ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES!

The country was startled on Saturday by the intelligence that the President of the United States had come to men. Some evidences of the guilt of the party the office of J. H. White, Esq., when his death at the hands of a bold and who attacked the President are in possession more definite arrangements will be reckless assassin. An event so appalling had ver before occurred in our history, and that it should have fallen upon the country at a time when the prospect for the restoration of peace and order was so bright and heartcheering, lent additional weight to the afflicting visitation. President Lincoln had shown recently so manifest a desire and intention to act with magnanimity and moderation in adjusting our difficulties, that there was good reason to look for a speedy termination of them; and that he should have been removed, at such a juncture, is regarded by all reflecting men as the greatest misfortune that could have befallen the nation

House Torn Down.—Some time ago, a Buckingham negro, John Harris, was committed to county jail for stealing corn from another darkie named Benson, who is somewhat popular in the political world. During his confinement his wife died, when another negro, Jim Morris, took possession of the house, and at the same time, took to his bussum, a white woman with whom he lived. The name of the woman we believe is Silvey. This conduct so much enraged the people of the neighborhood that a par-ty of them, two weeks ago, went to the STAMP DUTIES.—The following decisions of house at night and pulled it down, burning the Commissioner of Internal Revenue have up everything that was of a combustible character.
