

The Compiler

J. J. STABLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. GETTYSBURG, PA. MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 20, 1865.

THE COMPILER'S CORRECTIONS. The publication of The Compiler costs more than double now what it did before the war...

Mr. Worth has been elected Governor of North Carolina, over Holden, by from five to ten thousand majority.

The vote cast in Baltimore in 1860 was 30,146; the number registered in 1865 was 10,040—one-third; and the number of votes cast in 1865 was 5,114—one-sixth.

The cholera is raging in Syria. That country has also lost largely of cattle by the plague, and its green crops have been devoured by locusts.

Iowa has 86,000 dogs, and last year lost $120,148 worth of sheep between them and the wolves. Those are valuable "dogs."

The lady clerks of the Patent Office are to walk the plank on the 30th inst.

On Friday night week some negro soldiers murdered a marketman near Nashville, Tennessee.

John C. Breckinridge is reported at St. Catharines, Canada.

General Butler has rented a house in Washington.

Some of the principal New York legislators talk of raising the price of board to $6 per day.

Gen. Howard recently told an assemblage of freedmen at Jackson, Miss., that the lads were not to be divided, and that freedom meant work.

Apprehensions of a negro insurrection are felt in Mississippi, and legislation to disarm them is suggested.

Senatorial. The Harrisburg Telegraph is in a terrible way about the result of the election for Senator in this district.

The copperheads are making a desperate effort to establish the false claim of Duncan, the copperhead candidate for Senator in the Adams District.

There is mighty little of truth in the above. The "copperheads" are not "making a desperate effort to establish the false claim of Duncan, the candidate for Senator in the Adams District."

Mr. Duncan was duly elected, and having received a majority of the votes—without objection from any one on the ground of illegal votes having been given for him—was accorded the certificate of election, by the Return Judges.

The atrocious of the negro revolt in Jamaica should cause thoughtful people to ponder the tendency of certain doctrines with reference to the status of the negro, now being promulgated in the United States.

If each one of these would get a good Democratic paper into his house, it would have a great influence for men who will not read it if it is not advertised.

Let the Democracy think of these matters, and by subscribing for the Compiler, make a small investment which will pay largely in good influences on their own families and friends as well as for the Democratic cause.

General Scales going South. Major General Scales has been in Washington for a few days, and will be ordered to relieve Major General Gillmore in command of the Department of South Carolina.

General Kilapatrick was arrested for bribery on election day at Newtown, New Jersey, together with the United States Deputy Collector and two or three others.

Hon. Charles Miner, ex-Congressman from Pennsylvania, died at Wilkesbarre on the 20th ult., aged 65.

Mr. Faulkner, ex-United States Minister to France, is in Washington.

General Kilpatrick, of New Jersey, has been appointed U. S. Minister to Chili.

It is reported that John C. Breckinridge will remove to Texas, if pardoned.

Meetings have been held in various cities of Northern Germany to take up subscriptions for the freedmen in the United States.

The Negro Outbreak in Jamaica. In view of the change in the condition of the negroes in the United States, the insurrection in Jamaica presents matter for serious thought.

"I have made a pretty good storm among such kind of officers as the Massachusetts Government abounds in since I came to this camp, having broken one colonel and one sergeant for cowardly behavior at Burner Hill; and two captains for drawing more provisions and pay than they had men in their companies, and one for being absent from his post when the enemy appeared and burnt a house just by."

That is decidedly a strong indictment; but, we think it can easily be shown that the people of Massachusetts have been noted for selfishness, if not for cowardice, from the day of the revolution to the present time.

"The Harrisburg Telegraph says: 'The constitutional right of Missouri to exclude a class of her people from the polls on account of the color of their hearts, is quite as good as the constitutional right of South Carolina to exclude a class of her people from the polls on account of the color of their skin.'"

There are hundreds of Democrats in the county who do not take the Compiler, or any other Democratic paper. That they should do so, we need not repeat.

Let the Democracy think of these matters, and by subscribing for the Compiler, make a small investment which will pay largely in good influences on their own families and friends as well as for the Democratic cause.

On the shaft, above the inscriptions, is carved a bust of Gen. Gettys, and a very correct likeness. We are pleased to see so handsome a memorial erected to the founder of Gettysburg, and this gratification is no doubt felt by all our citizens.

GRANITE MONUMENT.—We are glad that Adams county granite is being appreciated abroad. It is not only good granite, but is found on the field of one of the most memorable battles of the war—and that should be a matter of some consideration.

BASE BALL.—An interesting game of Base Ball was played in this place on Saturday week, the particulars in regard to which have been handed us by a friend, as follows:

BRUTAL MURDER NEAR FREDRICK, Md. A youth of about ten years of age, son of Mr. Daniel P. Myers, tenant on Mr. John Derr's farm, near the Liberty Bridge, about 3 miles north of this city, was most cruelly and brutally murdered on Saturday morning last, in a distant field on the farm, by a negro boy aged 17, named Samboel Stephens, known as 'Squinty'.

