THE OATH OF A LOYAL LEAGUER. - During the trial of one W. B. N. Colens, before a military ocurt (in second at Phila-ileiphia,)on the charge of swindling the Government by supplying bad tents, a "loy-al" witness who had been sworm to tell "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing bat the truth," refused to answer a question in he bin by one of the support put to him by one of the attorneys engaged in the prosecution, because he said, "in In the prosecution, because he said, "HE map takes of the oath to keep Every-thing so but RELATING TO FRALDA ON THE. GOVERNMENT!" He had reference to the "Logal Longue" out, which had been administered to him at the League rooms in Philadelphia! Strange as it may appear, the court sustained the witness, and he was not compelled to answer. Perhaps the was not sestrange alter all, when we consider that the court-martial in question was composed entirely of Abolition officers, en ery one of whom, doubtless, had taken the same "Loyal Lesgue" oath.

This is a beautiful exposition, truly. We have always felt satisfied that the so-called "Loyal League? was a corrupt and traitor, "Loyal League? was a corrupt and traitor, ous organization—an organization composi-ted chiefly of had men, who professed great "loyalty" and love for the negro, the bet-ter to crable them to rob the Government and the proples.
