This would freely be granted, were the financial condition of the State such as to justify the Commonwealth in fannching as of old on the shoreless sea of blind expenditure.

The benefits of the road-the efforts of the citizens-their failure-the importance of the trade of that rich valley-were all very forcibly presented by Mr. Slifer, of Union, who was indefatigable in his endeavors to secure its success. But the flouse could not agree-and were right in rejecting it-they were right in acting as they did-to commence a system of internal improvement, such as once entrapped and well nigh ruined the State.

Carlisle, March 12, 1851,-The most extensive and destructive fire which has ever occurred in our borough, took place this morning between 12 and J o'clock. It originated in the stable attached to Sevll's Hotel, and it soon spread to the adjoining no less than 14 dwelling houses and the Lutheran Church were entirely consumed. Several horses and cows perished in the flames. The loss is estimated at $50,000, only about $8,000 being secured by insurance. The fire was got under at 4 o'clock this morning. "The Hillotype" is the name a new invention, whereby colors are copied as perfectly as light and shade are by the Daguerotype process. The inventor, Levi L. Hill, a Baptist clergyman, near Cattskill, N. Y., was obliged by ill health to give uppreaching, and turning his attention to the daguerrian art, made a chemical discovery producing the above result, after two years' experimenting. He has been offered $20,000 for half the patent, but prefers a special patent, and to communicate the secret all daguerrian artists.

Winchester, Va., March 15.—The Methodist Conference Committee on Dickinson College have reported a series of resolutions, expressing undiminished confidence in the ability of the President and Faculty, and a determination to pay all debts and erect the new building—for which $15,000 are required. Maryland undertakes one-half of this sum, and Phila delphia and New Jersey are expected to provide the remainder. The Confer.
