

Terms

The Compiler is published every Monday morning by Henry J. Stahl, at $2.00 per annum if paid strictly in advance...

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

Edward B. Buehler, ATTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted to him...

J. C. Neely, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Particular attention paid to collection of Penalties, Bounty, and Back-pay...

Wm. A. Duncan, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office in the North-west corner of Centre Square, Gettysburg, Pa.

D. McConaughy, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office door west of Buehler's drug and book store...

A. J. Cover, ATTORNEY AT LAW, will promptly attend to the collection of all business entrusted to him...

Dr. J. W. O'Neal, OFFICE and Dispensing, N.E. corner of Baltimore and High streets...

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D., HAS his office one block west of the Lutheran church in Chambers street...

Adams County MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Incorporated March 15, 1861.

The Great Discovery OF THE AGE—Indigestion and Chronic Rheumatism cured by H. L. MILLER'S CELEBRATED RHEUMATIC MIXTURE...

The Grocery Store ON THE HILL—The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity...

Come to the Fair! AND DON'T FORGET TO VISIT PLEASANT RIDGE CARRIAGES—Persons wishing to plant trees will find the stock in the ground...

Corn Wanted. CORN IN THE EAR wanted at our Warehouse for which the highest market price will be paid...

Grain and Produce. HAYING taking the large and commodious Warehouse recently occupied by Frank Leary...

NEW OXFORD. We are prepared to pay the highest prices for all kinds of PRODUCE...

Excelsior! Excelsior! Excelsior!!! The Excelsior Washing Machine is the best in the world...

Excelsior! Excelsior!!! The Excelsior Washing Machine is the best in the world. Call and examine it at once...

The Compiler

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

47th Year. GETTYSBURG, PA., SATURDAY, NOV. 3, 1861. No. 6. TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

SOLDIER VOTE OF ADAMS COUNTY.

Table showing the soldier vote of Adams County by the Return Judges on Friday week. Columns include Congress, Assembly, Comm'r., Director, Auditors, and various precincts.

Proclamation.

WHEREAS, in and by the Act of the General Assembly of this State, entitled 'An Act to regulate the General Elections of this Commonwealth'...

Public Sale

OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE—On SATURDAY, the 2nd day of NOVEMBER, 1861, the undersigned, Executors of the last will and testament of John Dull, deceased...

Sherrif's Sale.

In pursuance of a writ of Executi Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, Pa., and to me directed, will be exposed to Public Sale...

Caution to Hunters.

THE subscribers, residents of Mountjoy township, Adams county, hereby caution hunters and others against trespassing on their premises...

Ladies' Fancy Furs!

A T. JOHN FAREHILL HAS established FUR MANUFACTORY, No. 718 ARCH Street, above Third, PHILADELPHIA.

Still at Work.

THE undersigned continues the CARRIAGE-MAKING BUSINESS, in all its branches, at his old stand, in East Middle Street, Gettysburg.

Estray Cow.

CAME to the premises of the subscriber, in Mountpleasant township, about the 30th of June last, a Red and White Spotted Cow...

Card Photographs

of distinguished individuals, including a number of our prominent Generals, and the other members of the Staff, for sale at the corner of the Excelsior Gallery, Gettysburg.

Major General George B. McClellan.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL NOMINATIONS.

For President, MAJOR GENERAL GEO. BRINTON McCLELLAN, OF NEW JERSEY.

For Vice President, GEORGE H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

ELECTORS.

- ROBERT L. JOHNSTON, RICHARD YAUX, WILLIAM LOUGHLIN, EDWARD R. HELMBOLD, EDWARD P. DUNN, THOMAS McCULLOUGH, EDWARD T. HESS, PHILIP S. GERHARD, GEORGE G. LEIPER, MICHAEL SEITZER, PATRICK McEVoy, THOMAS H. WALKER, OLIVER S. DIMMICK, ABRAHAM D. DUNNING, PAUL LEIDY, ROBERT SWINEFORD, JOHN A. HILL, GEORGE A. SMITH, THADDEUS BANKS, HUGH MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. IRVINE, JOSEPH M. THOMPSON, RASSELL BROWN, JAMES P. BARR, WILLIAM J. KOUNTZ, WILLIAM MONTGOMERY.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Let the people remember that Abe Lincoln deprived General McClellan of his command and gave his army to General Pope.

Let the people remember that when Pope was defeated and flying toward Washington, Abe Lincoln found it necessary to save the Capital, to recall McClellan to command.

