MELANCHOLY DEATH.—About the first of September last, Simon Bender, son of Christian Bender, of Straban township, went into the army as a volunteer, connecting himself with the 205th Regiment P. V. Very soon after, the Regiment was moved to Grant's army. On Thursday week he returned home, so emaciated as hardly to be recognizable by his most intimate friends. He was laboring under a severe attack of typhoid fever. The best medical aid was at once summoned, and every attention which parents, relatives and friends could think of, paid him, but all of no avail.—He breathed his last on Sunday following.—But a few months ago he went forth in the prime and vigor of early manhood. To-day he sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. Esteemed by all who knew him, his death is generally lamented. His remains were interred in Evergreen Cemetery on Wednesday. His age was 23 years 5 months and 25 days. Peace to his ashes.

NOVEMBER COURT will commence on Monday next. Our subscribers who may be coming to town during the session of the court will have a good opportunity, which we hope they will avail themselves of, to call at the Compiler office and pay up their dues. In the Boot and Shoe line we can "take down" any other establishment in Adams county. The question is often asked "Why is it that shoes bought at Row and Woods' store wear much better than those bought elsewhere?' Answer, "They keep for sale a better class and quality of Boots and Shoes than can be found in any other store in the county." A large portion of the goods we sell are made to order by the best workmen—and are not what are commonly called "Store Shoes." We have many things new, neat, strong and elegant in the shoe line, for men, women and children, and invite all to call and see for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

Mariner, Consulting Chemists, Chicago, all of whom have analyzed the Catawba Brandy, and compliment in the highest terms, for medicinal use.

Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, Jan. 25, 1938.

When evaporated through clean linen it left no oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a pure spirituous liquor. The Oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike fusil or grain oil. Its odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes.—With acids, it produces ethers of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of fictitious spirits, sold under this name both at home and abroad.

Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
Assayer to State Mass., 16 Boylston st.

By the same, in 1864.

I have analyzed "L. LYONS' PURE CATAWBA BRANDY," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afforded the same results with regard to purity a slightly increased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy.

Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
State Assayer, 16 Boylesten st.
