H. C. HICKOK. Editor. O. N. WORDEN, Printer.

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1851.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

gets neatness, and a nice school room is will take it full pay for the paint and the child, filled the house with her lamenta- final verdict is rendered at the polls better treated by the slovenly than a neg. Bible." "I can't make one good enough tions; medical aid was at hand. I would Union Times. AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY JOURNAL. Issued on Wednesday mornings at Lewisburg, Union county, Pennsylvania. lected one. The teacher thus introduced for you," said Freddy bashfully. " That have died for my Lily ; 1 besought the one thing after another, taking care not to is my look out," said the man, "so carry Almighty; I-" he bowed his head-"I

TERMS.-$1.50 per year, for each actually in advance; $1.55, if paid within three months: $2.00 if paid within a year; $2.50 if not paid before the year expires; 5 could for single numbers. Subscriptions for six months or less, to be paid in advance. Discontinuances optional with the Publisher, except when the year is paid up. Advertisements handsomely inserted at 50 cents per

Publisher, except when the year is paid up. Advertisements handsomely inserted at 50 cents per sparse, one week, 31 four weeks, 55 a year: two squares, 21 for six menths, 57 for a year. Mercanitie advertise-ments, not exceeding one fourth of a column, 310. 101 WORK and casual advertisements to be paid for when handed in or delivered. Communications solicited on all subjects of general interest not within the range of party or sectarian contect. All letters must come pest-paid, accompanied by the real a dress of the writer, to receive attention. gen. Those relating exclusively to the Editorial Department, to be dressed to 0. N. Woltners, Pathwar. business to O. N. WORDEN, Publisher, Office on Market street, between Second and Third, over the Post-Office, O. N. WORDEN, Proprietor,

The Bible.

BT WILLIAM LEGENTT. This little book I'd rather own, Than all the gold and gems That efer in monarch's coffers shone-Than all their diadems. Nay, were the seas one chrysolite,

The earth a golden ball, And diamonds all the stars of night, This book were worth them all.

How baleful to ambition's eve How balleful to ambition s eye His blood-wrongad spoils must gleam: When deeth's uplifted hand is nigh, His life a vanished dream ! Then hear him with his grasping breath For one poor moment crave ! Fool ! wouldst thou stay the arm of death ? Ask for the gold to save !

No. no ! the soul ne'er found relief

In glittering hoards of wealth; Gems dazzle not the eye of grief, Gold can not purchase health; But here a blessed balm appears, To heal the deepest woe ; And ne that seeks this book in tears, His tears shall cease to flow

Here he who died on Calvary's tree, Hath made that promise blest "Ye heavy laden, come to me, And I will give you rest, A bruised reed I will not break,

A contrite heart despise ; My burden's light, and all who take My yoke, shall win the skies."

Yes, yes, this little book is worth All else to mortals given ; For what are all the joys of earth, Compared to joys in Heaven ? This is the guide our Father gave To lead to resime of day-A star whose buste gilds the grave-"The light-the life-the way."

THE DOOR SCRAPER. Or, the Influence of School on Home.

selection of teachers ; and if their morals and the cooking utensils began to look ill, child. are good, and their acquaintance with the standing around the stone. Mr. Gerrish, It may seem strange, but the first time curse. If the latter, it would be one of the table to them; and, above all, with a view get on too fast, and although he had no home the paint, and come when you can dared him to summon my idol; I was wild: penalty for a breach of the rules of neat- and make the sciaper." Freddy went I was mad-mad. ness, he introduced a public sentiment home ; and when his mother saw him "Consciousness was restored ; but the which restrained the pupils more effectu- with a book under one arm, and both hands mind was stricken ; it had folded its wings ally than the rod ; and as his own exam- holding on to the paint dot, she exclaimed, when the fire bolt seathed their brightness, ple was always made to second his rules, "Why, Freddy, what have you done ?" I and it has never soared since." the children found no great hardship or only told you to ask the price of the paint." "But we love her even more dearly, injustice in them.

