"SOME PUMPKINS I"-To Mrs. H. G. W olf, of this place, we are indebted for the biggest present that has reached the Compiler office present that has reached the Compiler office during a long while. It is a beautiful Pump. kin, weighing 41½ ha., and measuring 4 feet 7 inches 1 Can any one beat it? If ao, fogward the monster this way, and a note shall be made of it. Mrs. Wolf has grown four like the one noticed and three smaller ones upon two vines during the present season—a curiosity such as during the present season-a coriosity such as has proved its great value for all the common is rarely met with. She has our thanks. is rarely met with. She has our thanks.

Our acknowledgments are also due to the lady of Esquire Lott, in Franklin township, pany, in this place, was entered on Saturday night week, by burglars. The Safe containing probably twenty dollars, and some unimportant papers, was taken out through a back window, and conveyed some distance from town, where it was forced open and relieved of its contents. The robbers, fortunately, ob-fined a poor remuneration for the risk, labor and trouble they were put to. They are still the states of the risk for the risk and the states of the st window, and conveyed some distance from at large.
