CHRONICI IFWISRIRG

H. C. HICKOK, Editor. O. N. WORDEN, Printer. LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., JANUARY 1, 1851.

Volume VIL, Number 40. Whole Number --- 352.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE. AN INDEPENDENT PARILY JOURNAL.

THE ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH.

BY E. L. BLANCHARD.

Away where the soulight is bright'uing, Away where its last beams expire, I spend with the flash of the lightning. Away obers its last beams expire.

I speed with the flash of the lightning.
If you the wings of the wire?

By me are earth's barriers riven.
By me are earth's barriers riven.
By me are its boundaries spread;
A word—and the impulse is given.
A touch—and the impulse is given.
A touch—and the impulse he given.
That Si-uses the winer, but done.
That Si-uses the winer, but done.
Through me nation speaks units nation,
Till all are united in one.

In siteme I steathfuly travel.

Unseen, and unread, and unheard;
For not till my agents unravel.

My secret, is whispered a word.

Through tarkness and daylight unhealing.

Alike on my errand I go.

To deep-throbbing hearts ever speeding.

My tidings of gladness or wo.

Ere the voice of the echo had spoken—
Ere thought could recoil from its birth—
If the links of my path were unbroken,
My flight would encompass the earth;
From the bright star that gleams far above m
Flashed onward through measurelins space,
A welcome from voices that love m,
My own in a second would truce.

Oh, would that some kindred communion.

To man we could hope to impart.

That a bond of such inneital union.

Might link every heart unto heart!

Not a tear that we now seek to smother.

Would then fall above or uncared,

Not a joy, but the heart of another.

Would thrill with the blies that it shared.

We need not, should Fate give denial,
This fanelful dream wholly spura;
Let sympathy touch but the dial,
A chord shall be struck in return.
No wish need be kept unimparted,
or lost as on selfshness thrown,
But e ich from the heart as it darted
Would find a response in our own.
Oh! let lave take the world and prepare it,

Asswift to respond as receive: Let us h ar but of sorrow to share it. And know but the want to relieve:

Words for the Heart.

THE DEATH OF MY BROTHES.

grance on the morning air, withered 'neath wife, or child, or relative. I am now one the sun's effulgent beams, and ere the "To whom nor relative nor blood remains,
No-not a kindred drop that runs in human dews of evening descend to refresh the world, is dead. O, well do I remember which he had dreamed. thee, my poor brother !

I taught him all I knew, yet could not teach him fast enough. The language of our own dear Columbia, the French, the heart-stirring Italian, thine, abused Poland, and those of Greece and Rome of ancient England States, varying in size from twendays, he was fluent in. Of our struggles ty to one hundred acres, upon which thouin the cause of liberty; of the great and sands of families not only live, but are Bruce, and, going further back in time, large families in comfort and prosperity. Tasso, Tycho Brahe, Solon, Thucydides, It is true, the children, for want of room and the immortal Homer; of all these to work, have to go to contriving, and it is things and men he knew, yet vied for me. this necessity that has filled the whole I had traveled in the scenes of triumph and country with Yankee contrivances of all defeat to Cæsar, Mark Antony, Cato, Sci- kinds, from a basswood pumpkin seed to a pio, and Hannibal, and into his greedy steam engine. ear did I pour forth my knowledge of them. One of the greatest crops of the diminu-With his pale face and bright eves he tive farms, is, that inventive genius which would look up into my face and say characterizes the whole nation. No Yan-"Dear brother, yet a little more—come." kee clock ever run with more regularity Come !-my dear brother; I killed thee than the whole of the operations connected! through my teachings, and shall come to with some of the small farmers. Look at thrust themselves into the lattice, and their of improvement. Away from the foot of the hill stretched a like gigantic steps up to the throne of God. moved upon her stem to Turn to her god as he set.

ing all day, and I thought the sweet and gentle breeze might refresh him. I knew he was happy, as he sat in his couch, with hand on Wednesday mornings at Lewisburg. his head resting on his hand, and his own

Union county, Penasylvania.

THE MS.—$1.50 per year, for each actually in advance; $1.50 if and within three months; $2.50 if and within three months; $2.50 if and paid before the year expires; 5 cents for any aumbers. Subscriptions for six months or less, to paid it advance. Discontinuances optional with the buildider, except when the year is paid up.

