H. C. HICKOK, Editor. O. N. WORDEN, Printer.

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1851.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY JOURNAL. Isrued on Wednesday mornings at Lewisburg.

Union county, Pennsylvanic.

Union county, Pennsylvanic. TER MX-91.00 per year, for each actually in advance; $1.75, if pull within three mouths; $2.00 if paid within a year; $2.50 if not paid before the year expires; 5 cents for angle numbers. Subscriptions for six mouths or less, to be paid in advance. Descontinuaness optional with the Publisher, except when the year is paid up. Appendix mouths; 21 for a year. Mercanitie advertises in for six mouths; 21 for a year. Mercanitie advertises in its, not exceeding one fourth of a column, $10 a year. Job Woltk and casual advertisements to be paid for when handed in or deliverel. OssetSyntaxis solicited on all subjects of general inte-red not within the range of party or sectarian contest.

JOB WORK and casual advertisements to be paid for when handed in or deliverel. Conversations solicited on all subjects of general inte-ration within the range of party or sociarian contest. All betters must come past paid, accomposited by the real address of the writer, to receive attention. For These relating crelusively to the Editorial Department, to be di-rested to Hawar C. Honser, Eq. Editor—and these on business to 0. N. Womens, Paidohar. Office on Market street, between Second and Third, over the Post-Office. O. N. WORDEN, Proprietor.

From the Cleveland True Democrat. DONY BUN IN DEBT.

IT PRAY TI D. GAGE.

Don's run in debat-never mind, never mind, If the old clothes are faid and torn. Fir them up, make them do; it is britter by far, Than to have the heart warry and worn. Who 'll love you the more for the sot of your hat, Or your rull, or the to of your bates, The shape of your rest, or your boots, or cravat, If they know you're in debi for the new.

Don't run in debt. If canary's the on, Don't run in debt. If think is the same Wear blue if you have but the each. Or, no matter what, so you let the world know, You won't run in debt for a dash. There's no comfort, l'li tell you, in walking the street In fine dottien if you know you're in debt. And feel that perchance you are in challen. Who will sneer-" They are help said for yet."

Good friends, lot me beg of you, don't run in debt,

Don't run in dobt-now, dear glids, take a hint; all the fishions have shanged since last second off the fashions have changed since intractions Old Nature is out in the very same (int, And old Nature, we which has some reason. Just say to your friend, that you can not afferd To spand the to keep up with the fashiont Test your pures is too fight and your hour too bright To be tarnished with such saily parsion.

Gents, don't run in d bt-bt your friends, if they can, which don't thin in draw-we four theorem, it are fine houses, leading a solution of a man, it unless they are paid for, be more of a man, Thus to ensy their subshing hours. You're mossive to spars, I have nothing to say: Spend your dollars and dimes a yet places, it mind you, the man who he much has to pay, is the man who is never at easy.

Eind hustands, don't run in deht any more; Taill fill your which cup of series, To know that a mightor may call at your dost, With a bull you work white to morrow. On take my advice--it is good, if is travi-liat, last you may some of you doubt it.) It is where a work, how series, 'It you---I have tried and know all about it.

The chain of a debtor is heavy and cold. The schule all correction and rist; Gidd to'se as you will—it is never of gold, Then spurn it aside with disgust. The may who's in debt is too schul a size. The may who's in debt is too schul a size. The may his heart may be hencest and true; Can be hold up his head, and hold savey and brave, When a note he can't pay becom a due?

> From the Cincinnati Columbian Returning Good for Evil.

Obadiah Lawson and Watt Dood were neighbors; that is, they lived within half ure work of Mr. Lawson's filly." was the dition of Hungary, seemed best fitted to instant retort. Watt paled for a moment, but collecting "I asked of the King, not the complete himself, he fiercely shouted,

"Do you dare say I killed her?" "How do you know she is dead ?" resimply these three things : plied the man.

LEWISBURG

Dood bit his lip, hesitated a momen and then turning, walked into the house. Sanctioned by a thousand period, should morning of the third one had broken, ble administration. as the hired man met friend Lawson, riding in search of his filly.

