BY Severe hemorrhage, and, according to the judgment of a good New York physician, I was classed as beyond the reach of medicine, and was advised to be prepared, so far as property matters were concerned, to leave this world at short notice. The physician (and my good friends) said that the first cold I took and many in rows fatal. Early in January I took as must prove fatal. Early in January I took a severe cold, and fortunately was occupying rooms at No. 32 BOND STREET, directly over you last summer, and I say the same now, if you have any business to close up, do not put it off." He said to other friends that he "could why. My latti was increasing in your medicines, and I had a wish to have you exemine my case, and see what you had to say. When you first came to my ruem and bade the examination, you gave me but little encourage. called, finding me still gaining, you gave me encouragement, saying, "my symptoms were improving; the Pulmonic Syrup, Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills had acted like a charm." My circulation, my cough my appe-tite, all began to improve, and good wilk about my room a little. You will me > my skin was as sallow as though I had the iny skin was as sallow as though I had the joundice; I felt dull, heavy and sleepless. Dr. Schenck, after examining me, said both my lungs were affected, and gave me but little hope; but his medicines, in about two weeks, took right hold of me; it seemed to go right through my whole system. The Pulmonic Strup, Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pells all took right hold in the right place. The Pills brought away great quantities of bile and slime; the Syrup loosened the matter in my lungs, which came off very free; the Sca-Weed Tonic gave me an appetite; and everything seemed to taste good.
