Business Education.

The Philadelphia College stands first in the State, both in point of reputation and local advantages. The point aimed at is, to place Commercial Education where it belongs—in the front rank of useful instruction. To this end, a most thorough course of business training is adopted and carefully enforced, under the personal supervision of competent Pro-fessors in the various departments. The most perfect system of practical training ever de-vised has been put in operation, and is suc-cessfully carried out, affording to students adantages such as have hitherto been considered pessible only in connection with the counting house. After becoming proficient in the Science of Accounts, Penmanship, Commercial Calculations and Commercial Law, the student is advanted to the Practical Department, where he becomes an actual Book-keep-