Advertisements bendsonelly inserted at 50 cents per jume, one work, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $5 a year; two squares, $1 for six months, $1 four works, $1 four works, $1 four works, $2 four wo winess to O. N. Wonnex, Publisher.
office on Market street, between Second and Third, over the Post-Office.

O. N. WORDEN, Proprietor.

Logic Levy Levy Control of the Proprietor. brooks that rippled o'er beds of gold, swam silvery scaled fish, that ever and anon leapt high in air. Troops of angelic cherubs sported on the daisy-covered sward, weaving chaplets for each other's brow. as you have done so often for me, my brother. I longed much to join them; and at last the sweetest of those cherubs tripped up to me and asked if I would come. 'Come,' said he, 'he sun is always shining here-no bitter blasts can here invade-come.' I then looked back to where I saw you standing looking for me, and to say adieu to him who has been my only brother in life, before I left for ever. I promised to that angel to return to-night, and I will go. Dear brother, do not ween." I looked out on the lawn,down on the trees, upon the river, the mountains, and on the now nearly set sunanywhere than at him, for my heart was full, and I knew that if he were to leave

> " Brother, dear," said he, and I started, sang before she died !

'I hear sweet anthems ringing. Bright faces fill the air; I hear sweet voices saying, 'There is no sorrow there."

And I now hear the same. My own dear brother, kiss me once again-now, another We will soon meet in those bright fields, and then you shall teach me."

Teach !- the word stung me to the heart. I placed his head close to my breast You ask me of my brother; he was the and drew back his clustering ringlets, that only thing of earth that I ever fondly, he might look upon the scenes he loved so truly leved. And who, knowing him, much. I looked down the slope upon the would not do the same? Though his river-smooth as a sheet of crystal-plasenior by years, we loved and lived as we cid as a mind at ease. My eyes wandered were twins. Not one moment's happiness up the mountain side, and the shadows are realized, we will be amply rewarded. P. M. We have few passengers aboardcould I enjoy without his light form be- lengthened as I gazed. I looked once eide me ; neither could be feel pleasure more at the setting sun-one moment it pale face : his brow so noble and intellect- soft sigh awoke me from my trance-my ual-the majesty of a god sat there; his name was whispered in accents soft and jet black hair smoothly parted o'er his sweet as from an Æolian lyre; I looked head, falling away in silken curls adown upon my brother-he was dead! that his brow and neck; his form, so nerial- loved voice was hushed, to speak no more like, seemed not for earth, but, like a sweet -the intellectual fire was fied. I was left and fragile flower, born to shed its fra- alone-alone in the wide world, without

> His soul is in that bright heaven of Is it true, that before death the world eternity opens to the view?

Small Farms.

There are thousands of farms in the New their cattle, horses, hogs, sheep, geese, But of his death, his early death, I would ducks, and chickens. There is an appearspeak. It happened in the autumn, when ance of unmistakable thrift about everythe flowers begin to droop their heads, and thing animate and inanimate, upon some the trees their leaves, and on God's boly of these places. It is true, many of the day, the Sabbath. Ours was a beautiful occupants work with the same old-fashion cottage, on the face of a gently sloping tools their fathers did, and follow all the hill. The woodbine twined its wanton same time-honored practices; but the next foliage around our low roofed porch; roses generation will be more alive to the spirit magnificent river, whose source was at a singular incident which happened in the mountain toll.gate, with many good wishes water mark. in the shade, in order that we might enjoy shown as yet no ill effects from the ex- Post Master at San Francisco. the magnificent landscape that lay posure. It is wonderful how two such Friday, March 6. Left Summit about short stay.

They Say that Thou art Poor.

They say that then art poor, Louise; And so I know thou art; But what is wealth to noble minds, Or riches to the heart? With all the wealth of India's mines With all the wealth of India's mines
Can one great deed be bought?
Or can a kingdom's ransom bring
One pure and holy thought?
No, vain your boasted treasure,
The carth to gold is given,
Gold can not stretch to measure
The nove bestowed by heaven

They say that thou art poor, Louise;
And so I know thou art;
But why should lack of sortid pelf
Thrust thee and me apart?
The pearls that sparkle on the lawn
Our jewels bright shall be;
The gold that frets the early dawn
Shall fill our treasury!
Ask ye the proudest minion
Whom gold gives rule o'er earth,
both not our broad Desminion
Outbeggar all he's worth?

