The Democratic National Convention will meet at Chicago on the 29th of August inst, A torn and bleeding country is looking with hope to its deliberations.

The Republicans of Butler county, Ohio, have started a new and important Presidential movement. They propose that Lincoln and Fremont be invited to withdraw, and that some one else be nominated for the support of the party, by a convention to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., on the 22d of September next. This movement is Lincoln, and ready to revolt in mass.

But there is no necessity for the Buffalo Convention. The Chicago Convention will give the country what it wants in the way of a Presidential candidate.

Acotemporary thinks that Gen. Couch is the impression. Col. McC. says:

Generals McCausland and Johnson had three thousand men here; two batteries planted to command the town and protect the five hundred who plundered and burned Chambersburg. Gen. Couch had just forty men within reach of Chambersburg subject to his orders, his new troops having been ordered to Washington. Averill was under orders from Hunter, and although urged by Gen. Couch to fall back from Greencastle to cover Chambersburg, was unable to do so in time.

I speak from per ual knowledge as to the disposition of our people to defend themselves, had it been possible, and Gen. Couch would have called on them could he have hoped to save the town. Our loss is over two millions; nearly three thousand people are homeless and every way helpless, but we are cheered by generous friends on almost every side

From every section of the country come such stern rebukes of the Administration for its sudden interruption of negotiations towards peace, that the longings of the public heart are plainly told.