Colorado Election—Democratic Triumph. DENVER CITY, Oct. 23.—The enclosed is a transcript of the official vote. The Democrats will probably have the Legislature and the Congressmen, with the entire State ticket.

Drinking on a Wager.—Death the Result. Theodore Reeder, a young man about nineteen years of age, died suddenly at the Star Saloon, in Clarion, Pa., on the 20th ult.

Robert G. McCree, as Agent for the Hays of Hugh Deniddey, Sr., deceased, has sold the property on Baltimore street, occupied by Daniel Trimmer, for $500 cash.

Massachusetts Patriotism. On the 29th of August, 1775, General Washington wrote from Cambridge, Massachusetts, to Richard Henry Lee:

"I have made a pretty good storm among such kind of officers as the Massachusetts Government abounds in since I came to this camp, having broken one colonel and one sergeant for cowardly behavior at Burner Hill; and two captains for drawing more provisions and pay than they had men in their companies, and one for being absent from his post when the enemy appeared and burnt a house just by."

Column & County. OIL IN ADAMS COUNTY.—Several tracts of land near Hampton, in this county, have been leased by a Boston company, with a view to boring for oil.

The land had been well tilled, and was last fall treated to a heavy coat of manure, just before ploughing. The corn was drilled, 17 inches apart—the rows 34 feet apart.

There are signs of oil on the farm of Mr. E. D. Keller, three miles west of this place.

"STRUCK ILL."—The Philadelphia, Lancaster, and Cherry Run Petroleum Company has struck a "two hundred barrel well" on their grounds at Pithole, Pa.

The poles for the Insulated Telegraph Company have been distributed between this place and Harrisburg, and in a few weeks we will be in direct communication with the Capital.

The remains of Capt. Pfeiffer, who was killed at Gold Harbor, were brought home, and re-interred at New Oxford on Thursday, with military honors.

The remains of Mr. Isaac T. Hoeg, who died on the 11th of May, 1865, at Long Run, Stafford county, Va., were recovered by his brothers and brought home for re-interment, which took place at Emmisburg, on the 23d of October.

THICK-SOLED SHOES.—We suppose it will scarcely be considered improper, if we at this particular season, admonish the ladies of the safety of thick-soled shoes.

CLEAN YOUR CHIMNEYS.—Now that the fall season is at hand, when high winds are prevalent, our citizens should see that their chimneys are properly cleaned.

SCHOOL CHILDREN.—A cordial vote of the Assembly, passed April 27th, 1865, no child can be admitted into the public schools of Pennsylvania that is under six years of age.

TO CONSUMPTIVES. The undersigned has been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years, with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption.

TO DIE IN A BAD CAUSE. as those who fall in the rear ranks undoubtedly do, is foolish. But on the other hand DYING FOR A GOOD CAUSE as those who are wise and prudent enough to remedy the defects of nature with CHRISTODORUS HAIR DYE, are doing every day, in every City of the Union, is eminently praiseworthy.

HEAVY YIELD.—We were informed, the other day, that Mr. John S. Foust, residing in Springfield township, York county, within two miles of Glen Rock, raised, the past season, on a twelve acre field, the enormous quantity of one hundred and sixteen bushels of shelled corn to the acre!

The land had been well tilled, and was last fall treated to a heavy coat of manure, just before ploughing. The corn was drilled, 17 inches apart—the rows 34 feet apart.

Not many years since Mr. Foust's land was poor, but lime has brought it up to the point of fertility indicated. "Lime is the stuff," a fact which we cannot too often impress upon our farmer friends.

TAPE-WORM EXPULSED.—Dr. John Godey, Frederick Faistel, of New Salem, in this county, is a determined enemy of those pernicious entozoa that sometimes infest the inner man.

Sergeant John McAllister has been appointed temporarily Keeper of the National Cemetery, and will enter on his duties in a few days. He is to occupy the Keeper's House at the Gateway, and devote his whole time to attending to the grounds.

We are requested to announce that persons wishing to procure tickets to Prof. Mayer's Lectures, should do so immediately, as the number is limited, and they are nearly all disposed of already.

The poles for the Insulated Telegraph Company have been distributed between this place and Harrisburg, and in a few weeks we will be in direct communication with the Capital.

MR. ALCOCK'S PORTS PLASTER. These plasters have the completeness of kid leather and the flexibility of a silk glove.

The steamer City of Washington brings foreign news to the 21st inst. Speculations concerning the new British Cabinet were still indulged. The arrest of Fenians in Ireland continued; among the number was an American officer. It was reported in Paris that the French troops in Mexico were to be withdrawn.
