A New Post-Office.

Everybody who reads the papers is aware that one of the spiciest is the Boston Post. Col. Greene, the editor, is a great joker, but one morning last week he was a jokce, as we will endeavor to show. A tall Vermonter stepped into the Colonel's office, and inquired if there "was any letters in the office for him ?"

The Colonel, who was hard at work upon an anti-coalition "leader," replied in the negative.

"Wa-all, this is the Post Office, ain

"This is the office of the Post," said the Colonel, very blandly.

"Ye-as, just so. Wa-all, I didn't know but my old woman had rit down about the gownd I talked of gittin her. You see I cum from up towards Vermont, with a lot horticulture fixins, to see if I couldn't dicker a little mite in Bosting. And-"

"You will find no letter here," said the Colonel, interrupting in the full flow of his narrative "This is the office of the Boston Morning Post."

"Sho! Wa-all, I see 'Morning Post' on the sign, cum ter think, and I might have knowed that yew didn't deliver letters in the arternoon, but you see I didn't expect nun this mornin', for Zekel Peabody started from hum ten days arter I cum, and be told me that Keziah was goin to write a letter to me to git her a yaller sammoncullered delane, and I dunno how many vards to get, no mor'n a hen with her head cut off. But I'll drap in to-morrow mornin' about daylight, and mabby there'll be a letter. I sold my necessaries almost out to-day, and dunno but I shall trade a little mite in horse flesh. I have a colt here that's about as equal as anything that ever wore huffs. He'll leave about as large a tract of country behind him in the course of a day, as any other animal. He's been kept in stable several weeks, and when I started from hum and set the blood to suckulatin in him all of a suddent, it give him a leetle tech of the blind staggers; but I jumpt out of the waggin, and stuck my jack-knife into the roof of his mouth, jest in the third wrinkle, and set the blood a runnin" that relieved his system and he goes like a bird. Wa-al, I'll drop in to-morrow mornin' an see-there aint no evenin' or arternoon Post Office in the city I 'spose-I trade, hev you? Ef you get my colt, yew can lay em all on the neck. Don't yew-"

"Confound the fellow!" said Col. Greene, who had been trying to write all this time. "Sir this is not a Post Office for the delivcry of letters, but the publication office of the Boston Morning Post; a newspaper, Sir, is published here. Do you understand it now, my friend! I am not a man of letters, but of types. Ha, ha!"

"Sho-o-o! You don't say so! Wall, I don't keer a durn whether I get a letter anyhow, for if I don't I shan't have to buy no gownd !"

The vermonter sauntered out, and the Colonel resumed his pen.

A YANKEE STORY .- I heard a genuine Yankee story from one of the party on deck. I was inquiring if the Hudson was frozen up or not during the winter. This led to conversation as to the severity of the winter, when one man, by way of proving how cold it was, said-

"Why, I had a cow in my lot up the river, and last winter she got in among the ice, and was carried down three miles before we could get her out again. The consequence has been, that she has milked nothing but ice-cream ever since."

The colored Free Masons are preparing for "one grand display" in this place on next Tuesday. It is said that several of the "sable sisterbood," rigged out in full Turkish costume will accompany the Procession !- Harrisburg State Journal.

Prentice of the Louisville Journal, acknowledges a complimentary notice in an exchange, in the following style :- "We scarcely know, dear sir, how to thank you sufficiently. We wish you were the son of the President of the United States, and we were your father."

Prentice says a Mr. Bently has been in dieted for severely wounding a stranger with an axe, alledging as a reason, that he didn't know but what he was a robber. "He didn't know," adds Prentice, "and so he axed him."

Carrying politeness to excess is said to be raising your hat to a young lady in the etreet and allowing a couple of dirty collars and a pair of socks to fall out upon the life. He had twenty wives living and had killed sixteen men, and all he was sorry for was that he was not permitted to live long enough to kill four more. Repentance and remorse were strangers to him. He said his father and brother were both hung.

The true DIGESTIVE FLUID or GASTRIC JUICE-a great Dyspepsia Curer! Prepared from Resenct, or the fourth stomach of the Or, after directions by Baron Lizare, the great physiological chemist, by J.S. Hocouros, M.D., No. 11 N. 8th St. Philadelphia, Pa.

A Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility, curing after Nature's THE undersigned wish to inform the farming community generally, that Juice. (T) Half a teaspoonful of this fluid infused in water, can digest or dissolve Five Pounds of roast beef in about two hours, out of the stomach. Digestion is chiefly performed in the stomach by the aid of a fluid which freely exudes from the inner coat of that organ, when in a state of health, called the gastric juice. This fluid is the great solvent of the food—the purifying, preserring and stimulating agent of the stomach and intestines. Without it there can be no digestion.

no conversion of food into blood, no nutrition-Pepsin is the chief element or great diges ing principle of the gastric juice. It is found in great abundance in the solid parts of the human stomach after death, and sometimes causes the stomach to digest or eat itself up. It is also found in the stomach of animals, as the ox, calf, &c. I is the material used by farmers in making cheese styled Rennet, the effect of which has long been the special wonder of the dairy. Curdling of milk is the first process of digestion. A call's stomach can curdle nearly one thousand times its own weight of milk. Baron Liebig states, "one part of Pepsin dissolved in sixty thousand parts of water, digests meat and other food." Diseased stomachs produce no good Gastrie Juice, Renne or Pepsin. To show that this want may be per-

Baron LIEBIG, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, sevay: "An artificial digestive fluid, analagous to the Gastrie-Juice, may be readily prepared from the muccus membrane of the stomach of the caff, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened and digested in the same manner as in the human stomach." It: BREERA, in his famous treatise on Food and Diet, published by Fowlers & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereria. Dr. COMBE, in his valuable writings on the Physiology of Digestion, observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastrie-Juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Pyspepsia," and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely affilicted with this complaint finding everything close to fail, had recourse to the Gastrie-Juice obtained from the stomach of hiving animals, which completely succeeded."

It: GRAHAM, auther of the famous works on Vegetable Diet, says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE! SIMON'S great work, the Chemistry of Man, (Lea & Blanchard, Phind., 1846, pp 321, 32, says. "The discovery of Pepsin forms a new era in the chemical histery of Di-gestion. From recent experiments, we know that food is dissolved as rapidly in an artificial digestive Suid, prepared from Pepsin, as it is in the natural Gastric Juice itself." Prof. DUNGLISON, of the Jefferson College, Philad., in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. His experi-ments with Pr. Beaumont, on the trastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are known. "In all cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions." As a DYSPEPSIA CURER, Dr Houghton's preparation of Pepsin has produced the most mar-velous effects. It is impossible to give details of cases in the limits of this advertisement—but authenticated certificates have been given of more medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our cibow says he has himself received from the use of this remedy an effectual, perma-nent cure of Liver Complaint. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gaze strength and vhorr—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs, with safety under any circumstances. We are speaking from exper-ence, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have mea

As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find those Bitters advantageous to their health, as we knew from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems.

Judge M.M. Noam, a gentleman of great ecientific and literary attainments, said in his "New York Weekly Messenger, Jan 6, 1850—

Dr. He-thoufe German Bitterz—Here is a preparation which the leading presses of the Union appear unanimous in recommending, and the reason is obvious. It is made after a prescription furnished by one of the most celebrated physicians of modern times—the late Dr. Christopher Wilhelm Hoofland, Frafessor to the University of Jena, Private Physician to the King of Prusia, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically the enemy of humber, and therefore a medicine of which he was the inventor and endorser may be confidently relied on. He specially recommended it in the United States, the editor says of Dr Hoofland's German Bitters—

It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines to our readers' patronage and confidence, and, therefore, when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nestrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and are forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the Faculty itself. Evidence on evidence has been received (like Evidence on evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last 3 years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than of all other nestrums combined—a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form. That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepts, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the Stemach and Liver. It is preferable to Calomel in all billions discuss. The effect is immediate—they can be administered to FEMALE or INVALVE with Safety

Beware of counterfeits! This medicine has attained that character which it is necessary for all to attain to induce cou iters to put forth a spurious article at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the marks of the Genuine. They have the written signature of C.M.JACKSON upon the wrapper, and the name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.
