WORKING AND PACKING BUTTER. One of the causes of bad butter is the habit which some dairywomen indulge in, of leaving their butter unworked for a considerable time after churning. Every hour that the buttermilk remains in contact with the butter, after churning, is an injury it cannot be traced from it too soon.

The grain of butter is often spoiled by too much working; on the other hand, if it is not worked enough, it will be spoiled the process therefore requires much atten-

PACKING EGGS FOR WINTER.

Mrs. L. W. Slawson, of Kenosha, Wis. says she has kept eggs perfectly good and fresh till a year old in the following manner: She pours some wheat into the bottom of a barrel, and places the eggs, day by day as they are gathered, standing on the small end, in the wheat. When that course is full, she pours another layer of wheat on the eggs, and repeats the process. When the barrel is full it is covered and placed in a dry pellar. The barrel stands upon the out as wanted. She says that it is not only of goods for Gentlemen's wear, embracing a unnecessary to reverse the barrel when variety of packed, as recommended by some, but that it is injurious.

How sad! how heart-rending are the evils of War! Now that Peace has been restored the universal cry is, How long! How dear! How are we to live! Will the exorbitant prices for the necessaries of life never decline? From the remote corner of Adams county, in the small but prosperous town of Fairfield, East of Buehler's Drug Store, every day during comes the welcome messenger with tidings of ing for a decline in the markets.) The time at length arrived, they availed themselves of the opportunity, hastened to the city, and are now prepared to supply the wants of the needy.—Our stock of LADIES' GOODS is better than ever before. That for the GENTLEMEN is unsurpassed. To enumerate would be superfluous.

"QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS," is our motto. Our stock being selected with eare, we here assert that we are enabled to sell as cheap, and we think cheaper, than can be bought anywhere else in the county. Close buyers particularly, will find it to their advan-tage to give us a call before purchasing else-
