Correspondence of the New York World] BALTIMORE, June 4.

POLICY OF THE NEW PRESIDENT. events indeed will prove. = tive principles of the Republican party. If ly impressed upon his mind than this:

there are, in the platform of that party, any
"That purely political offenses should not principles that are truly national, those be punished with death."

At the last formal meeting of the Democratprinciples will be cherished and followed why Political OFFENDERS SHOULD NOT HE ic State Central Committee, it was resolved VINDICTIVENESS WILL BE AVOIDED.

the Southern people, was only smothered alty to be inflicted. He will not signalize is too fond of referring to antecedents that the military authorities at Richmond, since the commencement of his administration; sound upplessent in their ears pesticularly gentlemen will have a good time next win-of the President in that direction. It will soon be followed by another, reducing the number of the excepted classes, and considerations that will influence the conduct mun who supported the North Carolina of admitting to a participation in the work of reconstruction a race of men just delivered from bondage, ignorant, debased, and degraded, and utterly incapable of understanding the subject. So far as his influence was needed as a soldier. Druip. ence and authority extends, justice will be done to the liberated slaves; work and wages will be provided for them, with schools and religious instruction; none will Harrisguage June 6, 1865.

ording in action of the control of t

BLOOD OF TRAITORS,
In regard to trials for treason growing out

Fellew Citizens.-What Magranimity mined on a course which will hand down of all parts of the State. his name to posterity as among the wisest rulers of modern times. The senseless clamor for more blood, and the frantic howls of a portion of the Republican press for vengeance against Davis and Lee, and Nothing is more important than to as- the other leaders of the rebellion, find no certain certainly what the policy of the new echo in his breast. His official conduct to President is to be. The whole country is ward those misguided men will be regula suffering on account of the doubt which exted by the principles of law and justice ists on this point. Every fact which throws and by a jealous regard for the honor of our any light upon this subject is of great value, national character. He does not think any fortunate, therefore, in having it is that the blood of traitors is the only impermy power to give an outline of the general ishable cement of free institutions. He line of policy which has been determined does think it would be very bad policy on by President Johnson. For reasons to make a martyr out of Jeff. Davis, and which will at once occur to you, I am not still worse to bring General Lee to the scafat liberty to give say authority for the state-fold, as he is being urged to do. Although ments that follow; but your readers may Mr. Johnson has risen from an humble ori depend upon it that they are authentic, as gin, as Filimore and Douglas, and many of our other great men have done, he is far PARTY TO BE REPUBLATED.

It may be stated in the outset that Mr. and he has studied the lessons which it Johnson's policy, as President of the United | teaches to some purpose. And none of the States, will not be based upon the distinc- lessons which history teaches is more deep-principles will be cherished and ionowed that Political of Prenders and Political of State Central Committee, it was resolved out by the President. But those principles of that party which are distinctively sectional, which aim at the aggrandizement of is rich in illustrations of this rule. It is the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South, the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts as the North at the expense of the South the founded upon the fact that such acts are the fact that such acts as the fact that such acts are the fact that the fact that such acts are the fact that such acts are the fact that such acts are the fact that the fact that the fact that such acts are the fact that the fact that the fact that the fact t operation of which would enable people at those which constitute treason do not original majority of the Committee, and been advistable and control the inclination of the Morth to regulate and control the inclination of the many other leading Democrate of the publishes letters pledging the payment of the many other leading Democrate of the property in the agreement of the payment of the paymen not consider himself as a member of the have been tried and found guilty of treason. Republican party. It was the Providence No man who values his reputation as a on THURSDAY, THE 24TH DAY OF AUGUST of God which called Andrew Johnson to the scholar will deny that successful rebellion NEXT, at one o'clock P. M. great work of restoring the Union of the alone saved the founders of our republic States; a work infinitely greater, and re- from conviction of treason. President puiring far greater statesmanship than the Johnson is deeply impressed with the fact work of suppressing the rebellion; and in that the object for which the war was under-performing that work the President be-lieves, not only that he has a right, but that and force can accomplish it; and that what it is his imperative duty, to rise above all remains to be done must be accomplished party considerations, and to act, as near as by far different instrumentalities; that the clined to treat his policy with distrust, notpossible, as the great fathers and founders wisdom of the statesman must now finish withstanding his startling proclamation of the Republic would act, if they were liv-Sherman left it.

