The Editor and the Publisher both starsed yesterday to attend the Convention at Williamsport. They had, as they tho't, furnished copy enough to fill up the paper; but the copy is all set up; and there yet

The Williamsport Convention.

That this will be a large assemblage we fully believe. That it will embrace a fair share of the talent, and the energy of this Commonwealth we do not doubt. That it may count among its members and attendants some political scamps, we think barely possible. If the Democray of this Convention should prove to be the Democracy of Jefferson-that democracy which promotes the welfare, and protects the industry of our own country, while it asserts and vindicates the natural rights of all the human race, why then, success to it! But if the Convention should attempt to "comprom'se"this Democracy, if they try to trade it off to gain Presidential votes for some old humbug of a "great man" - We say if they play this game, they may cheat some rich tolks, but they can't fool

THE PRINTER'S DEVIL. A little girl, daughter of Isaiah Stryker, residing near this Borough, died one day last week from eating a quantity of the garden vegetable called rhubarb or pie-plant, We have read of several deaths from a similler cause - [Wmsport Gaz., 22d May.] The Democratic State Convention meets to day at Williamsport, to nominate a candidate for each of the offices of Canal Commissioner, Auditor General, and Survevor General.

The Whig State Convention will meet at Philadelphia, on the 19th June, for the same purpose.

Hartronn, Jan. 26, 1847.

Dr. J. C. Ayer.—Dear Sir: Having been rescued from a painful and dangerous disease, gratifude prompts me to send you this acknowledgment, not only in justice to you but for the information of others in like affliction.

A slight cold upon the lungs, neglected at first, became so severe that spitting of blood, a violent cough, and profuse night sweats followed and fastened on me. I became unclasted, could not sleep, was distressed by my cough, and a pain through my chost, and in short had all the alarming symptoms of quick concumption. No inclicing beened at all to reach my case, until I providentially tried your Cherry Pectorial, which soon relieved and now has cured me.

ALBANT, N. Y., April 17, 1848.

Dr. Ayer, Lowell—Dear Sir: I was afflicted by Asthma in the worst form, so that I have been obliged to sleep in my chair for a larger part of the time, being unable to breathe on my bed. I had tried a great many medicines to no purpose, until my physician prescribed, as an experiment, your Cherry Pectoral. At first it seemed to make the worse, but in less than a week I began to experience the most gratifying relief from its use; and now, in four weeks, the disease is entirely removed. I can sleep on my bed with comfort, and emjoy a state of health which I had never expected to enjoy.

How much will a Dollar's worth CURE? Therety large, deep Ulcers were exceed by using only tucker bottles of Brant's Purpler. The following is the most were derful and autonishing cure that was ever effected on a human being, by any madician.

Horrid Scrofula Cured. Ms. J. B. Harken, of Rome, Oneside Co., N. F., certifies, December 20th, 18th, that he had been affilieted with Sesargua four years, and the last year confined to his beel, with Twenty large, deep discharging Ulcans—that his neck was eaten around from ear to car—a hole was eaten through his Bind-pipe, so that he breathed through the hole—his ear was nearly destroyed—the use of his arm was wholly destroyed—and an Ulcut under the arm, so large as a man's hand, had nearly eaten through him his Lungs—that he had used all kinds of Sansaraatta and other nodicines, to us being in and that he was not expected to live treenty-four hours when he commenced Baan's isntan Punisyrna Expandent—that sinks notters of the Penrythm Expandent and caref strungeres. So the Penrythm Expandent and caref strungeres, of the twenty Ulcars he had when he commenced using it, and that a few bottles more effected a prespector. For full-particulars of this, and many other similar cares, see our Panyments.

This Wonderful and Astonishing CUBE does not stand alone as a monument of the great efficacy of Baann's Prayrins, for we could give almost unlim-ited evidence of other cure, well attested, it this were doubted. This cure is certified to by