A few words of explanation issued, when, with a heavy heart, the Quaker turned his horse and rode home, where he informed the people the fate of his filly. No threat of recrimination escaped him; he did not even go to law to recover damages; but calmly awaited his plan and hour of revenge. It came at last. Watt Dood had a Durham heifer, for which he had paid a heavy price, and upon which he counted to make great gains. One morning just as Obadiah was sitting down his eldest son came in with the information that neighbor Dood's heifer had broken down the fence, entered the yard. and after cating most of the cabbages, had etables they contained, out of shape-a sian invasion. They said they pitied us, many things, however, of this sort have mischief impossible to repair. "And what did thee do with her, Ja- conduct of Austria; but they could not cob?" quietly asked Obadiah. "I put her in the farm-yard." "Did thee beat her ?" "I never struck her a blow." breakfast, and when done eating, I will macy ! Is it not as clear as the sun that attend to the heifer." the Czar, in aiding Austria, would do it Shortly after he had finished his repast, in such a manner as to obtain the greatest Lawson mounted a horse, and rode over to advantages for himself? Was it not Dood's, and who, as he beheld the Quaker manifest that Austria-who had always, dismount, supposed he was coming to de- through the help of Hungary, strength mand pay for his filly, and secretly swore enough to oppose Russia-would, when he would have to go to law for it if he did, she destroyed Hungary by Russian bay-"Good morning, neighbor Dood ; how onets, no longer be an independent power, is thy family ?" exclaimed Obadiah, as he but merely the acenta-garde of the Mosmounted the steps and scated himself in a covite ? Yet Europe permitted the invasion ! It is an indelible mark of blindness chair.

"All well, Sir, I believe," was the and shame. It is ever thus in the imbecile Old World. They treated us just as they crusty reply. "I have a small affair to settle with you treat Turkey. They assert always that the peace of Europe and the balance of this morning, and I came rather carly." "So I suppose," growled Watt.

power require the preservation of the " This morning my son found thy Dur- | Turkish empire-that Turkey must exist, ham heifer in my garden, where she has to check the advance of the Cossrek power.

"I've been to see if your bullet made terms of concessions as, in the then con-Discreet Kindness. Eleemosynary Acts of Charity consist in bread to the devil, which he turns into pine boards." secure the happiness of his countrymen. giving to the Poor, and in Relieving the On this head Kossuth says : Indigent, but with Prudence.

"Second. That every inhabitant of my the European powers in preserving their

"We doubted not that the European honored our efforts, and condemned the help us, because Europe required a powerful Austrian empire, and they must sup-neutrality during the war, he says :

independence of my beloved country-not the offices of charity and its eleemosynary es he receives as allurements to draw others coolly. even any new rights or privileges-but acts. By the offices of charity are meant into evil. It is also like offering a sword "I shan't do any such thing," said Hans sanctioned by a thousand years, and by ted principally with the function or em- shepherd's crook to a man-wolf, that he them $50," said the speculating Vermon-meant those aids and assistances which a from the pasture into the wilderness, and to "fork over." man leads to his neighbor, independent of there slaughters them ; or it is like adcountry, without regarding language or the ordinary duties of his station. They vancing a robber to a post of authority in religion, should be free and equal before are called eleemosynary acts, because in the state, who has nothing in view, and August, announces the death of Mrs. the law-all classes having the same privi-doing them a man is left to his own liberty cares for nothing but plunder, according Gaines, the accomplished wife of General and pleasure, and when they are done to the abundance and value of which he Gaines. The Oregon Times gives the fol- Jas. H. Graham, D Third. That all the people of the Aus- they are regarded by the person who re- dispenses the laws and executes judgment. lowing particulars : trian empire that acknowledged the same ceives them in no other light than as elee- -[Old Author. parson as Emperor whom we Hungarians mosynary, and are dispensed according to recognised as King, and the same law of the reasons and intentions which influence succession, should have restored their an the mind of the benefactor. It is a pre-A laughable incident occurred at a cient constitutional rights, of which they vailing notion that charity consists solely boarding house in East Broadway, one day 1800, married to John P. Gaines, June Pearson, W. last week, and as it was entirely original, 22, 1819. I have no doubt a recital of it will afford a "The circumstances attending the death moment's amusement to your numerous of Mrs. Gaines are melancholy in the exreaders. About twenty boarders, of both treme. Gov. Gaines and his wife and sexes, were seated at the dinner table, and family, came down the river on the Willamongst the rest was a very old gentleman, amette, and on Sunday morning went to trampled the well-made beds, and the veg- that they would, at least, prevent the Rusthe house that week, but whose native city farm, and to which he was, with the most was known to all.

