Dyspepsia! DYSPEPSIA!

I, ELIZABETH DEANOR, of Strasburg, Pa., formerly of Old Chester, Del., do hereby certify that for one year and a half I suffered everything but death from that awful disease called Dyspepsia. My whole system was prostrated with weakness and nervous debility; I could not digest my food; if I ate even a cracker or the smallest amount of food, it would return upon me as I swallowed it; I became so constipated in my bowels that I would not have a passage in less than four or five days. I was so weak that I could not walk, and I was so nervous that I could not sleep. I had tried every medicine I could get, but it did me no good. Dyspepsia! DYSPEPSIA!

Dr. Wisbart—I have been a constant sufferer with Dyspepsia for the last eighteen years. I have tried every medicine I could get, but it did me no good. I was so weak that I could not walk, and I was so nervous that I could not sleep. I had tried every medicine I could get, but it did me no good. I was so weak that I could not walk, and I was so nervous that I could not sleep. I had tried every medicine I could get, but it did me no good.

John L. Holtzworth.

In addition to his Boot and Shoemaker, he has engaged the services of an experienced Shoemaker, and is now prepared to manufacture work to order and to attend to all kinds of repairs promptly.