We'll rove beside the brook of eve, When birds their vester song Of gentle truth and guileless love To woods and winds prolong; And from the morning spewied cup Such healthful draughts we'll lave As never met the forered lips Of fortune's gilded slave. Could Lyding Crossus, dearest, As wide a kingdom see

As the fair realm thou hearest
Belongs to thes and me?

I know that thou art poor, Louise;
And so indeed am 1;
But not the hoards of occan's caves
Our poverty could buy;
For wealth beyond the miser's thought
We both silke control—
The treasure of a priceless love,
The riches of the soul;
Then at this hour divine, love,
To holy school solves.

To holy echoes given: Let thy true wors and mine, love, Be registered in Heaven! ORIGINAL NARRATIVE.

Notes of a Seven Months' Journey VIA FORT SMITH, SANTA FE, GILA RIVER, AND THE TULE LAKES.

From the Private Journal kept by WM. H. CHAMBERLIN, or Lawisters, Pa.

1849-Monday, Feb. 26. We left Lewme, there was none living in the land who isburg this morning about 8 o'clock, with arrived this morning with our wagons and do you recollect the song poor Lucy hold near and dear on earth, especially when venny, to the mouth of the Arkansas River, forts, our friends, and the many social ties lous to be off. that have heretofore bound us to society. Tuesday, March 6 .- After putting our Green, D. Howard, John Musser, S. F. besides several other acquaintances. Schaffle, Cyrus Fox, and myself. If but a Wednesday, March 7.—Engaged pur small portion of all the good wishes of our chasing india rubber goods, &c. Our bont

I regret very much, but if I live, will make gold.

Passed several furnaces and forges on boat, &c.

below and beyond, and of which he was little children could pass a winter's night 6 o'clock, entered Cambria county this afe passionate lover. He had been languish upon the frozen ground without perishing termoon. Passed through Ebensburg—the mouth. It has a business-like appearance contented with their lot, which is a bless- am told the soil is rather light. There is heavy. Reached Blairsville at 12 o'clock, fog obliged us to come to anchor. we reached Pittsburg in the morning.

ing around from the numerous Iron works Cincinnati at 4 o'clock, P. M.

Monday, March 5 .- Kelly and Herbst spirits as buoyant as could be expected, af- baggage. We engaged passage on board ter parting with our friends and all we the steamhoat "Winfield Scott," Capt. Dehazzardous journey before us. No doubt wagons. The boat is new, and runs her we will soon experience the loss we have first trip down the river. Rained all day, sustained in leaving home, with all its com- the Ohio River rising, we are all very anx-

