TROUT PISHING.

The following from the Country Gentleman gives some practical infortantion in relation to trout fishing. We transfer it to our columns for the benefit of tyros in the sport: ravian Guano.

First, as to the habits of the trout. They seek in warm seasons, clear, cool, running water. In winter, they retreat to the deepwater. In winder, they retreat 50 time deeper water, such as fords and if deep hotes.

and June are the best months.

Then as to the bait. For brook fishing, there is nothing better than the angle worm or dew worm; for pond fishing, the artificial fly. Large trout, however, are oftenest caughs with the fly. Minnows are good, and will frequently tempt large trout when the worm and fly both fail.

HIGH PRICED BEEP.

The Baltimore Sun gives the following account of the sale of some four large steers which were contributed o the Southern Relief Fair:

"The excitement attending the mam moth steers don sted to the Southern Relief Fair, culminated yesterday morning by the sale of the beef at the Lexington Market Large crowds visited the market to witness the display of the beef. The beef of the Bankard steers was exposed for sale on the stall of Mr. Lewis Turner, Jr. and was all number of friends of President Johnson purchased a plendid rosst at $500, and forwarded it to that gentleman. The prices ranged from $250 for roasts down to $5 for shin bones, the entire amount realized from shin bones, the entire amount realized from the two steers being in the neighborhood farmer that it makes a heavier grain than of $4,000. The Barranger steers, four in number, yielded 6,200 pounds of beef, all even stable manure, and is not only active of which was disposed of to city purchasers, but lasting. with the exception of a $75 rosst for the Spottswood House at Richmond, and two nieces taken by Mr. Brillinger, the gentle-inan who raised them, in York county, Pennsylvania. The prices of the beet from these cattle averaged from $2 down to 25 cents per pound, and it is supposed the entire proceeds of sales will fall but little short of $4,000. The beef as exhibited on the stalls of Mr. Turner and Mr. Barranger presented a beautiful appearance, the like of which has, perhaps, never before been seen in the Lexington or any other market of this city."

MORE REPUBLICAN TESTIMONY.

The New York Times, in a leading article end parties having unlawfully used our dispublished a few days since, boldly charges the Radical majority in Congress with labeling parties to the public. "We apprehend that, when they can get their courage up to the 'sticking point,' this is precisely the course which the Radicals n Congress will endeavor to pursus :-Universal negro suffrage se the condition sine qua non, of the Restoration of the Union, is now, and has been from the beginning o the session, the grand goal and object of all their efforts. They have closked it more or less, partly from policy and partly from fear; but the time is drawing nigh when they can closk it no longer. All the talk and all the excitement that has been raised about Constitutional Amendments, equality of Civil Rights, stamore recent effort to prove that, even if the Rebel States are in the Union, they may rightly be held to have forfested all the rights of citizenship under the Constitu-'efforts of Hart, Ward, Holmes, and other Radical members from this State, have all nimed at the same thing—namely, to lay a foundation for demanding, at the hands of the South, universal negro suffrage as the condition of restoration."

What further testimeny can any sane man need to prove that the Republican $26 00 party is irrevocably wedded to the negro?

A FACE THEY DARE NOT DENY. We noticed several weeks since, the fact that Congress had considered one bill that expressly referred to the white man. It may be news to many to know that it has passed another. The last one is to impose "afine not exceeding $1,000, and imprisonment not exceeding one year," upon any white man who shall deprive any negro of the right of marrying his daughter, or any wench the privilege of taking his son.
