Season Unknown.—Genesce Chief. And now to make my communication as useful taken out. as I can, allow me to make some general observa-tions worthy of attention. In the first place, there is a great difference in the PRODUCTIVENESS of our various apple trees, since some are great, others good, and others again only moderate or poor bearers of fruit. And some trees, too, bear apples every year, while others only every other year, or but one crop in two years, and hence it is very important for a man who has only room enough on and for a few apple trees, not only to have stand that the explosion was caused by at-the best, but such trees as will yield him good crops of apples every year instead of every other year only—a subject far too much overlooked and neglected in our apple tree plantings. Among the trees that bear fruit every year we have the Carama, Red June, Dyer of Pomme Royal, Early Harvest, Fall Wine, Fallenwalder, (Farnwalder, Tulpehocken or Pound Apple,) Gardener's Royal, Golden Sweet or Sweeting, Gravenstein, Green King of Tomkins county, Limbertwig, Major Apple, Horter, Rambo, Rawle's Janet, Red Astruch-an, Rome Beauty, Red Pennock, Roxbury Russet, Smith's Cider, Smokehouse, Spitzenberg, Summer Green, Swaar, Tallman's Sweeting, Vandevere, Wagner, Winesap, Yellow Bough and Yellow Beliffower. These are the only apple trees which I find described in the books and fruit catalogues as being ANNUAL bearers. And among those that bear fruit only every other year, we have the Baldwin, Gardener's Sweeting, Newtown Pippin, Red Canada, Rhode Island Greening, &c. Kenrick in writing of the Baldwin snys: "The tree bears enducing an apple." Robert L. Pell of New York, the famous Newtown Pippin apple grower, says Saddle, Side Saddle, and about 30 bushels of Black Uats, a superior quality, a Reaper and Mower, (Manny's patent.) A LESSON FOR FAST YOUNG MEN. A few days sgo a man named Dr. John W. Hughes was hanged at Cleveland, Ohio, whose fate teaches a salutary clesson. He was a man of good family, well educated, had an honorable profession, and, at one time, a good social position. But he seems to have ruined himself by liquor and bad company. Under these influences he be came thoroughly demoralized and scoffed at morals and religion. He was held by no conscience whatever. Having a good young wife and a child, he married another woman almost in presence of his family, she, however, being ignorant of his first marriage. For this crime he was tried, convicted, and sent to our Western Penitentiary at Pittsburg. If there be one high office of the govern ment from which; more than any other, we have a right to expect dignity and decorone conduct, it is that of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; and from the selablishment of the venerated tribunal down to the time of the appointment of the present incumbent the office of presiding judge has been filled by men who have exhibited greese pot in Stonington, Connecticut.

Sort time may be seen from the exhibited in the construction of the point of the exhibited in the construction of the exhibited in the

"At Dr. Sunderland's church, to nght, Chief Justice Chase introduced Prederick Douglass to a dense saditory, speaking of him in highly complimentary terms. The latter occupied two hours, taking for his subject The Assasination and its Lessons." There were present many members of Congress, and a number of the lecturer's own race. He was appleted throughout."
It is well known that the person chaperoned by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is a mulatto, who has been for a number of years pampered by the Aboli-tionists, and paraded about as an evidence of the superiority of negro intellect. He has recently been engaged in making speeches abusive of the President, and last week, in company with several other "col-ored persons," pretending to be a delega-tion representing the negroes of the whole country, he impudently went to the White House and undertook to rebuke President Johnson for refusing to adopt the regardes of the fanatics who now control the ma-jority in Congress. The speech which he made after being introduced and "highly complimented" by Chief Justice Chass was grossly insulting to the President, and contained language of the most culumnions and off-naive characters

Now, what are the American people to think of a man who, while filling the high-Douglass and G. T. Powling, is described by our old correspondent in his most amusing vein. Possibly the description may be atration whose palpable object is to insult more humorous than literal, but we appresent the description of the United States? Can any American who has hereto-fore felt pride in our Great Republic fail w blush when he sees so gross a tack of de-cency exhibited by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Gourt? What have we come to, when no sense of self-respect can induce such an official to refrain from engaging in the work which heretofore has only been done by pot-house politicians?

O shame, where is the blush?"

When we think of the effectivhich such conduct must have upon the minds of metalligent men throughout the world we con-
