

VARIOUS.

The National Intelligencer has a quiet way of putting things, which is often very effective.

Among the speakers on the occasion were Messrs. Phillips, who is his wont held towards the Administration a style of language which, for gross crimination of the President's motives and official integrity, would have been deemed highly respectable in the State of Ohio during the military administration of Burnside.

More "Loyal" Plundering.—The Washington dispatches to the New York Tribune of Wednesday week, contain the following sweet little disclosure of another robbery of the Treasury:

The investigations into the Bank Note Printing Bureau are said to have revealed to-day the existence, as a circulating medium, of a large number of counterfeit notes stamped and registered. They had been received across the country at Riggs's Bank and subsequently exchanged at the Treasury.

There is a happy prospect that most of the stolen money will be recovered, and the thieves who have perpetrated this robbery, and invested his share in a handsome Luck Louse in Philadelphia—audaciously selecting it in a block next to that in which the Paymaster himself resided.

Brief and Pointed.—The outrage upon the New York papers has been condemned by nearly all the respectable organs of Lincoln, but we have not seen the whole story so well and briefly told by any one as by the Albany Statesman, an able Republican paper, which says:

What earthly object (except to show the boasted power of Mr. Seymour's little bell) had the Government in suppressing the New York dailies that were so impudently and so flagrantly plagiarized after they explained?

There is absolutely no safety for anybody if the authorities may with impunity arrest without cause and punish without trial. It may all appear excusable in the eyes of unthinking, uneducated men, but the majority must put a stop to this tyranny, or there is an end to our system of Government.

Lindenwald, the country-seat of the late ex-president Van Buren, has recently been sold by the Hon. John Van Buren, its late proprietor, to a broker in New York, for about $25,000.

The property consists of three hundred acres of the best quality of farming land. The grounds around the mansion are laid out with taste, and the garden, which is large, contains the choicest of fruit, while an extensive hot-house is filled with fruits from every clime.

The remains of Henry Clay, were removed a few weeks ago from the death of his wife and placed side by side with hers, beneath the beautiful monument erected to his memory in the Lexington Cemetery.

Abduction.—Several respectable young girls have recently disappeared mysteriously from the western part of New York, and the arrest of a young woman at Utica has led to the discovery of an original scheme for kidnapping such and sending them to Africa. A written "Constitution" of the society, which was named the "Knights of the Secret Circle," was found upon her, signed by twenty-four persons, and containing a list of nine young girls named for abduction.

The N. Y. Independent, of a recent date says:—"We have reached that point in our affairs when we are willing to greet the black man as a soldier. We want advance to that inevitable goal where we shall meet him as an officer, a general, a ruler, when he shall be as a member of our race."

The Saratoga Republican quotes from that observing and philosophical historian, Diedrich Knickerbocker, the following remark suitable for to-day:—"A cunning politician is often found skulking under the skirts of a noble man, and an honest man is often found skulking under the skirts of a politician."

What They are Fighting For.—General Meade, in his address to the Army of the Potomac, on the 4th ult., informs his soldiers that they are "fighting to preserve the Government and institutions as handed down to us by our forefathers."

Too Bad.—Mr. James Weir, a gentleman who was published as a Republican elector by a recent gathering of Kentucky Radicals, writes a long note to the Louisville Journal, in which he says:—"I have really too long followed a course of conduct for three years with war, guerrillas, and so forth, and then, in this old age, to be published as a Republican elector."

The Baltimore Nonconformist.—The New York Tribune accepts the nomination of Mr. Lincoln, and announces its intention to support him, although with evident reluctance. While doing this, it criticizes his Administration very sharply, and says it would have preferred another man. The Evening Post is very severe upon the nomination, and does not commit itself to Lincoln's support.

Commission.—"A son of Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, was summoned to-day as Lieutenant in a colored regiment, and ordered to Rinker's Island."—Washington writer.

All right. A colored regiment is the very place for a son of Senator Wilson.

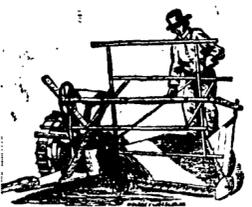

Very True.—When Seward proclaimed the doctrine of an "irrepressible conflict," he said the United States must be all free or all slave. How soon it was verified, for there is today not a square inch of free soil in the country.

A Western paper says that an Arkansas cavalry colonel means his men by the following order:—"First order, 'Prepare for get onto yer creasers!' Second order, 'Git!'"

The man who put up a stove pipe without any proficiency has been found, and a company have secured him for exhibition in the principal cities. He will draw better than the pipe.

The President's Secretary has contributed $200 to the Sanitary Fair at Philadelphia, and $50 to the Sanitary Fair at Pittsburg.

DR. WISHART'S

PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL. IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE PINE TREE, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the bark of the Pine Tree, which the highest medicinal properties are said to possess.

HAVE YOU A COUGH? HAVE YOU SORE THROAT? Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease, Consumption? Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the great prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one sixth" of death's victims.

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was a mysterious power and efficiency in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs; therefore they have recommended the use of Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect; but how to combine medical properties so as to heal the lungs, has ever been a matter until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial.

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this:—The invigoration of the digestive organs—the strengthening of the debilitated system—the purification and enrichment of the blood, must expel from the system the morbid matter which acrobasis breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alternative (consisting of "disease to health") properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain, subduing inflammation, and restoring a healthy tendency. Let this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act, until the morbid matter is expelled, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

I ask all to read the following certificates. They are from men and women of unquestionable rank and reputation:— Dr. Wishart—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but thank God, my daughter-in-law, who had been cured of her cough, sent me your No. 10 N. Second street, and I returned my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case, if you think proper. REBECCA HAMILTON, No. 1321 Wylie Street, Philadelphia.

Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial is an invaluable cure for Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, Sore Throat and Breast, Inflammation of the Lungs. Mr. Ward says:— Dr. Wishart—Dear Sir:—I had Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms. I had been treated by the best of the medical profession in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had despaired of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave, when I was recommended to use your medicine, and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case, if you think proper. JOHN WARD, 126 Vespaer street, Utica.