Long Absence.

A very little conversation is indulged in to introduce his wife and children as their extraneous to it. They who make charity at boarding houses, especially during the future home. On the road to their house itself to consist in such actions, must of necessity consider them to be meritorious ; meals ; the ladies, of course, being the from Skipanown landing, the horse upon and howsoever they may in word disclaim greatest talkers, are in consequence the which Mrs. Gaines was riding backed in against Russia in central and eastern all regard to merit, yet in their hearts they greatest sufferers-well, one of the ladies between the fore wheels and the oxen of a "Right, Jacob-right; set down to thy Europe. What a mistake I What diplo. can not but entertain a belief that they to remain idle whilst the others were The animals became frightened and started son, Ind. D. are entitled to it * * to remain idle whilst the others were The animals became frightened and started Bat genuine charity proceeds from those cating, turned to the old gentleman, (who off at full speed, carrying the horse along who are thoroughly imbued with it from was an eccentric individual, and who scarce- with them. Mrs. Gaines fell, her head the justice and the judgment of their works. Iy took his eyes from his plate until it was striking upon the tire of the wagon, and which they do without regarding recom. empty,) and said-"Mr .----, I suppose her body being jammed between the front pease as an end and motive for the doing the weather was beginning to get rather board and the horse. The horse being of them, according to what the Lord says, cool when you left Boston ?" referring, thrown down was passed over by the wheels acts, and likewise duties, although with head, and swallowing a large mouthfull of "She spoke but once after the accident

It is well known that some, who have looked directly in the face of the young injury of the brain forbade all hopes of done such elecmosynary acts as appear in lady with the greatest astonishment, and recovery, and after lying seventy-five hours the eyes of men like images of charity, studying for some minutes, said, "Well, in a state of unconsciousness, her spirit imagine and believe that they have been really, I can't for the life of me remember!" calmly took flight, leaving its frail and parties.

them as things for the sake of which they not to remember an occurrence of so short "The bereaved family are thus called are purified from their sins, and are to be a period back. Why, how long has it been upon to deplore the loss of another of its were made, and Whigs were elected in all

State Judicial Districta 1st. City and County of Philedelphia-Oswald Thompson, W., President Judge : Wm D. Kelley, Ind. D., Joseph Allison

Volume VIII., Number 31.

Whole Number 395.

N., Associates. 2d. Lancaster-Henry G. Long, W:

3d. Northampton and Lehigh-Wash ington McCartney, D.

4th. Tiogs, Potter, McKens, Elk and Clearfield-R. G. White, D. 5th. Allegheny-Wm. B. McClure, W.

6th. Erie, Crawford and Warres-Elijab Babbitt, W.

7th. Bucks and Montgomery-D. M. Smyser, W.

Sih, Northumberland, Lycoming, Centre and Clinton-Alexander Jordan, D. 9th. Cumberland, Perry and Juniata-

10th. Westmoreland, Indiana and Arm strong-J. M. Borrell, D. 11th. Luzerne, Wyoming, Montour and Columbia-John N. Conyngham, D.

12:h. Dauphin and Lebanon-John J.

13th. Bradford, Susquehanna and Sullivan-David Witmot, D.

14th. Fayette, Washington and Greene Samuel A. Gimore, D.

15h. Chester and Delaware-Townsend Haines, W.

16th. Franklin, Bedford, Somerset and Fulton-F. M. Kimmeil, W., an independent candidate.

17th. Beaver, Butler, Mercer and Lawence-Daniel Agnew, W.

18th. Venango, Charina, Jefferson, El'z and Forest-John C. Knox. D.

