For the Lewisburg Chronicle Anecdote.

A bright little boy, three or four years old, not long since deserved a severe flageliation for a breach of duty, and received it duly. He stood the infliction without a tear, or begging to be released; and about an hour after, when his feelings had become to calmed as to allow his distinct utterance. he stood proudly up by his mother and inquiringly observed, "Ma! MES don't cry, do they ?" LEWISBURG.

New Legal Authorities.

In a case tried yesterday in one of our justices' courts some rather novel authorities were brought forward by one of the learned counsel:

"The court will observe," said he, "that in the case of Shylock vs. Antonia, though judgment was rendered in favor of the judgment was rendered in favor of the judgment was rendered in favor of the judgment and the case of Shylock vs. Antonia, though judgment was rendered in favor of the judgment was rendered at favor of the judgment when then the favor of the judgment when there are companied with surery and Sunaffer of which are companied with surery and Sunaffer of plaintiff, yet circumstances prevented the execution which had been issued from being carried into effect."

"What did the court understand the genplaintiff, yet circumstances prevented the tion an to refer to ?" asked the magistrate, sligthly puzzled.

house for worship. One of the number was despatched to a large town, to request a noted divine to take part in its dedication. Not getting his errand exactly, he simply applied to the minister to come and " dedicate our new church."

"What part do you wish me to take ?" said the clergyman.

"Why, we want you to dedicate the church," was the reply.

" But do you wish me to deliver the sermon, or to make the opening prayer, or only to make some remarks !"

" Why," exclaimed the brother, piqued at the obtuseness of the parson, " we simply want you to dedicate the church, the whole on't; it's only seventy five feet by fifty ; want you to dedicate it."

The Medicine you pre-eminently need?
But can any of these things he said of S. P. Townsenfs inferior article 1. This wong man's bind is not to be COMPARED WITH THE OLD DR'S, because of one GRAND PACT, that the one is INCAPABLE of DETERMORATION, and NEVER SPOILS, while the other DOES: souring, fermenting, and district the bottles containing it into fragments; the sour, of liquid exploding, and damaring other goods! Med as the injuried exploding, and damaring other goods! Med as the part of the compound be poisoness to the system I. Wat'put acid into a system already discussed with acid! Wat'put acid into a system arterially discussed with acid! Wat causes Dysappan but and! Do we not all know that we as food sours in our stomacks, what mischief it probaces—food what its Scrotis but an acid humon in the body What its Scrotis but an acid humon in the sour Wat produces all the humons which being on Enuprises of the Skin. blood? What is Scrossis but an acid humor in the sody? What produces all the humors which hims on Erupaious of the Skin, Scald Head, Sait Rheum, Everpelas, What Swellings, Fever Sores, and all uncertaints microal and external? It is nothing under heaven but an earl substance, which source, and thus spoils all the fluids of the body, more of less. What causes Rheumatism but a sour and acrafted which issuances need between the junta and earlied which insumates need between the junta and elsewhere, trustainty and inflaming the delineas themes upon which it acts! So of nervous diseases, of impurity of the blood, of deranged circulation, and nearly all the administration afflict human nature.

Now is it not horrible to make and sell, and infining tense to use this that S. P. Townstend's article and old Dr. Jacob Townstend's Sarsaparilla are kenren wide specif, and infinitely discov-ilar; that they are untile in every particular, having of there, that they are unlike in every particular, having use one single thing in common.

As S. P. Townsend is he doctor, and never was, is as shemist, no pharmaceurist—knows as more of medicine or disease than any other common, unscientific, unproblement wan, what granuates can the public have that they are receiving a semine scientific medicine, containing all the ricities of the articles used in preparing it, and which have the capable of changes which might reader them the ACLINIS of Disease instead of leadth?

But what else should be expected from one who know nothing comparatively of medicine or disease? It is entired a person of some experience to cook and serve upsers a common decent med. How much more unpursual is a that the persons who manufacture medicine designed for hat the persons who manufacture medicine designed for WEAK STOMACHS AND ENFERRED SYSTEMS should know well the medical properties of plants, in-manuer of sectiving and concentrating their beales? vi-also an extensive knowledge of the various directs whe affect the human system, and how to adopt remedies
