The Voter ... a Fact.

Ten years sgo, Or so,
In old Connecticut, there lived
And thrived And thrived

A lean spothecary, with a shop in which

He and his isther both got rich.

This establishment, reside the cases,

Contained a leaf of the cases,

Contained a boy to deal out pills, Prescriptive cures for all the 'ills That flesh is heir to ;" Oil from the bear, too, To beautify the hair too, And up from the center of the shop

Did pop In sultry summer days, the sods,

Which ceased to flow no day. Attached to this extensive druggery, was a black Man, a sort of back, Whose duty 'twas to carry prescriptions To the sick, with verbal descriptions, Now Sambo could not read, Though he could bleed; Nor write, forsooth. Though he could pull a tooth ;

Sambo was a freeman, and had money, Which made him voter in that land of honey. One 'lection day, a vote, That some one wrote, Sambo secured, and, for a safe place

To keep it, laid it in a big glass case, So that, when the time came To name His choice of officers to serve that year,

No fear ! He could march boldly to the polls, And haul oppressive tyrants o'er the coals! Now the boy

Whose right employ Was to manufacture the pills And squills, Took (from a sort of druggist's Babel) A written label, And laid it where Sambo had pieced his vote with so much care. Town meeting day arrived, (that day so noted

Through Yankee land.) and Sambo early voted The Inspectors made their count

To this amount, And thus they did declare

It there:
" For the Whig candidate, there doth appear Majority of ten,

One scattering vote for William Carter, And also one for ' CREAM or TARTAR!"

Muffs and Magnetism.

In the 'O'd Keystone State,' it late happened that a demure little Quakeress, who John Davis." concealed in her meek blue eyes a world of fun and mischief, had two ardent lovers upon neither of whom she had consented to bestow her hand and heart. A sleighing party was projected in the village, and the two rivals contrived to procure their seats, one on each side of the coquettish little Quakeress. The lady was provided with a most capacious muff, "whereby hangs a tale." Confidential conversation must of course have been rather limited under the circumstances, and it occurred to one of believer in magnetism.) that if he could contrive to put himself in "rapport," or "spiritual" communication with his fair friend, by his hand in her muff, he should the community that every have a decided advantage over his rival. As his hand timidly approached the mulf that enveloped the delicate digitals of the Quakeress, it trembled as if under the effects of gal-vanism. There was at first some preliminary toying, and scarcely perceptible approaches, then an almost indistinguishable pressure, and finally a tremendous squeeze! The perfect beatitude of our hero, we shall not attempt to describe; suffice it to say, that his whole soul was glowing in the tips of his fingers, and there holding blissful communion with the spirit of the sweet little Quakeress. But, happiness is proverbially brief; and the little | celebrated article for coughs, colds, &c. Quakeress put a sudden extinguisher upon on hand and for sale by our heroes' new-born hopes, by saying, while her soft blue eyes sparkled with mischiel, "triends, if thee have each squee- lot of all kinds of Perfumery for the zed the other's hand long enough, I will tone t&:, andfor sale by trouble you for the use of my muff." Read AND BE CONVENCED .- The Han, Che D Hincline, editor of the Camden Democrat the hest paper in West Jersey, says, July 21st-HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have not many fastering notices of this medicine, and the sour whence they eams induced us to make inquiries repeting its merits. From inquiry we were permaded to use itself must say we found it specific in its action upon discuss of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influent it exerts upon nervous prostruction is really surprising it causes and strengthens the merves, beinging them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine were more generally used we are astricted there would be less acknown as the sense. ished there would be less sickness, as from the stemach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases smainate. Have then in a healthy outliftion, and you can hid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would arise our friends who are at all indisposed to give a trial—it will then recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of meri.

From the Boston Bee—editorial, they 274—

These litters have been used to thousands, and a friend at our eibou says he has himself received from the use of this remedy an effectual sense ment cure of Liver Complaint. We are consinced than in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gain strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great constantly gain strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great considerate. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used to persons with the most deliente stomachs, with salvi under any circumstances. We are speaking from experence, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

Scott's Weekly, one of the best literary papers published, said, Aug 25th—Dr. Hooraxon's Gravia Brives, manufactured by Dr. Hooraxon's Gravias Brives, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the Family, as an article of much efficacy in cases of famile weakness. As such is the case, we would advice all methers to chean a bettle, and thus was them.

save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitate estitutions will find these fitters are an approached the salutary eff-ty have upon weak systems. Judge M.M. Noan, a gentleman of great scien tific and literary attainments, said in his "NewYork Weekly Messenger, Jan 6, 1850-Weekly Measurer, Jan 6, 1850—

De. Hoodered's German Bitters.—Here is a preparation which the leading presses of the Union appear ananimes in recommending presses of the Union appear ananimes in recommending and the reason is obvious. It is mosafler a prescription furnished by one of the most colectual physicians of modern times—the late Dr. Christophe Wilhelm Hoofland, Professor to the University of Jens. Private Physician to the King of Prussia, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphastically the enemy of harmoning, and therefore medicine of which he was the inventor and endorser my be confidently relied on. He specially recommended in the Stomach. Constitution, and all complaints arising the Intention. Nine Philadelphia papers express their conviction of its excellence, and several of their Editor speak of its effects from their own individual expriser. Under these circumstances, we feel warranted, not only in calling the attention of our readers to the pressiproprietor (Dr. C. M. Jackson's) preparation, but in recommending the article to all afflicted.
