

Terms. The Gazette is published every Monday morning, by Henry J. Stahl, at $2.00 per annum if paid strictly in advance—$2.50 per annum if not paid in advance. No subscription discontinued, unless at the option of the publisher, until all arrears are paid.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS. A. J. Cover, ATTORNEY AT LAW, will promptly attend to Collections and all other business entrusted to him. Office between Falmouth and Danner & Ziegler's Stores, Baltimore street, Gettysburg, Pa.

Edward B. Puchler, ATTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted to him. He speaks the German language. Office at the same place, in South Baltimore street, near Falmouth and Danner & Ziegler's Stores, Baltimore street, Gettysburg, Pa.

J. C. Neely, ATTORNEY AT LAW, -Particular attention paid to collection of Penalties, County, and Back-pay. Office in the S. E. corner of the Block. Gettysburg, April 6, 1863.

Wm. A. Duncan, ATTORNEY AT LAW, -Office in the North-west corner of Centre Square, Gettysburg, Pa. Oct. 3, 1859.

D. McConaughy, ATTORNEY AT LAW, (office one door west of Buehler's drug and book store, Chamberburg street.) ATTORNEY AND SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS AND PATENT RIGHTS. County Land Warrants, Back-pay suspended Claims, and all other claims against the Government in Washington, D. C.; also American Claims in England, Land Warrants located and sold, or bought, and highest prices given. Agents engaged in following warrants in Iowa, Illinois and other western States. Apply to him personally or by letter. Gettysburg, Nov. 21, '53.

H. A. Picking, ATTENDS TO SURVEYING, Writing of DEEDS and WILLS, CLERKING OF SALES, &c. Residence, in Straban township, on the road leading from Gettysburg to Hantsport, two miles from the former place. Charges moderate and satisfaction guaranteed. Feb. 1, 1864.

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D. He has his office one door west of Buehler's drug and book store, Chamberburg street, and opposite Picking's store, where those wishing to have any Dental Operation performed are respectfully invited to call. Hours, from 10 o'clock, A. M., to 10 o'clock, P. M. Dr. H. L. Baugher, D. D., Rev. Prof. M. Jacobs, Prof. M. L. Staver. Gettysburg, April 11, '63.

Dr. A. Holtz, GRADUATE of the University of Pennsylvania, Adams county, respectfully offers his services to the public as Physician and Surgeon. [April 25, 1864.]

Dr. Wm. Taylor, informs the inhabitants of Gettysburg and vicinity that he will continue the practice of his profession at the old stand, next door to the Cashier's Office, Gettysburg, Pa. For past favors, he begs to receive a share of future patronage. [Sept. 23, 1862.]

Drs. Cress & Becker, ECLECTIC AND HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS. All diseases, acute or chronic, successfully and scientifically treated and cured, where a cure is possible. One of the firm will be found in the office all the day. Office, in the new building, Adams street, a few doors north of the Square. Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 20, 1863.

Dr. J. W. C. Neal's, OFFICE and Dispensing, N. E. corner of Baltimore and High streets, near Presbyterian Church, Gettysburg, Pa. Nov. 20, 1863.

Adams County MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. Incorporated March 18, 1851. President—George W. Russell. Vice President—D. A. Buehler. Secretary—David M. Cressy. Executive Committee—Robert McCurdy, Jacob King, Andrew Heintz, John W. C. Neal, M. Cressy, George W. Russell, D. A. Buehler, M. Cressy, S. R. Russell, J. R. Herab, Samuel Darbarow, S. R. Falmouth, John B. Wilson, H. A. Picking, Wm. C. McClintock, John Wolford, R. G. McCreary, John Picking, Abel T. Wright, John Cunningham, Abel F. Gitt, James H. Marshall, M. Eichelberger.

The Great Discovery OF THE AGE.—Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism can be cured by using R. H. MILLER'S CELEBRATED RHEUMATIC MIXTURE. Many prominent citizens of this, and the adjoining counties, have testified to its great utility. Its success in Rheumatic affections has been hitherto unparalleled by any specific introduced to the public. It is a cure for all kinds of Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, and all other ailments of the kind. Prepared only by R. H. MILLER, Wholesale and Retail Druggist, East Berlin, Adams county, Pa., dealer in Drugs, Chemicals, Oils, Varnishes, Spices, Paints, Dye-stuffs, Perfumery, Essences and Perfumes, Window Glass, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, &c., &c. A. D. Buehler is the Agent in Gettysburg for R. H. Miller's Celebrated Rheumatic Mixture. [June 3, 1861.]

