States Senate two and arrest the "trainors." Let the old tories. now again in the hands of the rebels, and God knows whether your preparations for the approaching campaign are adequate.— Corruption has entered into every department of your administration, rendering it a very Augean stable, which needs a Hercules as your successor. It is time for the light to shine forth and for the truth to fully appear, so that all sincere patricts all. Every member from the South voted expired.

The fully appear in the hands of the rebels, and great the "traivers."

Let the old tories and arrest the "traivers."

Le fully appear, so that all sincere patricts, all Every member from the South voted against men who look for nothing further than the them. Two members of Mr. Lincoln's Cabi-it and the judgment that is to follow! Let advancement of their country and of liberty, may rally in one compact body around the present time, were then for disunionhe great principal of liberalism, and form just as the same "loyalists" are now. a liberal party really worthy of the same .-

Such a man can only save the country. Away with all the imposters who have inhave improved upon the change of base in | vaded the temple of liberty, and turned it collected, the officer having them in charge into a vote market. Let there be an end writes that 'out of all this number of fre of this rediculous farce of unconditional recruits not a single one can be found w of this rediculous farce of unconditional recruits not a single one can be found who loyalty, which is only fit to secure the was a member of a so-called Loyal League." parable victories, according to Halleck's votes of those fools, who instead of delving The officer therefore concludes that Loyal fore our own Legislature. The facetious expression, "unprecedented in the military history of nations," you are still all the interested falsehoods published by the well-known principles of the party ble resources confided to him, and who, af-which had been added this in a manner which out solving one of them, disregards his own the term; you said this in a manner which none of your supporters then understood but your words were evidently designed to been a double meaning, so that, if you should find the sweets of office more enticing than you possibly anticipated, you might change your purpose, without seeming to violate your purpose, without seeming to violate your purpose, without seeming to the same than of honesty.

The whole truth is this, you'are leading this ago depend on the first part of the campaign of 1802 you gained advantage-swhich you were unable to utilize or even retain in 1863.

You sacrified the entire West for the capture of Vick-burg, and then you proclaim to the four winds that the Mississippi is free, while not a single steamboat can havigate it without it is without had been and the red to the discovered the supposition of the capture of Vick-burg, and then you proclaim to the four winds that the Mississippi is free, while not a single steamboat can invested them as universal to the form of the capture of Vick-burg, and then you proclaim to the four winds that the Mississippi is free, while not a single steamboat can invested the manner of the committee consideration; it without seemed at the capture of Vick-burg and then you proclaim to the four winds that the Mississippi is free, while not a single steamboat can invested the manner of the committee the active with the mississippi and the supporters the country of the descriptions of the manner of the transmitted the same that is supportered that under the active which is specific to subting on the state stocks, which will form the bout solving one of them, shy the military flows on the following one of the descriptions of the municipal taxation, the system becomes the municipal taxation, the system becomes the descriptions of the descriptions of the municipal taxation, the state of the descriptions of the municipal taxation, the subting the taxation, the subting the same th bled in Philadelphia, on the 24th ult., to select delegates to the National Nominating sor gained in spite of you by his own talents.

You have offered us the distressing spectacle of the sacrifice of merit to caprice and personal notificial integer. personal political interests, and this in a retatives unite with the representatives of the other sovereignties of the North in embodyto hear definitions like this: An unconditional loyal man is one who, although not elauation of principles to all the States, on ed hind."

These expressions are objected to by the par excellence union press. Now there is nothing more dangerous to the liberties of a people than to lose sight of ancient landmarks; and one of the evils to be apprehended from this war is, of the temporary the absolute sovereignty of the Federal ment itself. This places power in their awe do not propose to enter into the dis-hands without even the restraints that are cussion; for with us the question is one that exercised in a limited monarchy; where the crown is obliged, from time to time, according to the popular will, to change ministers. There is a great difference between the exercise of extraordinary powers in States in rebellion, and the general as has carried the immunity annexed to insumption of such powers over citizens of States not so, whose citizens certainly have a right to question the manner in which their representatives administer the government. Alexander Hamilton, in the Federalist. "The proposed Constitution, so far SIYS: from implying an abolition of the State Givernments, makes them constitutional parts of the National sovereignty, by allowing them a direct representation in the Schate, and leaves in their possession, cer-tain exclusive, and very important por-mulated burden upon property in other tions of sovereign powers: This fully responds, in every rational import of the people of the several States do not vote di-rectly for President. The States vote. each State choose electors. Here then the tions, in some countries of the State amount-States are essentially sovereign. There is ing to 4 per cent., that the consolidationists his administration under the Constitution. sovereignties of the North, therefore, that I

ment."

