

ODDS AND ENDS.

THE COLORADOANS. In the U. S. Senate, recently, in a discussion of the Army bill, Sen. Waite, Republican, of Ohio, said: "Experience has shown that colored troops were as good as white, and it was a noted fact that while the white regiments along the frontier were being reduced by desertion, there were no desertions from colored regiments."

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN. Every tax-payer—no matter whether he be rich or poor, whether he be Democrat or Republican—will remember that the present Congress, made infamous by its recency to the rights and interests of the white man, passed the "Negro Bureau Bill," by which the tax-payers of the country would have been robbed out of at least $75 millions of Dollars annually, to feed and clothe the idle and worthless negroes who have been thrown upon the public by the results of the war. And let them remember, also, that the Abolition Convention of this State, which nominated John W. Geary for Governor, endorsed this same bill to the very letter.

Significant Post Office Appointment. The special correspondent of the Age from Washington, of April 4, says: "An appointment of some significance was made this morning. Some time in February the postmaster of New Bloomfield, in the county seat of Perry county, Pa., resigned, leaving timely notice to his Radical friends. The union body of the latter immediately acted in recommending the chairman of the Republican County Committee, Samuel South, an ultra-Radical, for the position. The aid of prominent Radicals outside of the district was invoked and went in to help Mr. South and his appointment seemed assured. The Democrats and conservative friends of the President were not to be consulted in the matter. At this stage of the game, Mr. Glosbrenner, the Democratic Representative of the district, was advised that the appointment of South would be highly distasteful to the friends of the President in that neighborhood, and that the name of Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson would be presented if there was any probability of success. Mr. Glosbrenner at once advised the presentation of Mrs. Jackson's name and sought and obtained the consent of the department to suspend action until the next meeting, when it could be heard from. A long contest, with varying phases, ensued, in which the friends of M. A. Dickson were represented by Mr. Glosbrenner. Two weeks ago the Radical, with Representative Moreshead and Clerk of the House McPherson siding with them, seemed about to win, and the appointment of Mr. South was publicly announced in the local newspaper. The struggle ended, however, this morning, in the appointment of a Republican."

Mr. Marshall, of Pittsburg, one of the most prominent members of the Convention which nominated Gen. Geary for Governor, said, in the course of a speech made by him at that Convention, that Gen. Geary had told him that he (Geary) endorsed everything that Thaddeus Stevens had done. Hence, the Geary platform contains among its broadest planks, Negro Suffrage, the Freedman's Bureau bill, and broader and blacker than all the rest, Disunion. How can any Conservative man, or any soldier who fought for the White Man's Government and against Disunion, support General Geary, after such an avowal by any one of his friends, in open Convention?

The announcement comes to us direct from Washington, and in such a shape that we have no hesitation in giving it our belief, that the administration has at length decided to exact an active support of its policy from the office holders in its employ. The inconsistency of retaining men in comfortable positions under the Government who use all their influence against the administration and its friends will not be tolerated any longer, and radical officials will soon be called upon to decide whether they will give up their places or rally around the policy of Mr. Johnson.

The Pittsburg Post thus refers to Geary's popularity among the soldiers: "General Geary wants to know how popular he is with his old regiment, the 26th, a number of whom are in this city, let him come and find out. The Republican portion of this regiment will not only not vote for him for Governor, but will vote for Cuyler."

The Republicans gave the name of popperhead to all who differed with the President. They made the name and the application, and now they turn around and oppose the President themselves—thus assuming the odious name of their own creation. Their copperheadism is however for negroes—not white men, and it is therefore of the black kind. Let the country, since they have assumed themselves, give them the benefit of it."

It will be when Thad. Stevens & Co. are laid on the shelf. So long as they cook the "mud broth" for Congress, the "black art" will bubble.

Gen. James Shields is making speeches in Missouri in support of President Johnson.

Copperheads take note: some of them have been passed. Persons should be on their guard in receiving these little coins.