LEWISBURG

about eight years old, named Freddy Gar- me all these if I will make him a scraper a more intense devotion ; it would be rish, whose parents were poor and cared at his door, and I am going to do it."

bread enough to eat from day to day, at the school door was the making of Mr. crushed Lily !" Freddy was the oldest of five children, and Gerrish and his family. The entire change I stole one glance more at the childwhen not at school he was generally mind- of habits introduced into their humble she was asleep. The noble father bore her ful, and who have not habituated theming his little brothers and sisters, as the dwelling, not only led to neatness and in his arms, and laid her upon a rich velvet Irish term what we call tending or taking order, but to thrift and comfort. The couch ; then, as the threads of gold fell in care of them.

he found an iron hoop, and before night acts for the family. Freddy obtained in fringed the dark drapery, he sighed heavhe had a scraper before the only door of excellent education, and has since ily, and turning, left the apartment with as tending most surely to ruin. I know of the house. It so happened that, when his become an intelligent and wealthy far- hurried tread. father came home, his boots were covered mer ; and when he built his new house, "Truly a crushed Lily," whispered I, with beg mud, and almost for the first he carefully placed the old scraper by the as I bent over and touched my lips to the after nightfall. It is ruinous to their motime in his life, he looked around for side of the door, as if it were a talisman. crimson petals of her sweet mouth something to clean them. The seraper Master Hall taught from district to district, Dear little angel, she is in heaven now, that Freddy had placed there was just the and being of a slender constitution, his and the broad domains of her father have mind; bad, vulgar, immoral, and profane thing, and the little fellow was praised for health early failed, and he was quietly laid fallen into the possession of distant kindhis ingenuity. Soon after a sheep was in the churchward of a retired village, un-red. killed by a dog in the field near Mr. Ger- conscious that the seed he had sown had rish's house, and as no one cared for it, had ever produced any fruit like that we the entry. This was done to please Fred- School Journal. dy, and the baby was allowed to sit on it until father came home. The effect of Freddy's attempt at reform was soon felt, and his mother was no longer heard to say, common branches of study respectable, who was a good farmer, changed work with I beheld this lovely creature, (and never heaviest calamities that could befall the of their security from future destruction, bloy them without much regard to the a carpenter, and had a neat set of shelves before saw I aught so beautiful.) I shud- body politie. questions whether they were courteous- made with a cupboard under them. One dered with an undefinable feeling of terror. Political preferences are refined and gentlemanly in their be- day after she had scoured the floor, Mrs. A something vague, indistinct, mystical, ert an influence to a greater or less extent. gard the moral sense of shame, as to openhavior, and industrious and upright. Now, Gerrish said to herself, "I wonder if I enthralled me, and while I gazed upon the But the essential merits of this whole sub- Iy violate the Sabbath day, in street passwhat the teacher is, in this respect, the can not paint this floor well enough for little creature like one fascinated, I felt it ject rise so far above all mere partizan in- times, during its day or evening hours. pupils will generally be ; and, unless they poor people, for though a white floor looks could not be a being of carth, I knew it terests, and are so intimately connected see better patterns at home, the standard well, it is easier to clean a painted one." was not a being of heaven. of the teacher will be theirs also. If they Freddy was dispatched to the coachmaker's She was very slight and fairy like, and nity, in all the relations of life, and are we see the teacher addicted to any habit, they to ask what some suitable paint would her hair absolutely hung about her delicate think so thoroughly appreciated by the will think it manly to imitate him; if he cost. "How hig is your room?" said the little form, shrouding it like a glittering great body of the people, that we are perspits upon the floor, or blows his nose with man, who had noticed that Freddy was gossamer mantle, in a shower of golden suaded they will give a true and safe reshis fingers, and then, perhaps wipes them never among the boys that were doing gleaming curis. Her deep set yet large ponse to this new appeal to their sagacity on his pantaloons, the child will do the mischief. "Four times as long as I can and spiritual eyes were, chameleon like, and honesty of purpose. And any party same. If his boots are seldom cleaned, the reach one way, and five times the other," constantly changing in expression, some or body of men which should underrate child will be likely to boast that he brings said Freddy. The man applied the rule times appearing a deep brown, sometimes a the one, or attempt to impose upon the more mud into the school than the master. to his arms, and said, "It will cost you soft dark blue, sometimes intensely black. other will find they can not do so with im-We were into this train of remark by an half a dollar? Who is to do the work ?" She was dressed with exquisite taste, and punity. Disaster to themselves, and the incident that took place in a village of Mas- said the man. "Mother, sir, is going to her little robes were lavishly adorned with signal discomfiture of their candidates will sachusetts, where the teacher was accus. try, because she can't afford to pay for the various shades of silken embroidery. Her be the inevitable result. tomed to regard his personal appearance, paint and the painting too, and she wants complexion was colorless, but dazzling; Neither party polities nor local feud and to require some attention to theirs from to do it before father comes home." "You her expression-ah ! there was the myste- should be suffered to have the control in his pupils. When he took charge of the love her, don't you !" said the coach-ma- ry-at once spiritual, heavenly, and yet the election of Judges ; especially if they school, he noticed that the pupils, in mud- ker. "I guess I do," said Freddy, "and wanting in earthly intelligence. She was should tend to the exclusion, or prejudice, dy weather, were accustomed to enter the she loves me, too, because I made a sera- an only child, and heiress to an immense of the high and paramount objects which [Parents will please read the following, nd profit by it.] I have been an observer, as I am a sympathizing lover of boys. I like to see them happy, cheerful, gleesome. I am not willing that they be cheated out of the right-