- York Press. Loyalty in 1850.—On the first of February net, and his leading friend in the Senate at

Cheap Patriotism.-At a military where some 8,000 new recruits have been

THE UNITED STATES BANKS vs. STATE BANKS.

It is well known to our readers that, ing the tax on "horses, cittle and other per-among other dangerous innovations of the sonal property." The hard-working masses achievement of such results, that you now ask the nation to pass a vote of confidence and re-elect you for another, and perhaps another, term?

In your inaugural address you give a very prived his country of the services of the individual and the perhaps another damperous innovations of the damperous inno some of its best citizens, who has been una-ble to make any better use of the incredi-and liberty of the country, but when we consider that under the act of Congress you were unable to utilize or even retain in 1863.

You sacrified the entire West for the capture of Vick-burg, and then you proclaim to the four winds that the Mississippi is free, while not a single steamboat can navigate it without being attacked or perhaps burned, and without being attacked or perhaps burned, and winds the endire west passenger having the fear of death or captivity before his eyes.

To serve the ends of your cause, you have lavished everything, who had every obstacle removed from his path, and who was promptly furnished with reinforcements and supplies, while Roscerans could get none; and who had scarcely then able to utilize or even the land supplies, while Roscerans could get none; and who had scarcely then able to utilize or even their sides the fate of the mensure in the supplies, while Roscerans could get none; and who had scarcely then able to their side of the mensure in the property invested ingovernmentstocks will have to bear the entire weight of taxaging in the fate of the mensure in the property to bear upon those members and supplies, while Roscerans could get none; and who had scarcely then able to the property invested ingovernments which is a fate of the fate of the mensure in the capture, when the party screws are thought properly to bear upon those members and supplies, while Roscerans could get none; and who had scarcely then able to the property invested ingovernments which is unitarity to have been able to hold, with the immense resourcer at his violence by the partisans of consolidation. present form of flovernment by Slates, all its authors, who represent the traditional this and infinitely more is contained in the ment in which its character has been formed and he who attempts its resurrection is a and its political in-titutions shaped. In the criminal instead of a patriot. He goes fur-Revolution we asserted equality of taxation. ther, and admits all the second States have Under Jefferson we vimicated the political ever claimed—their nationality. They rights of the States. Under Jackson we have sought in vain in all the four quarters crushed the usurpations of the United States of the earth for recognition. They find it Bank, and freed the government, State and the hands of those who speak for the admin-National, from all dependence on it. The dynasty of Corruptionists and Terrorists at Washington propose to reverse all reason by clamor!

"We do not propose to enter into the disno more admits of discussion than a ques-

It is deeply to be regretted that Congress vestments in the stocks and securities of the United States so far as to exempt them from taxation by or under State or municipal authority. The primary effect of this exemption is more particularly evident in the The distinguished "Republican publicists" cor- forms. When it is borne in mind that the aggregate amount of the national debt al- under heaven could have saved the Repub term, with the idea of a Federal Govern-ready exceeds two thousand millions of ready exceeds two thousand millions of lican press from the same fate.—New York dollars, and that an equivalent amount of World. property is to be withdrawn from taxation, maining in the States of he manner of elections are cannot but apprehende disastrous reing a President of the United States. The suks to the public faith and credit from such an extension of the exemption princile.' --"It is for this immense privilege of exempa wide distinction between that sovereignty and champions of the privileged Banks are contending. The holders of three thousand millions of property, are by a Congressional nct of indulgence, made free of taxation, town, city, county, State and Federal. That the collision when it comes! "For the moment this question is in the "For the moment this question is in the hands of our political opponents; a portion of them struggle to avert a general columity.

They protest extent take present agreements are blackguard. When he is defeated in argupoint to the inevitable end. And yet they commit themselves to the charge and bind rying them to destruction! They are who hold the reins and who drive wildly because we do not intend to stand between this folly, tanaticism and treason pursue its course to its end. The sooner the better! They who would delay it by protests and advice, but postpone the day of justice and post of retribution and of ultimate rectification.

"We have no sympathy with them. No!

> Since the above was written, the subject of taxing the capital stock of banks opera-ting under the act of Congress has been be-Yesterday afternoon a bill "to enable the

MORE ON THE SAME SUBJECT.

a State tax upon such banks as may choose to avail themselves of the privileges of the bill. The Abolition members, with a few bill. The Abolition members, with a few honorable exceptions, (among whom we are glad to find the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Megas, Mr. Bigham, of Allegheny,) voted persistently against the adoption of these amendments. Mr. Cochran, of Erie, during thadiscussion which aprang up in regard to the bill, remarked that what the State would lose by the proposed exemption of the National Banks from taxation, could be supplied by additional taxe levied could be supplied by additional taxes levied upon cattle, horses, and other personal property, thus compelling the farming interest to furnish the revenue hitherto raised by taxation of the banks. Messrs. Pershing, Barger, Rex and others on the Democratic of taxing banks. The whole Democratic vote of the House was east in favor of the proposed taxation, whilst all but seven of the fifty-three Abolition members voted to deprive the State of the revenue hitherto derived from taxes on banks, and to impose the burden of raising that revenue upon the agricultural interest of the State, by increas-sociations for carrying on the business of banking under the laws of the United States" was under consideration in the House