But the love of adventure and pros- wagons aboard, Kelly and Herbst started pect of reward have overcome all for home. Purchasing tools cooking utenhome feelings," and to day finds us sils, clothing, &c. Commenced boarding on our way towards the great point of at- on the boat this morning. Met T. Sargeant traction. Our company consists of R. B. formerly of Lewisburg, and Mr. Hoons, friends (I hope we have left no enemies) left the Pittsburg landing about 6 o'clock, Three weeks ago, I had not the slightest The cabins are elegantly furnished, and been obliged to take an inventory, settle up The bar is well fitted up, where the choicmy business, and make preparation for est liquors and cigars are dealt out. We the journey, being busily engaged up to purchased an "Airometer" to-day, of the the moment of departure. I did not have inventor, Mr. Aiken, for the purpose of the pleasure of seeing all my triends, which weighing, and ascertaining the value of up for all deficiencies on my return. I was Thursday, March 8 .- Came to at M'. advised to go by some, by others (the great Farlin's Warehouse, in sight of Steuben bition is doomed never to realize when he wharf at Memphis, and listen to their peter number) to stay at home, but my mind ville, Ohio, and took aboard 1500 bbls. of arrives at that important period. As time culiar lingo, was a rare treat for me. Corn was made up. Stayed at Musser's, Millheim. flour. Occupied the greater part of the glides along, and he passes from childhood has been already planted in this part of the Tuesday, Feb. 27. After seeing the day. The Telegraph wires cross the riv- to youth, his aspirations weaken, and confriends that accommpanied us safe on their er at this place. The river being high, tinue to grow fainter during his rise from bloom. of home, we started on our way westward, the pipes of the steamboat Messenger on youth to manhood. He is not sensible of Saturday, March 17.-Left Memphis Raining, which makes traveling very un- her way up, came in contact, and broke the change, and all the fond imaginations vesterday evening, and arrived at Napolepleasant. Arrived at Steever's inn about one of the lines. We have Ohio on our right of his bright and joyous days are forgotten on, at the mouth of the Arkansas, this every dark, and sat down to an excellent supper and Virginia on our left hand. The scen- or give place to other thoughts and feelings. This place consists of several old of ham, eggs, &c., to which we did ample ery on either shore is very fine: at times This has certainly been my experience. steambonts converted into storehouses, rich tracts of cultivated country, stretching Little did I think, years ago, when I "wished hotels, &c., and two or three " stray Wednesday, Feb. 28. Entered Hun- away as far as the eve can reach, on eith- myself a man," that this day would find buildings." We stowed our traps, and tingdon county shortly after leaving Stor- er hand, and again nothing but bold, harren me in my present situation, with the pres. took lodgings in one of these wretched virtuous Washington; of Wallace, and well-to-do in the world, and have reared ver's. The mud very deep, and almost hills presenting themselves. Landed at ent object in view.—But I am off my subimpassable, until we reached the Turnpike, Steubenville this evening. It being the ject. The country on both sides of the within 7 miles of Water Street. The win- Captain's place of residence, our cabin was river is flat, the banks full, and overflowing success to her and all aboard. This ab-

Spruce creek, and a great number are in Friday, March 9.—Dropped down the squalid appearance, wretched cabins, sunk operation in the vicinity. Although this river a few miles this morning, and took in the sand and mud, surrounded with victuals were almost disgusting. hilly country is not so well adapted to ag. in 750 bbls. flour. In the meantime some drifts, destitute of outhouses. Evansville, riculture as other partions of the State, it of us went ashore and amused ourselves in the distance looks like a smart place, and fully makes up in mineral wealth. The by firing at a target. I made the best shot, is the largest town in Indiana. trade, and has quite a business-like appea. in one of these boats, is almost incredible. place, almost inundated at present. The barber, and after being washed, shaved, prising spirit of her citizens, are destined we saw the first canebrakes; they are upon a sand bar, which saved us from beland changed, we felt somewhat relieved, to make Cincinnatione of the first inland beautiful, being ever-green. Walked out to take a look at the "Iron cities in the world. Here we purchased Friday, March 16 -A delightful morn- geese, we supposed they were sorely pelled. City." Can not say that I was much pleas provisions for our overland journey-basing. Passed a number of cotton plantations, After the storm subsided we cleared the sed with its general appearance, every- con, ham, dried beef, flour, corn-meal, with a row of negro huts near the mansion sand-bar, and arrived at Little Rock about thing the eye rests upon having a dark, hard bread, beans, rice, coffee, sugar, tea, houses; some of them looked very comfordingy appearance, caused by the dust fall- saleratus, salt, pepper, chocolate, &c. Left table. Landed at Memphis about noon- tal of the State, contains from 4 to 5000 of early spring.

ter grain looks bad, being severely frozen. soon filled with visiters, admiring the new in some places. The settlements along the ject looking place ill deserves the lofty until 10 o'clock. Waiked about 8 miles in Lewisburg. Mr. Schmidt performed his ters of the Mississippi are more turbulent, ble order, and the water is more turbid than fragrance filled de ar Charlie's room.