Let the people remember that McClellan did save the Capital by achieving the two glorious victories over the invading foe at South Mountain and Antietam.

Let the people remember that Abe Lincoln thereupon wrote a letter to McClellan giving him a "thousand thanks" for his victories.

Let the people remember, also, that when McClellan had defeated the enemy, driven him out of Maryland, saved the Capital and quieted the fears of the Presidential "joker," that Abe Lincoln suspended him from command!

NOTHING MORE TRUE. That grand old man, profound statesman, and true patriot, the Hon. Amos Kendall, the bosom friend of the immortal Jackson, whose Postmaster General he was, closes a most admirable letter with the following paragraph:

"The results of the military operations of 1862, thus far under Commander-in-Chief Lincoln and Major General McClellan, may be summed up as follows:

LINCOLN SAVED WASHINGTON. For saving Richmond, Lincoln is praised, flattered, and proposed for re-election to the Presidency!

For saving Washington, McClellan is traduced, driven from the service of his country, and stigmatized as the accomplice and leader of traitors!

God is just. Are the people?—November will answer!"

IS IT POSSIBLE. That any person of ordinary information, can fail to see the certain destruction to this country that will follow another four years of Lincoln's Administration?

Clark's Commentaries.—Dr. Clark, the champion of Methodism, in commenting on chapter 2d, verse 17th, of St. Luke, which says, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and good will toward men," remarks: "How can religious contentions, civil broils, or open wars look that gospel in the face which publishes nothing but glory to God and peace and good will among men."

Senator Sumner, in a recent speech at Faneuil Hall, said: "The President was clearly right when, in a recent letter, he declared that he should accept no terms of peace which did not begin with the abandonment of slavery."

Mr. Sumner is an ardent and enthusiastic supporter of Abraham Lincoln!

To all Who are interested in the Christian Church.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren:—On the 8th of November next we are expected to give our vote for one of the other two candidates for the Presidency, in this land of our fathers...

A few days previous, at Gen. McClellan's house, 22 West 31st Street, New York, I took the General by the hand and said: "Allow an aged Ambassador of Jesus Christ to congratulate you on your high position in the hearts and affections of your countrymen..."

I am credibly informed that Gen. McClellan gave great satisfaction, as to his motive in joining the church; and, when asked as his views of our national troubles, remarked: "God is our strength, rather than armies."

I would also state that, I informed Gen. McClellan that we had become embarrassed with a Church and Seminary at the Valley Springs, Pa., and had been solicited to aid us, when we came to leave his house, gave his servant a letter directed to me, and when I opened it, I found a ten dollar greenback in it for our church.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren, we all know that our Ship of State is rocking on the billows of an awfully angry ocean. Dark clouds are rolling; bursting thunder is telling the General he has my mission, when many ministers of the Gospel, getting from five hundred to five thousand dollars a year, did not, in my judgment, President Lincoln will not as much compare with Gen. McClellan, as President of the United States, as a feather will compare with a mountain of gold.

Courage, Friends!

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

The day is beginning to break. The political millennium is at hand. The dark clouds which have hung portentously over the country for the last four years are being rapidly dispelled by the light of reason and argument, and the sufferings which have overtaken the people...

REPUBLICAN JOURNALS FOR McCLELLAN.

Last week we noted thirteen Republican journals which had left Lincoln and Fremont, and come over to McClellan. The changes are all against Lincoln and Fremont, and all for McClellan.

The New Castle Gazette, the Republican organ in Lawrence county, Penn., swags horses—Lino for Mac.

The Clyde Times, of Wayne county, N. Y., takes down the Shoddy ticket, and goes for Mac; with notice "to whom it may concern."

The St. Louis Union, hitherto a Lincoln organ, endorses McClellan's acceptance thus: "The letter is about as stiff and genuine as Union documents has been lately given to the public. The credit of a recent word nor a flattering idea in it."

The Coldwater Union Sentinel, one of the most able and influential Republican journals in Michigan, has dropped its Lincoln ticket and hoisted that of McClellan.

The Newport (Vermont) News, lately Republican, has joined the rapidly increasing McClellan army.

The Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate, now an avowed Lincoln organ, has been lately given to the public. The credit of a recent word nor a flattering idea in it."

The Milwaukee (Ill.) Observer, lately Republican, has been lately given to the public. The credit of a recent word nor a flattering idea in it."

Whites' N. Y. Spirit of the Times, a radical organ, has been lately given to the public. The credit of a recent word nor a flattering idea in it."

