of yourself, you nasty hound pup? and I am just now going to give you your bitters, you infernal mean reptile you."

In the mean time I leaned a little forward to catch a glimpse of his antagonist, but, tho' the coast was comparatively clear, I could see no human face, save that of the speaker, and I was very sure that he did not mean his horse, for he took an opposite direction. I had small time, however, for reflection, for his speech waxed warmer, he stepped a little forward, and aimed a sort of a back-handed blow, which descended with a keen sound, and considerable force on-his own back.

"There, you infernal devil, take that, and that, (shrow, shrow, the switch desconded.) That's for your monumery Lorry Jenkins. Now, sir, what are you going to tell your wife when you go home, about Br. Bedinoff (Gramm Bilters-Here is a preparation which the leading presses of the Union appear unanimous in recommending, and the reason is obvious. It is made after a prescription farmished by one of the most celebrated physicians, of modern times—the late Dr. Christopher after a prescription hirmsteed by one of the most celebrated physicians of medera times-the late Dr. Christopher Wilhelm Hoofland, Probaser to the University of Jens, Private Physician to the King of Prussia, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically the enemy of heading, and therefore a medicine of which he was the inventor and endorser may be confidently relied on. He specially recommended it in Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Debility, Vertige, Achility of the Stomach, Constitution, and all complaints arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, the Liver and the Intestines. Nine Philadelphia papers express their conviction of its excellence, and several of their Editors speak of its effects from their own individual experience. Under these circumstances, we feel warranted, not only in calling the attention of our readers to the present proprietor (Dr. C. M. Jackson's) preparation, but in rec-ommending the attention of all affleted.