CONSEQUENCES OF A MAGNANIMOUS POLICY. VINDICTIVENESS WILL BE AVOIDED.

In the first place, all vindictive feelings in the first place, all vindictive feelings the fact that the eyes of the avoided, either on account of the rebellion, or on account of the rebellion. Transfer the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the rebellion does the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the fact that the guilt of the repeal to the recently scant in Virginia, on Thursday last, resulted in Virginia, on Thursday last, resulte the commencement of his administration as that sound unpleasant in their ears, particularly to steep.

In the second place, in regard to slavery public scaffold, would be regarded as a cedents are nearly all Democratic in their as the South and slaveholders, the President holds that whatever guilt or sin there.

Southern people in all time to come. They dent holds that whatever guilt or sin there was in the Southern people in all time to come. They was in the matter was equally shared by the would regard him as having died for them; North, and that it would be unjust in the as having laid down his life for their sake.

The signs of the times point to a who offered to vote were obliged to take rupture in the Republican party. The an oath of allegiance. We have heard an highest degree to disfranchise any person. The momentary weakness which he had a number of the South merely because he has been manifested in the hour of his capture would be not be cause he has been manifested in the hour of his capture would be not constant. an owner of slaves. That degree of pros- be forgotten; his entered by the reconstruction of the Southern States, rect one, of this election. The test was on perity at the South which was the regult of in every southern home, and his memory has thrown the radicals into violent com- admitting negroes to the right of voting, have labor, was equally shared by the cherished in every heart. Neither the safe motion, and they are therefore "kicking and the decision being almost unanimous North. The North was benefitted by the ty of the nation nor the honor of the government has been wealth and prosperity of the South. The ernment equires the execution of Mr. Davis. The honor of the government has been Phillips has sounded the key-note. In a Southern people accept abundantly vindicated; and a magnanimous speech in Boston, week before last, he dethe war. The sulf the melves course now, on the part of Mr. Johnson, clared that he would "constantly oppose to the changed relations which it will in-will disarm all remaining resentment in every step of reconstruction that did not at Pitisburg, Pa., a few weeks ago, have the taining other liberal provisions toward the of the new President, in his treatment of proclamation was a Davis sycophant. Bet-citizens of the Southern States. the positivens of the southern states.

The war has not been a war for the nearlies and such is an outline of what it is believed in the third place, the President realizes his policy will be in relation to a few of the that the object of the war was to restore the Union, and not to abolish slavery, or to the state of the war was to restore the Union, and not to abolish slavery, or to the state of the war was to restore the Union. It must be remembered to Carolina." This programme is very designed to the state of the war was to restore the Union, and not to abolish slavery, or to the war was to restore the Union. It must be remembered to Carolina." This programme is very designed to the war was to restore the war was to restore the war was to restore the world was the way to have surrendered to North the war was to restore the war was to confer the rights of citizenship upon ne- that the President of the United States to- cidedly anti-administration, and, if persistgroes. He intends that that object shall day holds far different relations with the edin, will result in an open quarrel between be accomplished, and that the Union shall South than those which existed a year ago, the restored upon such principles that it or even four months ago. It has only been will be hereafter indissoluble. But he can a few months since a draft for half a mill-Johnson. Should the defeat and destrucwill be hereafter indissoluble. But he can a test months since a train to nan panile processes to a participation in the work the President believed that many more of admitting to a participation in the work the President believed that many more follow, the genuine lovers of the country of admitting to a participation in the work that many more follow, the genuine lovers of the country with the President believed that many more follow, the genuine lovers of the country with the President believed to set down that the president believed that many more follow, the genuine lovers of the country with the President believed to set down that the president believed that many more follow, the genuine lovers of the country with the President believed to set down that the president believed that many more of admitting to a participation in the work the president believed that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that many more of admitting that the president believed that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that the president believed that many more of admitting to a participation in the work that the president believed that the preside

