POETRY. THE WELL-DIGGER. AN OVER-TRUE BALLAD. BY JOHN G. BARK.

I knew that Adams was a good shot, and he was the wisest man for to have practiced much together, so that there was no advantage to either party in the weapons...

MISCELLANY. THE TWO COWARDS. "I was a coward! We were both cowards!" So spoke our law tutor, Moses Duke, and thus he continued...

Warning to Ladies.—A mortifying but ludicrous incident, says a Cincinnati Enquirer, occurred on Saturday on Fourth street, near the post-office. A lady of most expensive exterior, was gliding gracefully up the street...

Mad Anthony's Trick.—In our Revolutionary war, the British held possession of a stronghold which our forces could not gain without a knowledge of how matters were conducted inside. Anthony Payne, a blacksmith, was called upon to undertake this delicate and dangerous service.

THE PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. We see in reading the proceedings of the above body, the heaven working for the destruction of good, old-fashioned Presbyterianism in this land. The faith of our fathers is being corrupted and the good old constitution and laws for governing their church, are fast becoming odious to the degenerate descendants...

How to Court in Church.—A young gentleman, happening to sit at church in a pew adjoining one in which sat a young lady for whom he conceived a sudden and violent passion, was desirous of entering into a courtship on the spot...

The Dollar.—The word dollar is derived from a German word which means valley, and was first applied to coins in consequence of the circumstances, in the mining region of Bolivia, at a place called Joachim's valley, silver pieces of one ounce weight were coined and came into circulation about 1520 as Joachimsthalers...

BLACK COPPERHEADISM. All who oppose the Federal Administration, are "Copperheads." Such was lately the outcry of the "Republican" party. Of course, the word was a misnomer. Well, some of the "Republicans" now oppose Andy Johnson's administration. Therefore, those "Republicans," according to their own avowing, are Copperheads. We opine there are two kinds of that reptile, the one, the white and the other, the black. The white is called "Copperheads," the black is called "Black Copperheads." The title sounds a little harsh, but those who must wear it, invented it themselves. For our own part we detest nicknames; yet if Democrats wish to be called "Copperheads," they want to be distinguished some how or other from the Black kind...

Ben Butler.—This individual is no longer an officer of the U. S. Army. Ben Butler would doubt again practice law in Lowell, Massachusetts. It would not be well for him and Mooby to link hands as Mooby is about to commence the practice of law? What a firm "Butler & Mooby, Attorneys at Law." It would be equal to the old Philadelphia firm of "F. Chester & A. Plunkett." The Pittsburghers are an excellent country but a patriot as pure as Arnold; the Treasury is a financier as cute as Monroe Edwards, and the army a general who alone is his own parallel. Ben Butler, on Friday last had having taken the hint to resign, was kicked out of the United States army.