"I know it," said Freddy, "but the man and he impressed burning kisses upon the Among the scholars was one little fellow made a trade with me, and he is to give child's waxen brow, "we love her with his filth. So sure it is that neatness be- father, and if you will make me one, I "My poor delicate wife, who adored the searching and fearless scrutiny, before the death to part with her now, God spare me watch with a very jealous eye all rights little for appearances, if the children had To make a long story short, the scraper to strengthen the drooping plant; my poor and customs which entrench upon the pro per rights of boys, I am equally apprehensive lest parents who are not fore-thought selves to close observation upon this subject, permit their sons indulgences which scraper was made for the coachmaker, who shining bands over the rich fabric, and are almost certain to result in the'r demor One day on his way home from school continued to do a hundred other friendly mingled with the glittering bullion that alization, if not in their total ruin ; and among the habits which I have observed none more prominent than that of parents permitting their sons to be in the streets rals in all instances. They acquire under the cover of night, an unhealthful state of language, obscene practices, criminal sentiments, a lawless and riotous bearing

The Judiciary.

Indeed it is in the streets after nightfall In October the people of Pennsylvania that the boys principally acquire the edu-Freddy offered to bury it if he might have have described. Freddy could never dis- will be called upon, for the first time in cation of the bad, and capacity for becom the skin, which had but little wool on it. cover his resting place, but crected a neat the history of the Commonwealth, to make ing rowdy, dissolute, criminal men. Pa-He borrowed a jack knife of a larger boy, cenotaph to his memory near the school their own selection of the persons who are rents should in this particular have a rigid and soon stripped off the skin from the house, which he also rebuilt, and once a to expound and administer the laws, for and inflexible rule, that never will permit body, and then cutting as large a square year he collects the children of the village the next ten years, in our courts of justice. a son, under any circumstances whatever, out of it as he could, he went home and around it and tells them the story of the The amended Constitution imposes a grave to go in the streets after nightfall, with a proposed to his mother to nail it down in scraper at the old school door .- Common responsibility mon the citizens of the view of engaging in out-of-door sports, or

State, to meet which properly will require meet other boys for social or chance occuthe intelligent exercise of more than ordi- pation. A rigid rule of this kind, invarinary prudence and circumspection. It is ably adhered to, will soon deaden the dewell known that this radical change in the sire of such dangerous practices. Boys There is but one thing in that beautiful organic law was occasioned, principally, should be taught to have pleasures around as she often had done, "It's no use to house, with its lavish adornments, its by the unwise course of the Executive the family centre-table, in reading, in consweep." "Wife," said Mr. Gerrish one evening, "your floor is whiter than the wall; 1 must get some lime and white-wall; 2 must get some lime and whitewash a little, for Freddy's scraper seems heart when I chanced to gaze upon it, it depends entirely upon the manner in tirely destructive of all good morals. Fa-It is to be regretted that committees to have a tail to it." The room was shin- sending a thrill of aching anguish to my which the people discharge the momentous thers and mothers, keep your boys home at pay so little regard to manners, in the ing white before another day was passed, innermost being ; and that object was a duty thus devolved npon them, whether night, and see that you take pains to make the change shall prove a blessing or a your homes pleasant, attractive, and profi-

let them not become, while forming their Growlers.

There is a class of men in every community, who go about with vinegar faces,

CHRONICLE

From the Pennsylvania Farm Journa Hints to Agricultural Writers

Volume VIII., Number 10.

Whole Number .... 374.