Very little is said about candidates for Auditor and Surveyor General. There is a healthy heat in the Democratic heart here in the inof the Amnesty Proclamation—of the rebellion, and the execution of po-best of the Treated as litical offenders, the President has deter-

Compiler.

H. J. STAHLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. •

GETTYSBURG, PA. MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1865.

ic State Central Committee, it was resolved of Representatives, in the city of Harrisburg,

C. L. WARD, Chairman. Towanda, June 1st, 1865.

There is a growing feeling of dissatisfaction on the part of the radicals with the about three thousand millions ourself—just course of the President, and they are in to catch Bennett. against Jefferson Davis, and his reiterated denunciations of "traitors" and "treason."

THE LAST BATTLE

The last battle of the war took place on the 13th of May, on the Bio Grande, near Brazos, in Texas. About 350 Union troops, under Col. Barrett, while foraging, were attacked by a superior rebel force, under over to the Quartermaster's Department at ture—for sale at the Compiler office. Gen. Slaughter, and were compelled to fall DECEMBER OF STREET, a distance of eight miles.—
ed for Texas from Fortress Monres. The fleet
An account in the New York Herald says will rendezvous at Mobile. the Union loss was seventy-two in killed, wounded and prisoners, but later advices state that the greater part of this number North Carolina plan. had made their way to Brazos, and that the public mind, and thus keep alive its gone to France.

Col. Barrett's loss was but five wounded. This trifling skirmish commenced at "the Pass of Roca Chico." The name is ish Parliament will present to General Lee a house in London, with a competency for himworth preserving, as it will mark in history the close of our great civil war. Five wounded on each side! What a contrast to the bloody fields of Shiloh, the Seven Days' Fight, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, and acores of other memorable battles.

There is a Pennsylvania soldier who has ceremonies of the analysing of the corner stone of own notoriety, has originated a grand scheme for the payment of our immense National Debt of three or four thousand millions of of ten thousand dollars each. It already doors in Allegheny City, on Sunday week. the North to regulate and control the internal affairs and domestic policy of the Southern States, and would keep alive and exasterate the hiter feelings between the ples will be repudiated by the executive at ples will be repudiated by the executive at the carliest possible moment. Mr. Johnthe carliest possible moment of the publishea letters pledging the payment of state, that a postponement to a later day would, on many accounts, he acceptable, and generally desired, I hereby give notice that the ples will be repudiated by the executive at the carliest possible moment. Mr. Johnthe carliest possible moment. Mr. Johnthe two sections—these princithe two sections—the acceptable, and generally desired, I hereby give notice that the subscribed, which "will never be," and the beautiful unever be,"
and world-renowned monarch, Old King Cole, was add under confiscation a few days ago.

The Austrian dogs are suffering from a special property was soldened at the policy and course, the moment is th handed in their promises to pay, are per. jolly old soul was nothing but shoe leather.

Cartly safe Meanwhile they gain a little A young spendthrift, upon being asked the fectly safe. Meanwhile, they gain a little cheap notoriety by getting their names into print, and the Herald keeps up the excitement that is needed, now more than ever, to make its papers sell!

We have some notion of subscribing for Virginia State Elections .- The Washington Chronicle of the 30th May, contains the following paragraph:

"As far as heard from, the State elections Texas, were recently separately in conference

Religious Persecution,-The Old School volve, the interests of the whole country the minds of the Southern people, and require that they be encouraged in every will secure the unbroken nationability of the place the negro upon an absolute equality honar(!) of taking the first steps for the perpossible way. The amnesty proclamation country for many succeeding generations. With the white man. There were but two of May 29th, therefore, is only the first step change relations of the securior with parties in the country, the sycophants of country since the death and burial of try. country since the death and burial of try.