The Grocery Store ON THE HILL.—The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity that he has taken the old stand "on the Hill," in Baltimore street, Gettysburg, where he intends to keep constantly on hand all kinds of GROCERIES—Sugars, Coffee, Syrups of all kinds, Raisins, Fruits, &c. Early experience in a long experience in the business, and a desire to please, he has reason to expect a share of the public's patronage. He will certainly try to deserve it. Remember the place—between Buehler's Drug Store and Smith's corner. May 16, 1864.

Jacob B. Holtzworth, BARBER AND HAIR-DRESSER, has opened a saloon in Chamberburg street, north side, near the Diamond, Gettysburg, where he will be glad to serve all who may desire to have their hair cut or dressed, or to have their hair curled or styled. He has reason to expect a share of the public's patronage. He will certainly try to deserve it. Remember the place—between Buehler's Drug Store and Smith's corner. May 16, 1864.

Come to the Fair! AND DON'T FORGET TO VISIT PLEASANT RIDGE. NURSING, &c. Persons wishing to Plant Trees will find the Block in the ground remarkably fine, and offered at reduced prices. The Apples numbers 100 varieties, embracing all the approved sorts. See the index board near Flora Dale Post office. T. E. COOK & SONS, Proprietors. Sept. 2, 1861.

W. FLEMING continues the business of SALE CRYING, and solicits the continued patronage of the public. It is his constant endeavor to give satisfaction. Charges moderate. Residence in Breckinridge street, Gettysburg. A Licensed Auctioneer, under the Tax Law of the United States. Nov. 24, 1862.

Dr. R. H. HORNER'S Tonic and Alternative Powders, for HORSES and CATTLE. Prepared and sold only at his Drug Store. January 25, 1864.

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

By H. J. STAHL. 46th Year. GETTYSBURG, PA., MONDAY, AUG. 8, 1864. TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR. No. 45.

Globe Inn.

YORK ST., NEAR THE DIAMOND, GETTYSBURG, PA.—The undersigned would most respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has purchased that long established and well known hotel, the "Globe Inn," in York street, Gettysburg, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will not detract from its former high reputation. His table will have the best market can afford—his chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of wines and liquors. There is large stabling attached to the hotel, which will be attended by attentive hostlers. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his house as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public's patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large part of it. Remember the "Globe Inn" is in York street, but near the Diamond, or Public Square. SAMUEL WOLF. April 4, 1864.

Cumberland House,

GETTYSBURG, PA. THIS old established hotel, at the forks of the Baltimore and Emmittsburg roads, in the south part of Gettysburg, Pa., is now kept by the undersigned. His table is always supplied with the best market can afford, and with the different kind of liquors—whilst his chambers are spacious and comfortable. There is large stabling attached to the hotel, attended by a good hostler, and the yard is well fenced with a commodious number of wagons. The hotel is located within a short distance of the Cemetery, rendering it very convenient for persons visiting the battle ground. No effort will be spared to render satisfaction, and keep up the old popularity of the house. DAVID BLEBAUGH. May 15, 1864.

New Warehouse.

100,000 BUSHELS OF GRAIN WANTED at the new Grain and Produce House, in Centre street, adjoining Sheds & Buehler's establishment. The highest market price will always be paid in cash for all kinds of GRAIN, of all kinds. FLOUR, SEEDS, &c. Always on hand and for sale, at the smallest profits. GROCERIES, &c. Wholesale and retail. TRY US! We shall do our best to give satisfaction in all cases. McCURDY & DIEHL. Gettysburg, May 11, 1864.

Something for Everybody

DR. H. J. STAHL'S PATENT VARIETY STORE. Just opened a fine assortment of Drugs and Medicines, Patent Medicines, Stationery, Fancy Dry Goods, Confections, Groceries, Notions, TORACCO, SEGARS, &c. Jan. 18, 1864.

New Goods!—Large Stock!