In the establishment of an Agricultural growling because somebody feels above Journal, you have entered upon a feld them, or because they are not appreciated where your labor may be turned to a most as they should be, and who have a constant profitable account. We do not derogate quarrel with their destiny. These men, from the character of the farmer, when we usually, have made a very grave mistake assert that they have much to learn of the in the estimate of their abilities, or are un- business in which they are engaged. Agmitigated asses. In either case they are riculture as a Science, to understand it unfortunate. Wherever this fault finding thoroughly, calls into requisition a most exwith one's condition or position occurs, tended circle of knowledge, and demands there is always a want of self-respect. If an expanded degree of thought and study, people despise you, do not tell it over town. which is incompatible with the every-day If you are smart, show it. Do something, avocations of a farmer. His opportunities and keep doing. If you are a right down and mode of life, forbid the application of clever fellow, wash the wormwood off your his time to such pursuits : he must deal face, and show your good will by your with practical results attained by others, leeds. Then, if people feel above you, go whose better opportunities have enabled traight off and feel above them. If they them to prosecute the study of scientific turn up their noses because your are a me- knowledge, and reduce its elements to pracchanic or farmer, or a shop boy, turn yours tical conclusions. This view of the subject up a notch higher. If they swell when seems to point out to you the plan upon they pass you in the street, swell yourself, which an Agricultural Journal should be and if this does not "fetch them," con- conducted. To render it valuable it should clude very good-naturedly that they are treat of subjects, and be couched in such unworthy your acquaintance, and pity them language as will be easily understood by for missing such a capital chance to get that class of readers whom you hope to benefit by your labors. When we reflect into good seciety.

Society never estimates a man at what that every operation on the farm is based he imagines himself to be. He must show upon some substantial reason; that every himself to be possessed of self-respect, in- implement used is formed upon certain firependencee, energy to will and to do, and ed mechanical principles, and how little good sound heart. These qualities and either enters into the consideration of the ossessions will "put him through." Who operator, how delightful a task it is to plames a man for feeling above those who treat of such subjects, and communicate to are mean enough to go around, like babies, the farmer in a plain intelligible phrasetelling how people abuse them, and whin- ology the reason for the work in which he ing because society will not take them by is engaged, or the principles upon which his implements should be constructed. He the collar and drag them into decency? knows from experience that certain causes

The Farmer.

From the Germantown Telegraph. Harrows and Harrowing.

truth, a result of scientific knowledge, ea-Mr. Editor: For old lands which are sily communicated and as easily understood. already fine and mellow, square harrows We can not better illustrate our views are preferable to triangular ones. Crotch than by referring to certain examples. The harrows are generally objectionable, as they experience of every farmer has target him bear in the wrong almost important part ingly injurious to it : but has the circumis elevated from the ground, rendering the stance itself caused him to inquire why it teeth in front, nearly if not quite unser- is so? Is it too simple a truth to teach iceable, while those in the central parts that the cultivated earth has a capacity to of the harrow, scarcely touch the soil, feed upon that nourishment with which it When intended for one horse, the harrow is constantly supplied by the natural eleshould have four beams, and each beam ments : that light and heat are as essential four teeth. They should be twelve inches to its capacity for production as they are long, at least, and about three-fourths of to the vitality of the animal body : and nch sonare. For dressing off the sur- that the effect of face of old soils, after it has been sufficient- wet, is to shut up these mouths and lungs.

