We think no? The wonderful changes of the last morth are cheering and hopeful.— Let every christian pray to his God for a apid continuation of the good work begun. and may we not hope that November next will bring with it a change in the election of "Little Mac," and through him a re-instatement of the nation to all the happiness

> Democrat. . The Nominations in Hollidaysburg .- Captain Murray's company of three years returned volunteers of the Sixty-second Pennsylvanua regiment, and other veterans who fought through the Peninsular campaign, South Mountain. Antietam and many other hard battles, with a large number of citithis evening in honor of the nomination of General George B. McClellan for the Presidency. General joy and good feeling pervade our whole people. Many take part in the jubiles, both Democrats and Republicans, who have heretofore never taken much interest in political meetings. There is but one feeling in this community, and that is for Little Mac, the Union and the Constitution, greatness and glory from which Lincoln and his plunderers have forced it. Give us a change and there will be such rejoicing as the world has seldom witnessed.—Allentous