The Babes in The Woods.—A corresting which whetted our appetites part on the guitar, admirably. The river very crooked, cut up by islands, and runpondent of the Boston Transcript narrates for a lunch, which we partook of, at the is now very full, being 25 feet above low ning in different channels. Its banks are clining to the red. The banks are lined low, and overflowing in many places at with cypress, cottonwood and canebrake. the setting sun. Away, still further bevand, were piled meaning and many still further bevand, were piled meaning and yond, were piled mountains, tier upon tier. Two little children, one five and the other sight had provided us with brend, ham, 8 o'clock; stopped at Marietta this afterthree years of age, strayed from home. &c. If we had our wagons upon runners noon. This is the oldest town in the State These regular varieties in size are caused is very strong, but we are making good The sun had not yet sunk, but was fast Not returning at dark, a general search we could get along with less labor to the of Qhio, and a handsome place, resembling I suppose by the formation of new banks, time. Arrived at Pine-Bluffs about 2, P.M. hastening to his goal in the West. Each throughout the night was made by the peo- teams, there being several inches snow upthree, each plant and flower stood motionless in lexuriant rays of gold; the sunflower moved upon her stem to.

throughout the night was made by the peotents, there being several inches snow upon the stem to be the night was made by the peotents of several inches snow upon the stem to be the night was made by the peotents. There is a land the deposits of seed, as the river change upon a high bluff overlooking the surrounding the surrounding the surrounding the surrounding throughout the night was made by the peotents. There is a land the deposits of seed, as the river change upon a high bluff overlooking the surrounding the surrounding throughout the night was made by the peotents. There is a land the deposits of seed, as the river change upon a high bluff overlooking the surrounding throughout the night was made by the peotents. There is a land the deposits of seed, as the river change upon a high bluff overlooking the surrounding throughout the night was made by the peotents. There is a land the deposits of seed, as the river change upon a high bluff overlooking the surrounding through the surfock of the surfock in the surfock of the surfock lying upon the frozen ground, and locked stop for the night, having traveled but 10 filled with human skeletons. It is not that has the shape of a habitation, but gen- (growing.) which is the first we have met in each others' arms, one sleeping soundly, iniles to-day. Col. J. W. Geary, a resi-known whether it was an Indian burial erally so small and wretched looking (sur-We had drawn poor Charlie's couch out and the other awake. Although the night dent of this place, or the work of an antediluvian race; surrounded by water when the river is up) deceived in the general appearance of the on the sweet fresh grass before the porch, was a severe one, the little ones have short time since, with the commission of the former is the general supposition. Several of us visited this curiosity during our how human beings can content themselves the Mississippi, the banks became higher, settled. Rain and sleet fell during the Very little respect is paid to the Sabbath, do not enjoy. They procure the necessal opposite side is low land, and the formation whole day, which made our journeying in places situated on these western thor- ries of life by furnishing steamboats with changes sides alternately. Cotton and very unpleasant. Stopped at Armagh. oughfares. Spent the day in reading, not wood, and occasionally we see a garden corn are the staple crops of this country, Saturday, March 3. Snow fell during forgetting a few chapters in the Book of patch or a small lot fenced in and planted It is said to be very healthy here, and is the night, and this morning it is several books. Weather warm and sultry, with It appears to be the highest ambition to live certainly a great opening for emigrants. inches deep. Our wagons draw very thunder showers, this evening. The dense "from hand to mouth" as it is called, and We amused ourselves to day by firing at had a check, and concluded to take stage Monday, March 12 -Arrived at Cin- their constant enemy. Like Daniel Boone, made but few successful shots. The acfor Pitisburg, with our heavy trunks-10 cinnati, about 7 o'clock, A. M. The fog they think that when a person settles with commodations on board are very indifferpassengers in all. Got along pretty well was so dense that we could see nothing of in twenty miles of them, they are getting ent and the fare horrid; all the meats apuntil within 13 miles of Pittsburg, when we the surrounding country, which is said to 'too neighborly,' and wish to encroach up. pear to have been in a putrid state before stuck in the mud, about midnight, but by present a beautiful appearance, being under on their rights. I can not envy the condi- cooking. Complaint was made by the pas-"putting our shoulders to the wheels," we a high state of cultivation, and abounding tion of the poor squatter, on the lonely sengers, (and we afterwards had the satissucceeded in getting along at the rate of in vineyards, fruit-gardens, &c.; but after banks of the Mississippi. I would prefer faction of eating some of our own provisthe mi'es in five hours-walked all the the fog broke away we had a fine view of a log-cabin, with a dog and gun, amongst ion, not knowing it at the time) way, and were pretty well exhausted when the business portion of the "Queen City." the wildest mountains of old Pennsylvania. Tuesday, March 20 .- A waked this mor-In population and substantial wealth it is, I am no admirer of flat or prairie country; ning by a violent storm. It came on about Sunday, March 4. At 6, A.M., put up perhaps, increasing faster than any city in I imagine it will be severe on the eyes, 2 o'clock, accompanied by thunder and at the Exchange Hotel, our clothes liter- the Union, and its vast resources and com- when the sight is unobstructed by forests, lightning and high winds. Hail fell about ally mud from head to foot; called on a mercial facilities, together with the enter- or blue mountains in the distance. To day the size of an egg. The boat was blown which are constantly belching forth fire Tuesday, March 13.