> vite as this? A good story is told about the Ber. Robert J. Breckingidge, who was temporary chairman of the Bullimore Convention last year, and the late Thomas F. Marshall, of Kentucky. Both wishing to establish a reputation in early life, measured language with Henry blay, and, of course, got the worst of it. A tew years atterwards, the two met—the latter being on one of his dis-tomary sprees. The lawyer exclaimed to the divine: "Ah! Bob, it was an aniuchy day when we tilted against the Great Harry!

resorted to all the expedients of the pott-fogger's trickery, to obtain a continuarce; moving to quasir the array of jurors, though the jury had been drawn in the same manner for a hundred previous capital cases, and finally swearing the case off by making an affidavit to the absurce of important witnesses. And just here, let us look at this affid wit of Mr Cessna. We find him swearsare," "Mrs. M S Hoke," "Wm. J. Campbell," "Li zie Long and L zzie Gordon" were "material to the trial of the case." Upon this oath of Mr. Cessua, the Court continued the trial to November sessions. Now, not one of these witnesses, except Jahn Williams, did Mr. Cessua produce at the trial last week though he had three months time in which to have them brought here. We are informed that when Cesana made his oath, John Williams was not for away, and that he appeared and testified before the Grand Jury at September seesions. Wm. J. Campbell was in attendance at the trial, last week, but this important witness was not even called to the stand by Mr. Cesson, Why Mrs. Hoke, -- Howsare and the two Lozzies were not forthcoming, is, doubtless, best known to the "affiant" who swore that their testimony was "material to a trial of the case." But the blackest page in all the dark history of this man Cessna's connection with this Reed case, is yet to be written. Contempt for the meanines of the fellow's malignity and pity for those who must share him shame, almost constrain us to forbear. The most conspicables part borne in the trial of young Reed, was that taken by John

Cessna, E'q., one of the counsel for the prosecution. From the time of the killing until the moment of acquittal, like a blood-hound in pursuit of his quarry, he was upon the track of the Reeds. When the fatal shot was fired, the crack of the pistol brought him in "at the death," and after young Reed had surrendered himself to the Sheriff, he marched to the jail at the head of a mob, and with the froth of his malignant heart boiling over at his mouth, yelled like an incarnate devil, "Hanghim! hanghim!"

When the coroner's inquest was held upon the body of Crouse, he went before the jury as counsel and harangued them in favor of the finding he desired, a proceeding without parallel in all the annals of jurisprudence. When the case came up at September accsions, he

Guedle says:
