The musical performances of Mr. Sharp which have excited so much attention, are not such aff uncommon thing after all. We last week heard the same thing done by two small boys of David Dancan Esq. at Spring Mills, Centre county, and were informed that there were several other lads in the neighborhood who could do the same. The only requisite is to keep the tongue at the roof of the mouth. A slight peculiarity perhaps, in the windpipe, is necessary to insure success .- Good Samaritan.

And here is another:

On Tuesday evening last, we attended the performance of Mr. D.C. Hanna, and had the pleasure of listening to his pectoral or lung music. There is something very strange in the manner he produces sounds By a means which neither he nor the most scientific can account for, he breathes a melody much like that made by an organ. and accompanied by a sonorous bass which preserves a perfect harmony with the strain.

power to relieve and cure affections of the Lungs, have gained for it a celebrity equaled by no other that has ever come under our observation, and is capable of a high degree of cultivation. - Brookville (Pa.) Jeffersonian.

BOY KILLED .- A lad named Alem Mills, aged nine years, son of Jacob Mills of this place, lost his life on Saturday morning last, by a most distressing accident. While playing about the machinery connected with the lathe at the Rough & Ready Rolling-Mill, his hand was caught between two cog-whiels, which drew in his arm and shoulder, and finally forced the whole body through the wheels and between the gearing which they revolve upon, mangling it in a most shocking manner, and causing instant death. The roll-turner was not at the lathe at the time of the accident, nor was any other person near enough to render timely assistance.-Danville Int., June 14.

Boston, June 15.

A daring attempt was made last night to rob the Mattapan Bank, Dorchester. The robbers fired a pistol at the bank watchman. and the ball passed through his hat. The watchman fired in return, when the robbers fled, leaving a lot of skeleton keys in the road. The watchman gave chase, when the robbers faced about, and threatened to shoot him if he advanced. One of the robhers was wounded; as, when they left, his companions were obliged to lift him into the buggy wagon.

The Court House - 1 plan for fitting up and repairing the old Court House Prepared bu J. C. Ayer, Chemist, Lowell, Ms. in this borough, has been exhibited to the building committee, by Mr. H. R. Nolle, J H Caslow, Milton; Isaac Gerhart, Selinsgrove, of Lewisburg, which seems to meet the general approbation of our citizens. It fin ished according to the draft, the old Court House will present a very classic appearance, and be an ornament to our town .-Danville Democrat.
