1866.
The World,

AN INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.—After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of the United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress.—North and South, a cordial co-operation of all honest men is needed to repair the waste of war, to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The great Democratic Party, whose history in the past is the history of private prosperity, of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions in its loyalty to the rights of co-equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen. Once more its voice will be heard, once more its adherents will be rallied to its time-honored standards in every city and town of the Northern and of the Southern States.

To the principles of this great Democratic Party of the Nation, THE WORLD has borne firm witness throughout the ordeal of civil war.—It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and weighty questions—financial, social, political—which come upon us with the return of peace. Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be enslaved by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered, with no weak or uncertain voice, here in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such importance to every citizen as must recommend THE WORLD to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

Whatever skill can devise or enterprise accomplish will contribute to make THE WORLD what it is our resolve that it shall continue to be—the Best Newspaper of the Day.

Competent correspondents at every commercial and political center of both hemispheres, who are always instructed to make the freest and promptest use of the telegraph, will keep our readers fully informed of the doings and the progress of mankind in all parts of the globe.

EDITIONS.

The Daily WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.

The Semi-Weekly WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Weekly WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, has now the largest circulation of any weekly journal published save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers.—Published Wednesday.

1. Its MARKET REPORTS embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge LIVE STOCK MARKETS; the New York COUNTRY PRODUCE and GENERAL PRODUCE MARKETS; special and valuable HOP INTELLIGENCE, a department of AGRICULTURAL READING; all together composing an unrivaled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, the Country Merchant, etc.

2. Its Reading for the Family Circle embraces the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc.

3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most city weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.

In every post-office district there should be found some active, public-spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by making a determined effort to form a club of four, ten, twenty, or fifty for the Weekly WORLD, at our greatly reduced rates.

UNLESS YOU WANT TO SAVE MONEY!

How sad! how heart-rending are the evils of War! Now that Peace has been restored the universal cry is, How long! How dear! How are we to live! Will the exorbitant prices for the necessaries of life never decline? From the remote corner of Adams county, in the small but prosperous town of Fairfield, comes the welcome messenger with tidings of better days.

☞READ AND PROFIT.☜

DANNER & SHIELDS have just returned from the eastern cities, (having allowed their stock of goods to be very much reduced waiting for a decline in the markets.) The time at length arrived, they availed themselves of the opportunity, hastened to the city, and are now prepared to supply the wants of the needy.—Our stock of LADIES' GOODS is better than ever before. That for the GENTLEMEN is unsurpassed. To enumerate would be superfluous.

"QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS," is our motto. Our stock being selected with care, we here assert that we are enabled to sell as cheap, and we think cheaper, than can be bought anywhere else in the county. Close buyers particularly, will find it to their advantage to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

☞Country produce taken in exchange for Goods. Thankful for past favors we hope to merit a continuance of the same.

ANOTHER PROCLAMATION.
HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

WHEREAS, the American people have suffered under a four years' war, during which time they have been burthened with heavy taxes and frequent drafts,

AND WHEREAS, The avenues of trade had become disarranged, and the price of goods, particularly CLOTHING, having reached a high standard, causing many a patriot to become weak in the knees, and say to himself, when shall these things end?

AND WHEREAS, Many a well-to-do man, who in former times walked the streets in Broadcloth, and who now, in consequence of the high prices, has been compel