MERCHANT TAILORING. JACOBS & BRO. have just received from the cities a large stock of goods for Gentlemen's wear, embracing a variety of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, Casimere, Jeans, &c., with many other goods for spring and summer wear. They are prepared to make up garments at the shortest notice, and in the very best manner. The Fashions are regularly received, and clothing made in any desired style. They always make neat fits, whilst their sewing is sure to be substantial. They ask a continuance of the public's patronage, resolved by good work and moderate charges to earn it. Gettysburg, April 7, 1862.

Lancaster Book Bindery.

GEORGE WYANT, BOOK BINDER, AND BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURER, LANCASTER, PA. Plain and Ornamental Binding, of every description, executed in the most substantial and approved styles. REFERENCES: R. W. Brown, Esq., Farmers Bank of Lancaster. W. L. Peiper, Esq., Lancaster County Bank. Samuel Wagner, Esq., Columbia Bank. Samuel Wagner, Esq., York Bank. William Wagner, Esq., York County Bank. T. D. Carson, Esq., Bank of Gettysburg. Peter Martin, Esq., Prothonotary of Lancaster co., Pa. Geo. C. Hawthorn, Esq., Register. Geo. Whitson, Esq., Recorder. April 15, 1861.

Last Notice.

ALL persons indebted to the late Firm of Cobran & Culp, are hereby notified to call and settle their accounts on or before the 1st of April, as it is highly important that their business should be closed. COBRAN & CULP. March 14, 1864.

Come to the Fair!

AND DON'T FORGET TO VISIT PLEASANT RIDGE. NURSING, &c. Persons wishing to Plant Trees will find the Block in the ground remarkably fine, and offered at reduced prices. The Apples numbers 100 varieties, embracing all the approved sorts. See the index board near Flora Dale Post office. T. E. COOK & SONS, Proprietors. Sept. 2, 1861.

W. FLEMING continues the business of SALE CRYING, and solicits the continued patronage of the public. It is his constant endeavor to give satisfaction. Charges moderate. Residence in Breckinridge street, Gettysburg. A Licensed Auctioneer, under the Tax Law of the United States. Nov. 24, 1862.

Dr. R. H. HORNER'S Tonic and Alternative Powders, for HORSES and CATTLE. Prepared and sold only at his Drug Store. January 25, 1864.

MISCELLANY.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Mr. Lincoln's Course Reviewed from History.—Terms on which War will Cease—The President's Declaration—The Peace Negotiations—What his Friends Think of his Conduct. [From the National Intelligencer, July 28.]

In his first message to Congress, called to meet in extraordinary session on the 4th of July, 1861, President Lincoln held the following language: "Let there be some uneasiness in the minds of candid men as to what is to be the course of the government toward the Southern States after the rebellion shall have been suppressed, the executive deems it proper to say it will be his purpose then, as ever, to be guided by the Constitution and the laws; and that he probably will have no different understanding of the powers and duties of the federal government relatively to the rights of the States than he expressed in the inaugural address. He desires to preserve the government, that it may be administered for all, as it was administered by the men who made it. Loyal citizens anywhere have the right to demand the preservation of the government, and the government has no right to withhold or neglect it. It is not perceived that, in giving it, there is any coercion, any conquest or any subjugation, in any just sense of those terms."

On the 23d of August, 1862, in his well-known letter to Mr. Greeley, as originally published in our columns, the President wrote as follows: "My paramount object is to save the Union, and not either to save or destroy slavery. If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; if I could save it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing some and leaving others alone, I would also do that. What I do believe I believe it helps to save the Union; and what I believe I believe because I do not believe it would help to save the Union. I shall do nothing whatever I shall believe that I am doing hurts the cause; and I shall do more whenever I believe doing more will help the cause."

In the opening words of the preliminary "Proclamation of Freedom," issued on the 22d of September, 1862, the President, as if anxious to preclude the inference that the war was, in any sense, a war against slavery, was careful to declare that "no person shall be held in slavery or involuntary servitude, in any State or Territory, in which the relation is not suspended or disturbed." That is, "the object of the war is the President understood it—to restore the constitutional relation between the United States and each of the States in which the relation is not suspended or disturbed."

In reply to a communication from the Hon. Fernando Wood, of New York, who, in December, 1862, had impugned the President's course in the restoration of the Southern States, and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor to the complete subversion of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, the heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions, he declared: "I do not intend to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be demanded by the restoration of their loyalty, or their return to their first allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the government to maintain their