Major General Slocum has issued a farewell Jeff. Davis and the lovers of liberty. Every Know Nothingism six or eight years ago. A resolution was adopted appointing a committee to act in concert with commit- Orleans. fellowship and more visorous co-operation the President. The Governor and the colis, in September next.*

President are old friends, and were Senators together, and, as the record proves, vo-President Johnson has declared that President are old friends, and were Senathe question of "reconstruction" must be tors together, and, as the record proves, vo
G. M. Mundy (who was one of Governor by Mr. Benta, is in use in St. James' (Lutheran) decided by the loyal white people of the ted together in favor of the Crittenden Southern States, and that the negroes be Compromise and all other public questions

CHIP BASKET.

General Longstreet will visit Washington by permission of the government to sak for par-don and a restoration to civil rights. By an order of General Logan, the negro followers of the Army of Tennessee are turned Washington.

General Weitzel's negro expedition has sail-

The Alabama delegation have had an interview with the President. It is thought all the Southern States will be reorganized on the holders in Ever Green Cemetery on Wednes-The loss by the explosion at Mobile is estiself and family.

The rebel General Hood has offered to surrender to General Davidson at Natchez, Mississippi.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis and Mrs. C. C. Clay have arrived at Savannah.

The collection of internal revenue in Richmond has begun. The National Debt.—The New York Herald, which is always on the look-out for some new sensation with which to engage the number of the army, and Captain Carter, of the some new sensation with which to engage the number of the coming Fourth of July for it?—

1. It is reported that Kirby Smith has a day on which thousands will gather here from the coming Fourth of July for it?—

2. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

2. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

3. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

3. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

3. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better the confidence of the kind be gotten up here? Few, if any, will answer in the negative, and what better the confidence of the kind be gotten up here?

3. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

3. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

3. The negotiations for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better time than the coming Fourth of July for it?—

3. The negotiation for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative, and what better the negotiation for the surrender of Kirby will answer in the negative and the lost both arms, both legs and one eye, and remains alive to tell the story.

Thirty-three young men and boys-were fined two dollars and costs for losting about church was sold under confiscation a few days ago.

ry, has an income of $1,800,000 a year.

The Virginia people are stocking their farms with government horses at the sales in Richmond:
The President has commuted the sentence the Inciana conspiritors, to imprisonment for as many of the strangers will be entertained ton, in this country, writes us that he "can-Gov. Brown, of Georgia, and Boyce, of South Carolina, well known in connection with the Brown has been released from imprisonment if thought advisable, a vocal concert during u for a meeting of the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the 19th of Business is reviving in North Carolina. Two lines of steamers are running between Newbern and New York.

The President has ordered that the sales of rebel property in Tennessee for non-payment of direct taxes be suspended.

It is reported that John C. Breckinridge has scaped in a vessel from the Florida coast.

The negroes who followed the Army of Georgis to Washington are anxious to return home. A crazy German, who sent a threatening letter to the President, has been placed in an insane asylum.

An army of observation will be stationed on the Rio Grands. It will be commanded by General Steele. Passes are no longer needed to visit Richmond.

The majority against the new Missouri constitution in St. Louis county is about six thou-

The dismissal of clerks from the Department of the Interior at Washington is still going on. in running order in a few weeks.

There are sixty thousand sick and wounded address to the Army of Georgia.

The rebel General Hood has arrived at New

The publication of the Maryland Republican, for the defence of Protestant Christianity at Annapolis, has been resumed.

The ci izens of Cass county, Georgia, hangof Fort Wool, at the Rip Raps, in Hampton and will make good any promise or represented to issue a proclamation restoring the privi-

Seymour's agents to collect proxy votes last Church in this place.

Town & County.

