bill. On motion of Mr. Sharpe the consideration of the former was resumed. This bill was some time ago referred to a committee and came up for consideration as revised by the committee.

Mr. Sharpe moved a new section, providing for the payment of all claims adjudicated and approved according to law out of money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated rovided, The aggregate does not exceed

Mr. Smith (Chester) opposed the section proposed, and offered a substitute, providing that all the said claims, when adjusted as provided in the bill, shall be reported to the Gereinor, and presented by him to the National government for payment, pledg-ing the faith of the State of Pennsylvania to pay the amount at the close of the war, if not paid or assumed by the general government, except that if additional injuries itary commanders in the State, which Penn sylvania might be in honor bound to meet Mr. Olmstead opposed both amendments

He said Pennsylvania was not now prepared to pay or assume the payment of these Mr. Sharpe replied that the Republicans of this House had the power to kill the bill if they chose—he left it to their discretion; but if the bill was defeated, he would go home and tell the sufferers by military oc cupation, whether Democrats or Republicans—"shake not thy gory locks at me; thou canst not say I did it." He would sell them it was the Republican party that Mr. Kelley said he thought no such bill should pass the Legislature.

Mr. Brown (Warren) moved the further consideration of the hill be postponed.