The American, a St. Louis Republican German paper, says Lincoln is un-American, and not willing to save the Union, but is trying to create a negro empire.

ALARMING TO BONDHOLDERS. We see it stated that Mr. Freese, means to recommend to Congress, at the approaching session, the passage of a bill making every year receivable for all United States debts, including debts on imports. There has been various dark hints of a meditated plan of this kind thrown out before, and many of the most radical of the Abolition Congressmen, including those who we most to this policy, and that we might as well stop it at once. Their idea is, that by expelling gold and silver from the country, the paper money will be strengthened, and that its currency will become more valuable and popular when people shall have forgotten how hard money looks and feels. This is quite plausible, but it is a very dangerous and unwise scheme. It would be a great calamity if it were carried out. It would be a great calamity if it were carried out. It would be a great calamity if it were carried out.

Threatening Revenge. As we expected, the outrages committed in the Valley of Virginia by Lincoln's order have created a thirst for revenge in the South. The Richmond Whig goes so far as to propose to hire desperate persons to burn Philadelphia, New York or Boston, even if it should cost a million dollars to do it. Other Whigs are not so moderate. They have invested their means in Government securities, upon the assurance that their dividends would be paid them in gold. It is from the duties on imports that this promised gold was to be realized. The duties on imports are to be made legal tender at the custom houses, as they are everywhere else. The Government bondholders will have to take their interest in greenbacks instead of gold. This breach of faith will be a great calamity. It will be a great calamity if it were carried out. It will be a great calamity if it were carried out. It will be a great calamity if it were carried out.

HENRY CLAY. Said Henry Clay: "With Abolitionists the rights of property are nothing, the deficiency of the powers of General Government is nothing, the acknowledged and inalienable rights of the States are nothing, a dissolution of the Union is nothing, and the South is nothing. The only thing which is concentrated the hopes of the civilized world are nothing. A single idea has taken possession of their minds, and on that they are hurrying, overlooking all barriers and regardless of all consequences."

FORNEY AND GEN. McCLELLAN. At John W. Forney is now the special agent of Lincoln in defaming McClellan, it is proper to quote what Forney said two years ago, in one of his "Occasional" letters to his Press; and remind the reader that Forney has now joined the "fanatic and fierce antagonists" who are now sought to defeat our army. Let McClellan should become too popular.

WASHINGTON, July 4, 1862. If General McClellan is able to hold his position after his wonderful battles, running with a heavy load of cannon, and a long and bloody day, the cup of his glory will be full. But, whether he holds it or not, there can no longer be any question that he is a military chief of great commanding ability, and that in a mass of unyielding and indomitable courage, and a fierce and unflinching determination to defeat our army, let McClellan should become too popular.

LINCOLN VS. LINCOLN. Abraham Lincoln has been affectionately called by his abolition friends, " Honest Old Abe." Let us see. In his inaugural address he said: "I have no purpose, directly or indirectly, to interfere with the institution of slavery in the States where it exists. I believe I have no right to do so, and I have no inclination to do so."

In his emancipation proclamation he said: "I order and declare that all persons held as slaves in the said designated States and parts of States, are, and henceforward shall be, free; and that the executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said negroes."

Can the honest voters of the country give their suffrage to a man who unblushingly undertakes to do that which he solemnly said he had no right to do; and who pledges the use of the arm to carry on the war indefinitely to "maintain the freedom of the negroes?"

Horace Greeley is a Lincoln Elector in New York. Is he for the Union? Read his own language. In December, 1859, he said in the Tribune: "If the Declaration of Independence justified the secession from the British Empire of three millions of Colonists in 1776, we do not see why it should not justify the secession of five millions of Southerners from the Union in 1861."

In February, 1861, Greeley said: "Whenever it shall be clear that the great body of the Southern people have become conclusively seceded from the Union, and are about to take their oath of fealty to a new Government, we will forward them our aid."

Greeley, by going for Lincoln, no doubt reasons that he is doing his best to forward the views of the rebels.

Shortly after General McClellan's heroic conduct in the seven days' fighting before Richmond, the following dispatch was despatched to him by the President: "WASHINGTON, July 2, 1862. Major General George B. McClellan: I am satisfied that your officers and men have done all you could do. All accounts are favorable. I have no doubt of your success. I am, Sir, your obedient servant. A. LINCOLN."

Immediately after the battle and victory of Antietam, General McClellan received the following dispatch: "WASHINGTON, Sept. 15, 1862. Your dispatch of today received. God bless you and all yours. A. LINCOLN."

To Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.