19th. York and Adams-Robert J. Fisher, D.

20th. Miffin and Union-A. S. Wil

21st. Schuylkill-Chas W. Hegins, D. 22d. Monroe, Pike, Wayne and Carbon -N. B. Eldred, D.

23d. Berks-J. Glancey Jones, D. 24th. Huntingdon, Biair and Cambrid -George Taylor, W.

In the 1st, 16th and 20th, Independent candidates were elected. In the 9th, 18th and 19th, Democrats were elected over ladependent candidates.

In the 2d, 3d, 4th, 8th, 10th, 11th, 19th. 13th, 14th and 22d Districts, but one candidate was named and supported by all

In the 5th, 6th, 7th, 15th, 17th, 21st, 23d and 24th, regular party nominations but the 21st and 23.j.

Thus in two thirds of the Districts, 16 poison ; for all the bread in the devil's "What," said old Crusty ! "saw knotty favor on a wicked person, is like giving "I reckon I'll have them sawed into clear hand is poison ; or, if it is not, he hemlock into clear pine? You're crazy." It is necessary to distinguish between turns it into poison, by using the kindness- "Yeou agreed to do it," said Jonathan those exercises which proceed immediately to the enemy of another, and so enabling "It is impossible. "First. That the inalienable rights from charity itself, and which are connec- him to commit murder; or like giving a "If that's the case, I'll trouble you for

RONIC

A couple of days passed by, and the be guarantied by a national and responsi-but by electrosynary acts of charity are he no sooner receives than he drives them expostulated, but t'want no use ; he had ployment in which each man was engaged; may lead the sheep to the pasture, which ter. The old man stormed, swore, spit and

Death of Mrs. Gaines.

The advices from Oregon of the 23d of

"Died, on Wednesday, the 13th inst., at Clatsop Plains, Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas Kinkhead and Priscilla McBride;

born in Versailles, Kentucky, March 13, pleasing anticipations of the future, about Luke XIV., 12, 13, 14. These also call doubtless, to the cool spell the previous of the wagon, and Mrs. Gaines fell underthe things above mentioned eleemosynary week. The old gentleman, raising his neath before the oxen were checked.

victuals which had almost choked him, and immediately became insensible. The practising works of charity, and regard "Your memory must be failing you fast, temporary tenement.

presented with the kingdom of heaven, like since you left Boston ?" asked the young members. On their way to this country, had been unjustly despoiled, modified to in giving to the poor, relieving the indisuit their wants and the spirit of the age." gent, providing for widows and orphans, Speaking of the motives which actuated contributing towards the building of here contributing towards the building of hospitals and other edifices for the reception of the sick, the stranger, and the fatherpowers would negotiate a peace for us, or less, but particularly in the building, or-no proper connection with charity, but are a mile of each other, and no person lived destroyed a good deal." between these respective farms, which "And what did he do with her ?" de- France destroyed the Turkish fleet at Navawould have joined, had not a little strip of manded Dood, his brow darkening. would have joined, had not a little strip of prairie land extended itself sufficiently manded Dood, his brow darkening. "What would thee have done with her, jured them, but which might have con-bad she been my heifer in thy garden ?" Catherines, of yellow fever, and lie buried sure. But in such a case what are their The usually quiet boarders, who had on the distant shores of Brazil Just a to separate. Dood was the oldest settler, had she been my heifer in thy garden ?'s tended with Russia in the Black Sea.

ular disciple of that class of people, had only even now. Heifer for filly is only tit Turkey. She has made herself the sovenurchased the next farm to his, he declared for tat."

he would make him glad to move away "Neighbor Dood, thou knowest me not, sapping the foundations of the Ottoman again. Accordingly, a system of petty if thou thinkest I would barm a hair of empire. Already Turkish officials are annoyance was commenced by him, and thy heifer's back. She is in my farm- more dependent on the lowest Russian every time one of Lawson's hogs chanced yard, and not even a blow has been struck agents than upon their own Grand Vizier. to stray upon Dood's place, he was beset her, where thee can get her at any time. "There can be no freedom for the conby men and dogs, and most savagely I know thee shot my filly; but the evil tinent of Europe, and that the Cossack abused. Things progressed for nearly a one prompted thee to do it, and I lay no from the shores of the Don will water year, and the Quaker, a man of decided evil in my heart against my neighbors. I their steeds in the Rhine, unless liberty peace principles, appeared in no way to re- came to tell thee where thy heifer is, and be restored to Hungary. It is only with sent the injuries received by the hands of now I'll go home."