—Some new pas- town is situated upon a bluff, and has conand smoke, yet the traveler can not but sengers abourd; the evening agreeably siderable trade, principally in cotton. It (these are the first rocks we have seen notice the bustle and din of business in this spent, reading, music, anecdotes, &c. The is said there are fifty cases of Cholera in since leaving the Ohio River.) It is a great manufacturing town. The West porter on this boat is four feet high and as town. We lay here half a day, discharg well built, healthy, and pleasant place. and South are the markets for her products. broad as long. We have dubbed him ing freight. The U.S. Navy Yard, at The government buildings are substantial-Thousands of laboring men find employ. "Gen. Taylor," and have a great deal of this place, is under way, and is a very ly and handsomely situated. There are a ment in these establishments, and make a sport at his expense. Peing an endless heavy contract. About 200 Californians comfortable livelihood for themselves and loker himself, he stands as butt for all who may aim at him. Arrived at Louisville the South, making preparations for start. ned with a great deal of taste, and the inthis morning, just as we turned out of our ing. The half of the population of Mem. habitants are generally of the best class of berths. It makes a fine appearance from phis, is slaves. We saw some specimens the river, and does not deceive its looks. of the traffic to-day. An Arkansus law-I was better pleased with Louisville than yer, purchased a little girl and brought any of the western towns we have passed her on board. She was literally torn from we take into consideration the long and at $10 spiece and $7 freight for our two through. Here we made our last purchases the arms of her mother, and their mingled of overland equipments, including a few cries were truly distressing. Another trinkets, beads, rings, vermillion, &c., to case was of two little brothers : the purbarter with the Indians. Goods of all chaser was taking them to Red River. sinds command a good per centage here, Lousiana; they too, had been taken from judging from the rates we paid for some their parents, and looked and no doubt articles. Left Louisville about 10 o'clock, felt as though, they had buried father and A. M., passing through the Falls, but the mother. Another was a planter, who river being so full, we scarcely noticed told me he had run short of change, and to arrived at Lewisburg this morning. It is them, although entirely impassable in times replenish his purse, he selected one of his an insignificant looking place; has nothing of low water. Passed Shippensport, Ky., and New Albany and Troy, Indiana. The twenty-three years of age, and was taking appearance of the country on both sides of him to the New Orleans market. He was rived at Ozark City, 10 o'clock, A. M. the river would warrant a productive soil. in chains; his master said it was because From the appearances of the place, the To day I notice trees coming out in leaf, he refused to go, or in other words, as I founders' expectations could never have trogs singing, and all nature wears the as. learned from the slave himself, to be torn been realized. The Ozark chain, that cross away from his wife whom he loved, and the State here, gives the country a more Wednesday, March 14 .- A clear and had been married to about four months. I beautiful morning, and a cloudless sky, did not wonder at his refusing to go. But the river is becoming very rapid and diffiwelcomed in this my 21st birth-day. With more happy and contented beings than what fond anticipations does the child look slaves do not exist, when well treated and dark. This was published a rendezvous what fond anticipations does the child look properly clothed. No matter how hard for emigrants. We had thought of stopping forward to that eventful day that shall make properly clothed. No matter how hard here, but concluded to go on to Fort Smith. him a "man." He forms plans and builds the labor, they are continually singing, five miles ahead, where we arrived, 8 o's "castles in the air" which his restless am. jesting, &c. To sit an hour or two on the > banks, for some time have presented a most name it bears. Everything about our boarding house appeared filthy, and the Sunday, March 18 .- There being about forty Californians here, awaiting a passage to Fort Smith, I was obliged to sleep on scenery is romantic and beautiful, especi- and my rifle proved herself a first-rate Thursday, March 15.—Using the river the floor last night. Caught a cat-fish ally along the banks of the Juniata river, shooter. Reached Wheeling this evening, water has given some of us accustomed to The Central Railroad Company have com- Before we arrived, a young man, said to limestone water a severe diarrhoa. Ma- a feat; he was a monster, weighing 45 lbs. menced tunneling the mountain at the be of respectable family, had a violent fit my feared it was the Cholera, which is premouth of Spruce creek. Dined at Water of "mania potu." He had been drinking vailing to some extent in this country, but here, on their way to St. Louis to dis-Street, and arrived at Hollidaysburg, for some days, and was in great distress; we soon found out to the contrary, much pose of their furs. They are in canoes, 6 o'clock this evening. This place, but he recovered so as to go on shore when to our satisfaction. Landed at Cairo, situ. and are very poor. They remind me of situated at the connection of the Canal and we landed. Took aboard 500 bbls. flour ated at the junction afthe Ohio and Missis. the "last run of shad." About 3 o'clock Railroad, commands a large portion of at this place. The amount stowed away sippi rivers. It is a poor, distressed looking this afternoon, we started up the Arkansas, Mr.M'Donald and myself went to a concert characteristics of these two rivers differ propeller, which we engaged to go through Thursday, March 1. One of our wag. by the "Eddy Family." They have imons being out of repair, we did not leave proved very much since I heard them sing continued broad, smooth stream, the wa. per wagon. The river is in good navigain such an isolated, and apparently miser- well timbered, and an apparently finer loo-

