Inspector General, is charged with the exers, from Vice President Hamlin down to the "silver-toned" Dan Daugherty, harangued the people day and night; whilst the potent influence of greenbacks was brought to bear upon those who were McCLELLAN AFTER THE ELECTION. shameless enough to be influenced in this way. But all would not do. The Democrats of our county continued to work diligently and with a will that was alike creditable to their patriotism and principles .-The result is a Democratic majority of 524 -s Democratic gain of 112 since the October election. With a few more speeches from such men as Hamlin and Daugherty our majority would have gone over 600.

We had a few strange speakers to address the Democracy. To them thanks are due, and they have them. Our home speakers are also entitled to credit, for they labored with a seal and argued the issues of the day with a power that told fearfully against the Shoddyites. Unlike our oppenents, they refrained from the use of slang and vituperation, and appealed to the patriotism and good sense of the people alone. Their serwices will long be remembered.

Democrats of Adams, you have done nobly. Keep up your organization-stand by your principles and ere long those principles will be acknowledged throughout the land.

It is only among some of the local press, in strong administration localities, where numbers have inspired arrogance, and among those who have either not yet received the cue from the ruling powers, or, independently, have essayed for once to follow their own blind and debasing metincts, that the rushing out policy is advocated against the Democracy.

Among these latter we may mention the organ in this city, owned and controlled by an office holder who, no doubt, in his blind ignorance, imagines he is working out a continuance by the exhibition of all the malice, hatred and persecution which the dark side of man's pature is capable of producing. As an evidence of its labors in hat direction, the following extract from a late edition is inserted :

"McClellan is mercenary in the extreme. and is likely to hold on to the int salary of a Major Generalship just as long as he can, notwithstanding he is at the same time engaged in treasonable efforts against the Government and people from whom the salary is received."

The candid man of any party will not for moment look upon this language as aught else than the vaporings of a spiteful, un-truthful and seditious time server: . If General McClellan, in being a candidate for the Presidency, was engaged in "tradionable efforts against the Government," then no other man could have embraced the coustitutional right of becoming a candidate, and all our people, to save themselves from the charge of treason, would be compelled alike to allow the ruling incumbent to hold over. If it were true, then all the thousands of brave men who are periling their lives as soldiers at the front have also been "engaged in treasonable efforts against the Government." because they selected