raged than ever at the quiet of Obadiah, stopped by Watt, who hastily asked. made oath that he would do something before long to wake up the spunk of Oba- "A hundred dollars is what I ask for diah. Chance favored his design. The her," replied Obadiad. Quaker had a bigh-blooded filly, which he "Wait a moment !" and Dood rushed had been very careful in raising, and which to the house, from whence he soon returned large sum of money for her.

field, he discovered the filly feeding in the other, "let there be peace between us." and the next morning, bright and early, EVIL.

shouldered his rifle and left the house. Not long after his absence, a hired man, whom he had recently employed, heard the echo tains a letter from Kossuth, addressed to of his gun, and in a few minutes, Dood. considerably excited and out of breath, that the deer attacked him, and he hardly entrusted by him to Maj. Tochman for escaped with his life.

The story was credited by all but the back lest its appearance might possibly newly-employed hand, why had a dislike defeat the measures then pending for the that something was wrong. He therefore slipped quietly away from the house, and blood was still oozing.

where he had been.

But, notwithstanding this, England and reign of Moldavia and Wallachia, and is Hungarian freedom that the European the spitcful neighbor. But matters were Obadiah rose from his chair, and was nations can be free; and the smaller nawithout us."

writes as follows :

there be a pleasantness between us."

"What was your filly worth?"

Letter from Kossuth.

The Washington Union of Saturday conthe people of the United States. It is five ted that he had shot and wounded a buck; March, was transmitted to Gov. Ujhazi, by such sentiments!

publication, and by the last named held my countrymen to noble deeds ; your ap- make this their natural disposition spiritu- Birmingham Railroads in England." Its author states that, two years previ- warmest gratitude and our high respect."

rom crushing it, and only asked such Continental enemies.

he truly regenerate, when nevertheless lady. "Well," replied the old man, very two daughters, who lef they make light of adultery, hatred, re- soberly, and with his gaze still fixed on the United States blooming with health and in number, the people tried to separate the rino-a fleet which never could have in- venge, frand, and in general all the lusts lady, "as near as I can remember, it's been full of the high hopes of youth, died at St. Bench from party, and in thirteen they them they are works of charity.

"Always the same worn-out, old, and good works, but like painted images of been listening to the conversation, could year ago, Gov. Gaines and his family arand from his youth up had entertained a singular hatred against Quakers; therefore, singular hatred against Qu when he was informed that Lawson, a reg "as I suppose you have done; but we are alert, seizes province after province from full of hydras? The case however is man, who could not make out what it was commemorated by a mournful event. A small caps. New members of Senate, changed where those eleemosynary acts are all about. The lady, after recovering large circle of friends will sympathize in with ". done by persons who shun the above men- from her discomfiture, raised her head, and the bereavement of the family." tioned evils as abominable and detestable remarked-"Well, I must say there has in the sight of charity. Nevertheless such been a change in the weather since then !"

acts, particularly the giving of alms to This is no fish story. poor persons and beggars, have in many Immense Railroad Business. respects their uses and advantages ; for it The intelligent correspondent of the sexes, men-servants and maid-servants, and, in general, all persons of simple character and condition. are initiated into charity. Pottsville and Philadelphia says : and condition, are initiated into charity, Pottsville and Philadelphia says :

such works being its externals, introducto- "The Reading Railroad employs in all witness the spectacle. The Herald thus drawing to a crisis; for Dood, more en- about to descend the steps, when he was tionalities especially can have no future ry to the offices of charity; for they are about fifteen hundred persons, at salaries its rudiments, which, at the time of doing and wages respectively of about $60,000