country very rough on all sides, and thinly | -windows shut, and doors open for trade. ing many in far more enviable situations a bluff on one side of the river, while the wrestle with the fever-and-ague, which is ducks and geese off the deck of the boat ; > ing capsized. By the screams of the wild weather almost insupportably warm. The inhabitants. It is situated upon a high number of fine private residences in town. society. A short distance above Little Rock, we met with the first mountains since leaving the Ohio, and they are but hills compared with those of Pennsylvania. We have passengers aboard, bound for California, from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Lousiana, Arkansas, South Carolina, and other of the Southern States. They are generally young and hardy loo-

Wednesday, March 21 - Another violent storm last night : rain fell in torrents. We cult to ascend. Reached Van Buren about for emigrants. We had thought of stopping clock, P. M. The boat immediately discharged her passengers and freight, and ned the cause of our change of fare aboard the boat. But she was off, leaving us to the necessity of lying on the bank all night to protect our baggage. This was our first nights experience in "camping out."

village, situated on the cast or Arkansas side of the river, containing about 1000 inhabitants,made up of people from all parts of the States, slaves and Indians included. It is an Indian trading station, and every day they come to town in numbers, bringing furs, marketing, &c., to exchange for the necessaries of life. There are a number of Government troops quartered here, and the Fort and out-buildings are brick. adding greatly to the appearance of the town. The Government buildings are eaclosed by a heavy stone wall.

To be continued 1

At auction, Charleston, Dec 3, by Z D. Oakes, the slaves belonging to the estate of the late Wm. Brockelbank brought the following handsome prices:

Cato, 28 years old, a plasterer. Sam. 30 years old. 1805 Isauc, 24 years old, " 1775 Paris, 24 years old. Noble, 20 years old, " Minnis, 24 years old, a laborer, Hardtimes, 20 years old, It would seem from this that fanaticism at the North has not reduced the value of

A cabman in Buffalo, N. Y., who beat a assenger for not paving $5 for conveyng him a short distance and afterwards compelling him with the aid of another person, to pay $5 additional, has been convicted of highway robbery, and sentenced for ten years to the State Prison.

slaves at the South.

It is said that in 1853, when the next Presidential term begins, Mr. Clay will be seventy-six, Daniel Webster seventy-one, and Gen. Scott sixty-nine. Mr. Buchanan