Three dollars is the charge for nouncing candidates, as heretefore.

EVER GREEN CEMETERY .-- A call appears in our columns for a meeting of the Lot- lty of the respective orders. day next. It is to be hoped that every one interested, in town and country, will attend. present beauties. Both objects can be readily and was quite a success. Cannot something time than the coming Fourth of July for it? - is prepared to furnish lee Cream at any time, a day on which thousands will gather here from and in any quantity. Ice-cold Mead and the all parts of the country to participate in the different kinds of Cakes also to be had on call. the Soldiers' National Monument.

It is well known that Ever Green Cemetery and shell rained upon it from acores of rebel lars. batteries for nearly three days. Nothing has been received from the State or National Goveraments to repair these injuries -and we take it for granted that all visitors on the Fourth would be glad of the opportunity to contribute in some slight way to the preservation and adornment of so memorable a spot as CEME-TERY HILL.

Should the Board of Managers to be chosen on Wednesday adopt this suggestion, we are yield of butter from two cows, belonging to sure it would be a success. True, the ladies Mr. Edward Shafer, of York county. Mr. of town are likely to be busy about that time, John Morits, residing in the vicinity of Hampat private houses-but enough time can be beat it'-that he sold in one year, (from April spared by them to get up this Festival too .- 1, 1864, to April 1, 1865,) six hundred and twenate rebellion, and Gov. Hamilton, (loyal) of Everybody expects to be busy, and there is no ty-fort pounds of Lutter, the yield of three cows end to what can be done by a busy prople. Let the Festival be held, by all means-and,

The meeting of the Democratic convention of part of the evening, (or evenings, if Monday and Tuesday evenings should be selected,) might be added. The attractions of the Pes- ries received from the machinery in his planing August 24.

A call has been issued by Simon Cameron tival would thus be increased, and the finanestablishment a few days before. He was

We have in our mind's eye several ladies and a gloom over the whole community. gentlemen who would no doubt be willing to | During the storm on Monday night, the undertake to carry out both suggestions. Let house occupied by Mr. John Ogden, in Freedom them be consulted as soon as Wednesday's township, was struck by lightning. We are election is over.

turning to their homes. A hearty wolcome builling. greets them-a welcome to fond hearts and hospitable hearths. May the summons of war never take them hence again.

Company G, of the 200th P. V, and Company I, of the 210th, nearly all Adams county we say, and to all, welcome home?

STRANGERS. -The battle-field of Gettys-The railroads in South Carolina will all be visitors—indeed, the number seems to be in- people of Missouri, in a St. Louis paper, Six thousand rebel officers, below the rank No one can visit this scene of one of the most or life. He denounces the rule of provont purpose of giving expression to a desire for fellowship and more viscours as a constitution of the contract of the war, without being much interested.

against the encroachments of the Roman et in this catholic Church and its influence" in this catholic Church and its influence in this catholic Church and i General McCook has been assigned to an im- tation he may give. He is besides a thorough lege of hobeus corpus, and releasing the milimusician and skilful performer. Any one pur- tury prisoners, Washington, and had a long interview with moved from Newport, Rhode Island, to Annap-will be sure of getting a good in trunient.

THE NEW MARLS .- The new Odd Fellows' and Masonic Halls, in Col. Bushler's building, were thrown open for the inspection FEE BHLLS for Constables and Justi- of the public on Friday evening, and were ces of the Peace—as fixed by the last Legisla- visited by large numbers of ladies and gentlemen. Both are splendidly finished and furnished, and the decorations generally are of the first class. We have not the space to give a detailed description of each. It is enough to say that they do credit to the taste and liberal-

A friend has handed us the following: IMPROVED ORDER OF RED MEN .- On mated at from five to ten millions of dollars.—
Eight thousand bales of cotton were destroyed.