In referring to the sympathy of the them, are like unripe fruits, yet with those a month, or $720,000 per annum. It con-American republic and its hospitable re- who are afterwards perfected by the right sumes materials in value of $20,000 a ception of the Hungarian exiles, Kossuth knowledge of charity and faith, become month, or about $5,000 a week, causing in like ripe fruits; and in this case they re- all (consumption of material, salaries and

"The Hungarians, more fortunate than gard those their former works, which were wages) an annual outlay of $$40,000, all was just four years old. Lawson took great holding some gold in his hand. "Here's I, who were able to reach the shores of done in simplicity of heart, only as so expended on its own ground. Some of was just four years old. Lawson took great holding some gold in his hand. There's the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly, and hereafter let the New World, were received by the peo-pride in this animal, and had refused a the price of your filly and hereafter let the New World the United States the interesting and covernment of the United States the peo-price of your filly and hereafter let the new World the the peo-price of your filly and hereafter let the new World the peo-price of your filly and hereafter let the peoprice of your filly and hereafter ple and government of the United States The reason why these acts are believed larly interesting and striking. Thus it One evening, a little after sundown, as "Willingly, heartily," answered Law. in the most generous manner-yes, like at the present day to be the proper deeds manufactures thirty wheels a day, to per-

Watt Dood was passing round his corn- son, grasping the proffered hand of the brothers. With one hand they hurled of charity, which are meant in the Word petuate its machineries and cars, and reanathemas at the despots, and with the by good works, is, because charity is very quires annually from seven to eight hun- applied, and the explosion took place. A Baily. little strip of prairie land that separated Obabiah mounted his horse, and rode other welcomed the humble exiles to par- frequently described in the Word by giv- dred tons of new rails for repairs only. It the two farms, and he conceived the hellish home with a lighter heart, and from that take of that glorious American liberty ing to the poor, relieving the needy, and consumes daily 450 cords of wood, and immense body of water was thrown up to Clinton-Wm. F. Packer. design of throwing off two or three rails day to this Dood has been as good a neigh- more to be valued than the glitter of providing for widows and orphans; but evaporates in the same space of time, half the distance of twenty-five or thirty feet, 15. Blair, Cambria and Huntingdonof his fence, that the horse might get into bor as one could wish to have, being com- crowns. Our hearts are filled with emo heretofore it has not been known that the a million of gallons of water ! Yet, with bis corn during the night. He did so; pletely reformed by the RETURNING GOOD tions to see how this great nation extends Word, in the letter, makes mention of such all the expenses of the road, the employits sympathy and aid to every Hungarian things only as are the external, nay, the ment of so many hands, the consumption of who is so fortunate as to arrive in Ameri- extreme parts of worship, and that spiritu- fuel, repairs, &c., the cost of transportation ca. The sympathetic declaration of such al things, which are internal, are under- falls yet short of 62 cents per ton, such is a people, under such circumstances, with stool by them ; so that it appears that by the enormous quantity of coal brought similar sentiments in England, is not a those who are called the poor, needy, down every year for consumption! In mere sigh which the wind blows away, widows, and orphans, are meant such as deed, the Reading Railroad transports columns in length, bears date at Broussa, but is prophetic of the future. What a are so in a spiritual sense, and not such more tons of merchandise and receives come hurrying to the house, where he sta-in Asia Minor, as far back as the 27th of bleased sight to see whole nations elevated only as are so in a literal one.

"Free citizens of America ! you inspired compassionate disposition, and do not the Great Western, and the London and on a former occasion explained the princi-proval inspired confidence; your sympathy al, by regulating its workings according consoled in adversity, gave a ray of hone to genuine charity, imagine that charity to Watt, and from his manner, suspected liberation of Kossuth from the Turkish for the future, and enabled us to bear the consists in giving to every poor person,

* The consequence of kind of stuff that Jonathan wanted, under which is, that the wicked are assisted in a forfeiture of $50. About two months to twenty-four feet below low water, he 27. W The animal was warm and could not have ous to March, 1850, he held in his hand It is seriously thought, that England their disposition to do wickedly, and to after, he met the Yankee in the road, and will have accomplished all he contracted McFarland.* been killed an hour. He hastened back to the destiny of the reigning house of Aus-the dwelling of Dood, who met him in the tria, and that, notwithstanding his power back to the destiny of the reigning house of Aus-place herself under the protection of the place herself under the protection of the the logs, desired to know what kind of the state of the yard, and demanded, somewhat roughly, over that treacherous family, he abstained United States, to save herself from her ers of kindnesses are ultimately the cause stuff Jonathan wanted them sawed into. times the amount that he will receive for Native American. of mischief to the good. For to bestow a! "Wal," said the Green Mountain boy his outlay and his services."

