

SLAPSHOTS.
The Cincinnati Times reports a speech delivered by Charles Anderson, the Republican Lieut. Governor of Ohio, at the reception of the second Kentucky regiment in Cincinnati, on the 8th inst., in which occurred the following sentiments:
"Inflicting the mangled and bullet-riddled work of your hands. See it, marred by ruthless fingers. Ah, the scarred coat of the Soldier, as it came from the cross, rent by spears and dragged in blood, was not half so beautiful as the stained and tattered uniform of the brave soldier who has defended that flag."
(Cheers.)
Such a display might be passed as the ravings of a fanatic orator and atheist, did not the applause of his listeners show, alas, too truly, that such atrocious sentiments are congenial to many, very many, who are now ruling the country to its ruin.

Andrew Johnson, four years ago, was a Breckinridge Democrat. He has slipped about from one position to another, and from one office into another, until now he finds himself on the ticket with the man who defeated the President. Still the Abolitionists have the impudence to call him a Democrat. Atty's recency to principles prosa. There are several loose lips here, who have forsaken the Democracy since it was defeated in 1860, who have ever since been setting their feet on the opposite. When the Abolitionists get down, as they will this fall, these very fellows will be the first to desert the sinking ship. Butler is another of the same class, so is Forney, and Dix, and Dickinson, Holt, Todd, Cameron, etc. Of the candidates balloted for at Baltimore for Vice President 8 were Democrats, and 2 were original opponents to the Democracy. This shows that office was what these fellows without principles want when they forsake a party with principle. Sanbury Democrat.

Rev. Daniel Gans, late pastor of the Reformed congregation in this city, has been elected pastor of the Reformed church in Norristown, Pa. He is a native of this city, and was a member of the congregation of the Northtown congregation upon their good fortune in having secured the services of a pastor who is a gentleman of fine social qualities, an eminently consistent Christian, a sound theologian, and a pleasing and eloquent pulpit orator. The numerous friends of Mr. Gans in this community who have loved and esteemed him, as a man and preacher, and appreciated the services which he rendered to the church, will be glad to learn that he is now peacefully located in his new position, and will not regret to see him depart from the city to go to the new field of labor to which he has been called. Sanbury Democrat.

Two men and a boy are going to sea from New York this week for England, in a little boat, half rigged, only fifteen feet long and one and a half feet wide. They are the smallest vessel that ever crossed the Atlantic, and it is expected they will take six weeks.