There is a report that members of the British Parliament will present to General Lee a general should be at once taken, not only to re interested, in town and country, will attend. Thursday evening last, quite an interesting time took place at the Wigwam of Cayungas pride to this community, and vigorous mea Tribe. The occasion was the visit of two of general Lee a general should be at once taken, not only to relieve it from debt, but to enhance its many sylvania, Messrs. Mortis H. Gorham, Great present beauties. Both objects can be readily of Records. Encouraging addresses were made accomplished, if an earnest and general effort by the Great Chiefs and several brothers of be made to that end.

At Hanover recently a Festival was held by up their Wigwam in a very heat and approthe ladies for the benefit of the Cemetery there, in the ladies for the benefit of the Cemetery there, and there is every prospect of a land was quite a success. Cannot sumathing the increase of membership.

ICE CREAM, &c .-- E. H. Minnigh, in Chambersburg street, opposite the Lutheran Church,

A dispatch was received here by the friends, a few days ago, announcing the death. of Mr. Robert Bell, Sr., at Devenport, Iowa, was a conspicuous point in the great battle where he had gone on business. Mr. B. was here, and that much damage to it necessarily an old and respectable citizen of this county. resulted—the extent of which may be estimated The dispatch states that he was killed accidentby the reader when he bears in mind that shot ally and instantly. We have no further partic-

We regret to learn that Mr. Isane T. Heagy, of Freedom township, died in the Hospital a few weeks ago. He belonged to Company E, 99th Regt. P. V., and had been in the service but a few months. He was one of the men taken in the last draft, and was among that class who paid commutation in 1864.

We noticed, several weeks ago, a large -and this/exclusive of the butter used in the family. Qur friend Shafer must "try again."

Rev. Joseph Clarke died at his residence in Chambersburg, on Friday week, from injumuch respected and his sudden death has cast pleased to learn that the family escaped injury, WELCOME HOME .- The soldiers are re- but considerable damage was done to the De II. W. Witmore has been appointed post-master at Mummasburg, in place of C. II. Fulweiler, tesigned.

WHO PAYNE IS .- Who Payne, the assasboys, reached this place on Wednesday. - , sin of Secretary Seward, ie, ie still a myttery. Members of other organizations are arriving Miss Brandon testified before the Court that by almost every train, and such will no doubt she knew him as the back as the battle of Wetcontinue to be the case for some time. Again tysburg, where he noted as a nur e in the Ution hospitals, and was called Powell. ,-

Ber Ex-Attorney General Bates is pubburg is still attracting a goody number of lishing a series of remarkable letters to the creasing daily. They come from all parts of which lay bare to the very core the despotthe country, North, East, West, and of late not ism and lawlessness of the party in power. a few from the South. The more prominent He declares that when he resigned his seat points in the battle-lines are visited by all, in the Cabinet, and returned to his State, whilst many take the time to give the whole he found the people oppressed under a field an examination, more or less thorough. - sense of non-security in property, liberty the war, without being much interested. tion. The Convention sitting in that PIANON, AC .- We direct the attention of State, he says, is without the least founds. our readers to the advertisement of Mr Peter tion in law, and all its acts are null and void.

General Banks Shelved .- General Banks, like General Butler, has been ordered to fall) the sum of $500, and made a public — Mr. Bentz has sent us three pieces of the report at home, in Mussachusetts. Cotton

			_		-
THE MARK,	قتا	.T.,	Э.
GETTYSBURG-SATURDA	Y	LAS	T.
Flour				7	5
Rye Flour	·			5	K
White Wheat	1	40	to	V	5
Red Wheat	1	30	10	4	4
Corn			/		9(
Rye	•	/	ŕ	1	0
Outs		7		٠.	5
Buckwheat	٠.	,		1	0
Timothy Seed	76	00	10	3	5
Flax Seed	Ţ	50	10	L	D
Plaster of Paris,				17:
Plaster ground, per hag	_	_		2	0
BALTIMORE-PRIDAY	LA	87.
Flour	7	25	to	8	0
Wheat.	1	90	tó	2	2