Representatives. Amendments were roposed on the Democratic side to impose

POLICY OF THE ADMINISTRATION. Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana, in some pertinent remarks, which apply as tioner; universal confiscation of property welkto this State as to New York. It says: to the remotest period of an innocent possible report made to the Assembly on terity; the absolute extermination of a Saturday, in defence of the rights of the whole people and the appropriation of the State Banks against the pretensions of the depopulated country to the unsparing deprivileged. United States Banks was the privileged United States and demonstrations of the unsparing designal for threats and demonstrations of the unsparing designal for the restriction of every vestige of our threats and demonstrations of the utter extinction of every vestige of our policy of the State, and the sentiments and interests of the great majority of the people were denounced as 'disloyal," and threated with the vengence of government.

This challition of intense partizanship this floor, the presentation of the report is evoked by the presentation of the report is not (Mr. Stevens) has deliberately here any name of the story of the sto one of the signs of the times. There have loss, that the Union of our fathers is dead.

istration on this floor. The New Nation, (Fromont organ,) in this—to create a class more privileged than an article on the relations of the press of the nobility of England or the noblesse of the administration, makes the following them and their possessions away—to extinguish the right of the States—to restore the istration that is afraid of its friends, of the the absolute sovereignty of the Federal corrupt influence of a United States Birk, presses that kelped to put it in power? It argues something rotten in Denmark. The conquering the rebellion, but to stuffe the fold, and ramifying into every department raid of the administration against the press conquering the rebellion, but to stifle the expression of the popular will in those expression of the popular will in those States that are not in rebellion. This is beyinced daily. The government of the United States is invested by them with all the prerogatives belonging to those governments that are ruled by absolute monarchs. Indeed, the executive officers of the United States, more particularly the Chief Executive and his Cabinet are styled perset the government itself. This phaces power in their delayed in waiting for public opinion to harden sufficiently to make it safe for the administration to enter upon so bazardous tion of providing by law for piracy or forgery. an experiment. Public opinion, however, But we will quote a single passage from the did not rise to that pitch of induration to justify the movement, and the scheme was, fortunately for its projectors, abandoned.

France before the revolution which swept curious revelation:
Indeed, public opinion by degrees rescued the Republican press from the dangers of administrative intolerance, and that press > case of corporations. The banks of this alluded to must have been Greeley, Beech-State hold United States stocks to an amount | er, and Titton. Con this be the reason why far beyond their aggregate capital. Could these three worthies are not in favor of the this exemption, therefore, be made operative renomination of "Honest Old Abe?" It in their case, it would at once remove one hun- may account for the milk in that cocdanut. dred and nine millions of dollars from the reach. There is a moral in this fact, however, of State and local taxation, and throw the accu- which the Republican press should heed. Had the administration succeeded in muzzling the Democratic newspapers, nothing

> > A Good Story .- There is a moral to the story told at the expense of two deputy sheriff from New Port, it. I., who arrested one O. W. Ryder, and started to lodge him. in Irasburg jail. On the wav, the captors stopped at a well-known hotel, and left the cuptured while they indulged freely in the flowing bowl. The probner took a rap, and when he swoke found the sheriffs noncest, and sp week to Irasburg and voluntarily offered himself to the jailor, who, however, would not take him in. In this desperate extremity he decided to advertise for the lost sheriffs, which he did in a next handi

O'd Thad .- Thadden Stevens-past commander in chief of the anti-masons—hero ment he seeks retreat in personal impudence.—Boston Post. A Lubyrinth .- What a pretty labyrinth rying them to destruction! They are our Republican friends are getting into? One year ago Old Abe was "the Govern-who hold the reins and who drive wildly ment." Now the most radical of his party are laboring night and day to defeat Government! In a speech made in the U. S. Senate a short time since, Senator Howe con-tended for the right of Delaware to send a black man to the Senate. The Milwaukee News thinks it would not deteriorate the character of that body much. A country editor received a remittence, with a request to send his paper as long as the money lasted. He indulged in a bit of a spree, got broke, and respectfully announced to his subscriber that according ding to his own terms, his subscription was Brownlow the most consumate blackguard and the most impious blashemer brought to the surface by the "rebellion."

The National Banks are morning up all over the country. The made the merrier, and the sooner the bubble will burst. banks of this commonwealth to become as-