school room and stamp the mud upon the per at her door like Master Hall's at the fortune. was required to scrape his shoes before he charm was to consist in the wife's doing "She was one of the most frolicksome entered the room, and the consequence was the work, and surprising her husband with children," he continued, "bounding from prompt and accurate dispatch of business; that the true floor became visible through a floor painted by her own hand, and room to room, flinging her thrilling bird the crust that covered it. The next step called the boy back and asked if his moth- notes through the corridors, and laughing was to get a rug for the entry, and a neat er had any money. "A little," said he, in infant joyousness, only a year ago." farmer's wife readily gave him an old rug "she bought some yarn and knit three "It was but a year ago, my Lily," he that she could spare. It did not take him pairs of stockings while the baby was murmured plaintively, drawing her closer long to induce the habit of scraping and asleep, and sold them." "Here is the paint," to his manly bosom. wiping the shoes, and a lad or miss who said the man, "I give it to you, my little "One day there was a wild storm : a terdid not do this, was soon noticed by the fellow, because you love your mother." rific tempest ; and we all sat hushed and rest, and made to feel that he or she had The little fellow's eyes glared in astonish- breathless, listening to the rolling crash of not done all that was required. Soon af- ment at the idea of possessing so much the reverberating thunder, whose hollow ter the rug was introduced, the teacher paint, and of being paid for so easy a task ventured to have the whole floor of the as loving his mother, and as the big tears room washed, not scoured, for he had to do began to roll down his cheeks, he said, it himself one Saturday afternoon, and "Mother'll be able to buy the Bible now." washing was all that he was competent to "What Bible?" said the man, who had bedo. When the scholars came on Monday come interested in the boy. "The Bible morning, it was evident that they were for me to read every night and morning, I am, grew sick with fear. The castle taken by surprise. They had never seen as the master does." "I have some Bibles the like before, the very knots in the boards to give away," said the man, "and if you were visible, and they gave several extra will not spill the paint, you may take one rubs and scrapes before they ventured to under your arm." "I declare," said Fredset foot on the beauties so strangely ex- dy, "I don't know what mother will say beauteous child rolled over from my lap posed. This is always the case ; we have to all this. How will she pay you, sir?" known a man who exercised the muscles of "Would you like to do a little work for extended eye-balls. O! my God! can I floor, or carry it to their seats and soil the school. She says if it had not been for Perceiving my bewildered and half- voter in making up his mind, and deposifoor for a large space around them. No the scraper, she never should have thought averted glance, the father, a man of great ting his ballot. Nor are amiability of sweeping could clean such a floor, and none of the paint, and we are going to stay in beauty of countenance, and a most com- character, and mere personal popularity, had been attempted more than once a the bedroom or out of doors till the paint manding figure, drew the little girl to- the only qualifications for these posts of a week. Determined to make an attempt at is dry." "I see through it," said the man. wards him ; and while a shadow veiled his honor and responsibility. It is indispenreform the teacher obtained a piece of iron "Go home and tell your mother I will brow, he said in a subdued voice, "this is sible that, in addition to these, the incumhoop, and nailing one end to the door, he come presently and paint the floor for our Lily, madam, our dear little crushed bents should possess decision and energy his own advantage does not blind for an fastened the other to a walnut stake that nothing." The boy was starting off, when Lily ;" and he folded her to his heart, and of character, habits of industry and close he drove into the ground. Every child the coachmaker recollected that half the gazed down yearningly upon her.

echoes yet ring in my ear.

We sat together; I supported my shrinking wife ; little Lily had flung herself upon the floor and buried her face in my lap. Suddenly the atmosphere became dark and heavy ; even my heart, stern as rocked, the wind seemed to pour in sheeted gusts, against the windows.

A great flash of red light filled the apartupon the floor, with distorted features, and trazy man, to find a place of deposit for a scraper at my door as you made your myself, I was weeping.

with the well being of the entire commu-

study, fullness of legal learning and readiness in applying it, and capacity for the as well as integrity and a sound judgment. And if our Governors, either through mistaken kindness, or as a tardy reward for political services, have erred in any of these important particulars, it is no reason why the people should, or will, follow their ill advised example, and in so doing, prove themselves insensible to the high value of the prerogative so fully transferred to their keeping.

It is not our intention to enter here updred estates. on a lengthy discussion of this subject: but it is proper that attention should be directed to it at an early day, and the objects and design of this amendment of the Constitution, and the condition of things in the respective districts, be kept distinctly before the public ; and after deliberate reflection, be acted on by every vo- a discovery as to the origin of the National ter with caution and independence. It is Flag. On making a pilgrimage to Mount ment ; a quick shriek succeeded ; and my well to admonish State Conventions, and Vernon, he was forcibly struck by the aspirants to the Supreme Bench, and the circumstance that the ancient family coat President Judgeships, that intrigue and of arms of the illustrious Washington confactious combinations will be rebuked at sisted of three stars in the upper portion of his under-jaw by chewing tobacco, and who spit the saliva without compunction upon the floor of the school room like a trazy man, to find a place of deposit for pretensions, and capacity, to the most ican history : "Exctus acta probat."

A True Friend of the Boys. The Upright Man of Business.

Boys after Nightfall.

ful heritage of youth-indeed I can hard ly understand how a high toned, useful man can be the ripened fruit of a boy who has not enjoyed a fair share of the glad privileges due to youth. But while I

There is no being in the world for whom tion, than for the upright man of business. No, not for the philanthropist, the missall do very well. I speak not to disparage it. I wish there was more of it; and yet of six inches, rendered perfectly light and should be kept constantly in view by every lofty, unbending uprightness. That is not foot in passing over it, like a moss bed-it increases its capacity for production.

> is he who stands amidst all the interest bed of dry meal. Northampton, Bucks Co., April 25, '51. and perilous exigencies of trade, firm.calm. lisinterested and upright. It is the man who can see another man's distress as well instant-who could sit a judge upon a just as safely as the purest magistrate upon the bench of justice.

