DEMOCRATIC State Central Committee.

o the People of Pennsylvania:
In accordance with its time-honored annual custom, the Democratic party re-affirms its principles and presents its candi-dates for your suffrages. Of those princi-ples and candidates it is our purpose now

Thanks to Almighty God, the patriotism of the people and the prowess of our citizen-soldiery, the terrible war that for four years has devastated our country and repeatedly laid waste our own fair valleys has ended. The Confederate Government, its armies and its animating doctrine, secession, lie prostrate at the feet of the people of the Union. The tramp of armed men and the crash of battle are no longer heard, and the recuperative energies of the people will speedily fill the air with the sound of the busy arts of peace. The soldier yields place to the citizen, the commander gives way to the statesman. The power of force is succeeded by the power of reason, justice and law. The soldier's duty of unquestioning obedience to the orders of a superior is sup-planted by the more rational but not less imperative obligation of obedience to law.

THE SUPREMACY OF THE LAW. The supremacy of the LAW.

Whether we be citizen or soldier; officer or statesman, ruler or ruled, this obligation or statesman, ruler or ruled, this obligation ment by the people an ordinance of secesment of the powers granted to the Federal Government by the people an ordinance of secesment were utterly void, and the insurrection were utterly void, and the insurrection were utterly void. rests with equal weight upon each and all of us. The doctrine of implicit and unof us. The doctrine of implicit and un-qualified obedience to the Constitution and laws of our country is now, and in all time past has been, a prominent tenet in the faith of the Demograph of Pennsylvania and of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and in the rebellion. For two hundred years it has Pennsylvania. Let us examine some more than his crown was worth, for an English King to deny this right to an English subject." Yet these principles, inwrought with the vitals of our system, baptized by the blood of patriots during six hundred and fifty years, and wrenched from the hand of tyranny for our benefit, we have basely yielded to the unquestioned control mediate parment to the undersigned, residing of those in power. And during the past in Oxford township, and those having claims four years, again and again, have freemen,

The Wade, Wilkinson, Wilson, 22. all the land, these abuses still exist. The courts created by law are in abeyance, and courts created by law are in abeyance, and tribunals unknown to the Constitution and laws usurp their power over life, liberty and property. The great writ of freedom that assures every individual the protection of civil authority is fettered by the hand of arbitrary power, and the citizen is denied the right of trial by a jury of his peers. The Democratic party of Pennsylvania believe that the house of the trial by a jury of his peers. The Democratic party of Pennsylvania believe that the house of the trial by a jury of his peers. The Republican party in the Senate.

This subject came up in the house of the walls that protected their Holtz that the house of the presentatives on the 15th April, 1864, (Congressional Globe, p. 1652,) the motion whilst the other grasped the sword that by military commissions should cease; the right of trial by twelve calm, impartial sworn citizens, should be restored, and the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus be free the city of the state of t as the air, THE RIGHTS OF THE STATES. Aside from these great cardinal doctrines, the supremacy of the law and the inviola-bility of the fundamental principles of free government, there is no subject more closely allied with the preservation of our form of government and the protection of our iberties, than that of the relations of the States to the Federal Government. Both were created for the benefit of the people, and within the spheres of power granted or reserved to each, each is supreme.

The obligation of the citizen to the Federal Government within the scope of the powers granted to it is binding and imper-ative, and no one can absolve him from his duty thereto. So, also, the power of the States over those matters not expressly granted to the Federal Government or reserved to the people, is equally clear, and the duty of the citizen thereto is equally ing for an amendment of the Federal Constitution to perpetuate it.

Such a practical interference would be a
