Extracts from the opinions of the Press.

Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may very properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author. Its object is to illustrate and "render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines and laws; to know its truth, to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.—The News, Jan. 7th.

Sacred Scenes and Characters—By the Rev. J. T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," &c. This work will add greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his "Sacred Mountains." Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a rich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving tenderness of passion, and vigorous strength of expression, which are to be found in all the languages by which mortals declare their minds.—See Daily Globe, Jan. 5th.

Rambles and Sketches—By Rev. J. T. Headley. We have not for a long time sat down to a book with more pleasing anticipation, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Napoleon and his Marshals" was, perhaps, as popular, and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles and Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as any of his previously published works. There is not a dull chapter in the work, filled as it is with "an infinite variety." The author has a style of writing peculiarly his own for the employment of his talents to great advantage, and most successfully has he accomplished the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and "well considered," and adds much to the value of the books, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher.—[See Portland Transcript, Dec. 13th.

Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books—the one on which he can safely rest his fame. It possesses the fastinguing charms of perfect simplicity and truth. There is a graceful frankness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London, exhibit a thousand lively traits of an ingenious nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's work.—See New York Recy.

The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It consists, indeed, of some of Mr. Headley's most brilliant and highly finished compositions, of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety to his fame as a word-painter and thinker.—See New York Tribune, Dec. 17, 1848.

N. B. The above books will be forwarded to order, at the prices mentioned, free of postage, to any part of the United States, on the receipt of orders, with the money.—Money may be sent by mail at my risk.

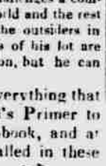
S. F. Lyndall

HAS just received and opened the largest, best and cheapest assortment of Goods in his line of business ever offered to this community; and fearlessly challenges a comparison of stocks with 'all the world and the rest of mankind,' to say nothing of the outsiders in general. The individual articles of his lot are decidedly too numerous to mention, but he can say in short hand that

In the BOOK line he has everything that anybody wants, from a child's Primer to the highest University class-book, and at prices that can not be rivalled in these diggings.



He has a larger lot and richer variety of STATIONERY than ever.

His stock of BOOTS and SHOES comprises every style of fashion and workmanship for Ladies and Gentlemen, Children and Misses, that can be bought in the Eastern cities, or made at home.

His assortment of CLOTHING includes everything called for by the season and the fashions, or that the most fastidious or economical could desire.

His HATS and CAPS positively can't be beat in this market. Good Silk Hats for $1,75, and the best kinds afforded at unprecedentedly low prices.

Also a large supply of choice TRUNKS and CARPET BAGS, cheap.

This is the place for capital bargains. The steam's up and we are bound to go ahead in spite of wind and tide!

GEO. W. MERCHANT'S
CELEBRATED GARGLING OIL
UNPARALLELED IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE
As the most remarkable External Application ever discovered.

"They can't Keep House without it."

Experience of more than sixteen years has established the fact that Merchant's Celebrated Gargling Oil, or Universal Family Embrocation, will cure most cases, and relieve all such as Spavins, Sweeney, Ringbone, Windgalls, Poll Evil, Callous, Cracked Heels, Galls of all kinds, Fresh Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, Fistula, Sitfast, Sand Cracks, Strains, Lameness, Foundered Feet, Scratches or Grease, Mange, Rheumatism, Bites of Animals, External Poisons, Painful Nervous Affections, Frost Bites, Boils, Corns, Whitlows, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Cramps, Contractions of the Muscles, Swellings, Weakness of the Joints, Caked Breasts, &c. &c. &c.

The unparalleled success of this Oil, in the cure of diseases in Horses and Cattle, and even in human flesh, is daily becoming more known to the farming community. It can hardly be credited, except by those who have been in the habit of keeping it in their stables and houses, what a vast amount of pain, suffering and time, are saved by the timely application of this Oil.

☞Be sure the name of the sole proprietor, GEORGE W. MERCHANT, Lockport, N. Y., is blown in the side of the bottle, and in his handwriting over the cork.

All orders addressed to the proprietor will be promptly responded to.