The seed is also economised, and possesses should never be unmindful how compara-Ah! how much richer than ermine the reputation of imparting superior spirit tively few of his patrons will either read how far nobler than a train of magisterial and activity to horses, as well as a fine lus- or understand that which is expressed in authority-how more awful than the guartrous gloss to their hair. It is sometimes a phraseology as unintelligible as if it we re ded pomp of majesty, is that simple, magsown and cut as a green feed for cows- Greek.

nanimous and majestic truth ! Yes, it is the man who is true-true to himself, his neighbor and his God-true to his con- fording from five to six cuttings a year. feeling of self-respect; that their occupascience, and who feels that the slightest In the papers of the Bavarian Society it is tion may not fall below the rest of mansuggestion of that conscience is more to said to possess many important properties kind, in taking rank in that laudably amhim than the chance of acquiring an hun- of which the following are the most prom- bitious contest, which, in this age, seems inent : Origin of the American Flag.

"Eaten in sallad, it relieves consumption ; it fattens horned cattle, whether ea-Mr. Tupper, the English poet, in his reten green or dried; it not only fattens be to Americans a pleasing idea-possibly round, even in the coldest weather, and the claim for it that high degree of respect fibres of the stem make an excellent hemp." "The Bavarian oracle might have added," observes a late writer, "that few plants

ly worked, I find a light triangular harrow and make it impervious to light, heat, and sometimes of service. I lengthen the tra- nourishment, and for the want of them it ces, and by so doing bring the front part dies? This idea would give to many fardown to the surface. The teeth in this mers a subject for thought, and induce should be but three-fourths of an inch them to carry their reflections into the square, and somewhat nearer together than whole subject of ploughing, and while ac-I feel a higher moral respect and admira- in the former, as this arrangement will tually engaged in the work, the naturally cause a smoother, and more effectually vigorous mind would expand into the incover fine seeds. In harrowing, I always quiry how it may always be done well. ionary, or the martyr. I feel that I could pass the instrument lengthwise of the fur- Knowing then, that the object of ploughmore easily be a martyr, than a man of rows first, then diagonally, or from corner ing is to put the ground in that loose, plithat lofty moral uprightness. And let me to corner, and finish off with passing it al- able condition, in which it will the more say yet more distinctly, that it is not for ternately from side to side, and from end readily receive all these advantages which respect. Generosity seems to me a low 1 think that most farmers miss the mark it naturally requires, he will take another pualify, a mere impulse, compared with greatly in not working their soils more step, and inquire into the character of the plough he uses. Does it make that misthe lofty virtues I speak of. It is not for the more productive will it be under any called beautiful work, where the ploughed the man who distributes charities-who circumstances. After the plow has done ground is turned over as hard as a pressed bestows magnificent donationz. That may its work, the application of the harrow brick, over which you may walk without should be continued till all the lumps are making a foot print, or does it leave it in the condition we have before described. it may all exist with a want of the true, loose. Soil, well prepared, will feel to the ready to receive the nourishment which so produce certain results, but how few know why such results are produced, although the reason for each may be a plain simple the man, then, of whom I speak ; but it will be soft, yet elastic, something like a This is but one of the thousand plain suggestions which may be offered to the intelligent mind of the farmer, calculated to produce thought, excite an interest in the

The Nettle. By the farmers of this country, the net- business in which he is engaged, and ultias his own. It is the man whose mind the is proscribed as a noxious and worthless mately produce new and practical results. weed. Yet in Holland it is far from being Whilst we would not exclude entirely regarded as valueless; the economical from the columns of your journal, the dequestion between himself and his neighbor, Dutchman using it as a pot herb, in its scription of learned theories which pertain young state, and its roots for dying yellow. to agriculture as a Science, yet its editor > from four to six acres being appropriated It will be your province, too, to instil to its production on a single farm, and af- into the minds of farmers a high toned to urge the world forward in the race of improvement. Their condition is an isolated one, and they have a corresponding marks at the Maryland Historical Society's anniversary, related an interesting fact, their flesh; it is an antidote to most mala-intercourse with their fellow men, whilst which in his mind suggested what should dies ; sheep fed on it bring forth healthy there is in their occupation a subject of and vigorous lambs; it promotes the lay- thought; an intermingling of the order ing of eggs in hens; it improves the fat of and beauties of nature, and an indispense pigs; the seeds, mixed with oats, are ex-cellent for horses; it grows all the year > ted mind. Upon the character of your Journal will lepend its usefulness, and its success will be measured by the impression it will make in this particular.

which is always awarded to a well instruc-

Carlisle, Pa. FREDERICK WATTS