A Manly Little Fellow.

When Lieut. Gov. Patterson, of Westfield, N. Y., who is personally known tosome of our citizens, and who bears an exulted reputation for intelligence and kindness of neart, was Speaker of N. Y. Legislature, as is usual at the opening of the the House, some dozen boys presented themselves as applicants for the place of messenger. He inquired their names, and DJ Office, opposite J. DECKARD's Hotel into their conditions, in order to make the proper selection. He came, in the course of his examination, to a small boy, about ten years old, a bright looking lad.

· Well,' said he, what is your name? . John Hancock, sir,' replied the boy, with promptness.

' What!' said the Speaker, ' you did not sign the Declaration of Independence, did ' No sir,' replied the lad, stretching himself to his utmost proportions, but I would if I had been there."

arms around his dear neck-and kissed his beauteous head and both his lovely eyes.' This passage our friend, with the utmost innocence and gravity, translated thus: " She threw her white arms around his dear neck and cut off his beaute, us head and dug both kis localy eyes out!" The shouts of the class, and the prolound amazement of the Professor, convinced him that something was wrong-and he got ready for the question.'

" Mr. K.," said the Professor, as soon as he could trust himself to speak-"Why do you translate the passage in that strange manner ?'

" Oh! sir," replied our hero, pertly-"by a poetical license, allowable in some cases !"

The Summer Session of the LEWISBURG ACADEMY.

WILL commence on Mospar the 29th of April. Instruction will be given, as formerly, in all branches necessary to a thorough Academic course. Our endeavor shall not be simply to communicate knowledge, but to excite the youthful mind to act for itself. When this is fully attained, the progress of the student ecomes at once certain and rapid. The kind of learning which most of our youths in this country uceo, is that solid literature, which, while it natures their minds, prepares them also for the practical duties of lie.

Composition and Declamation will receive their full share of attention—particularly the former.

The Primary Department shall have our special care. From the disposition manifested to sustain the Institution, the subscriber feels attimulated to repeated a vertices. renewed exertions.

The Session will consist of two Terms of 1 weeks each—a short vacation intervening. Tui-tion—$6 for the common branches, $8 for the higher English, and $10 for Languages, per ession - per Term, one half.

We wish it understood, because it is the absolute trooping to the S.P. Townsend's article and old Dr. Jacob Torrosson's Sarsapartila are heaven wide opens, and sufficiely discovering they are unlike in every particular, having not one single thing in common.

As S. P. Townsend is no doctor, and nover was is to themse, no pharmacement—knows so more of medicane.

As S. P. Townsend is no doctor, and never was is althemist, no pharmoceunist—knows ao more of medicine or disease than any other common, unscientific, unprofession man, what guarantee can the public have that they are receiving a manifesticular disease, containing all the cities of the articles used in preparing it, and which are trapable of chances which might reader them the AGENTS of Disease instead of heath?

But what cloe should be expected from one who knownothing comparatively of medicine or disease? It requires a person of some experience to cook and serve up even a common decent med. This much more important is it that the persons who manufacture medicine designed for WEAK STOMACIS AND ENFELDILED SYSTEMS, should know well the medical properties of plants, the best manner of securing that experiences also an extensive knowledge of the various diseases which affer, the human system, and how to adapt remedies a those diseases?
