The remarkable cures of diseases of the Lungs which have been realized by its use, attested as they are by many prominent professors and physicians in this and foreign lands, should encourage the affilted to persevere with the strong assurance that the use of the "Cherry Pectoral" will relieve and uttimately cure them. Legislature to Baltimore, at one of the feastings, Gen. Wm. F. Packer was called out in a speech, from which we extract the following:

Baltimorears, do you know this lact, that a railroad to Elmira brings the Lake nearer to Bultimore by therty miles—that they are nearer to Philadelphia by some ten miles, than either to New York or Boston? We know that Baltimore desires to extend her roads through Pennsylvania; our Legislature has retarded her; but a new feeling is abroad in our State. Pennsylvania must unite with Maryland, and Maryland with Pennsylvania—Philadelphia with Baltimore, and Baltimore with this with Baltimore, and Baltimore with Philadelphia. The Lake trade in 1848, was $186,060,000; and yet Pennsylvania and Maryland have never made an improvement to reach those Lakes. Pennsylvania and Maryland should unite with an effort to secure this great murt of trade, and present to the public unsoluting index and surface with a severe and relentless cough, which reduced her very low; so low that little hope could be entired without effect, before the Cherry Pectoral, and that cured her ecovery.