Catherines, of vellow fever, and lie buried succeeded.

Hurl Gate.

The blasting of Diamond Reef, near N. York, to improve the navigation of Hurl Gate channel, was resumed on Monday, Fernon, The under the direction of M. Mailefert, the HARILTON.* celebrated French engineer, who contracis by these acts that young people of both Philadelphia "Ledger," Observer, in a ted for the execution of this project. At describes the scene :

"A tin can, containing one hundred and lington,* E. Kinzer." twenty-five pounds weight of powder, was 8. Northumberland and Dauphia lowered on a part of the reef deemed the John C. Kunkle." most favorable for producing the greatest 9. Northampton and Lehigh-Conrad effect. To this can was attached a wire, Shimer, encased with gutta percha, so as to prevent 10. Carbon, Monroe, Pike and Wayne its coming in contact with the water. This _E. W. Hamin."

in readiness, the signal was given-a white handkorchief was waved-the battery was turbance on the surface, and all was over. 16. Luzerne, Montour and Solumbia-"From the discolored appearance of the C. R. Buckalew. column of water thrown up, it was evident that the explosion caused some damage to ming-George Sanderson. the reef, but to what extent it could not be ascertained at the time. The immense field and Jefferson-John W. Guerney. multitude who attended the exhibition expressed themselves bighly pleased with the John Hoge. beautiful spectacle. The second discharge They who are naturally of a tender, world, and exceeds in this respect, both was much the same as the first. We have Walker.

ple on which these explosions are conduct-ed. It is very simple but very efficient. The water is used as a fulcrum, and, the custody. The letter is, substantially, a weight of our heavy burden ; your fellow- and in relieving every one that is indigent, of drawing in saw logs, a shrewd Vermon- the resistance. High water is, therefore, clear and condensed explanation of the feeling will sustain us till we realize the without inquiring whether their character ter bargained with an old miserly fellow, the time selected for such experiments. slipped quiety away from the direction of the shot, he suddenly came upon Lawson's the shot he sudde filly, stretched upon the earth, with a bul-let hole through the head, from which the nate of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method is about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method is about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method is about method is about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses. The name of my inquiry is necesses, since troa regards about method is about method is about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses. The name of my inquiry is necesses about method is about method is about method in the name of my inquiry is necesses. The name of my inquiry is necesses about method is about metho

The Next Legislature.

SENATE. 1. Philadelphia City-Benjamin Mat

thias, Wm. A. Crubb.* 2. Philadelphia County-Thomas S. Fernon, Thomas II. Forsyth, SAMUEL O.

3. Montgomery-J. Y. Jones.

4. Chester and Delaware-Henry S. Evans." 5. Berks-Henry A. Muhlenberg. 6. Bucks-Benjamin Malone.

7. Lancaster and Lobanon-E. C. Da

wire extended to the boat, on board of 11. Adams and Franklin-Thom

12. York-Henry Fulien.

13. Cumberland and Perry-Joseph shock was felt on board the boats. An 14. Centre, Lycoming, Sullivan end

17. Bradiord, Susqueinanna and Wyo

18. Tioga, Potter, M. Kan. Lik, Clear 19. Mercer, Venango and Warren-

20. Erie and Crawford-John H.

21. Butler, Reaver and Lawrence William Haslett, A. Robertson

22. Allegheny-James Cardthere 23. Washington and Greese-Mazwell McCaslin.*

24. Bedford, Fulton and Se Humilton B. Barnes." 25. Armstrong, Indiane and Clarlon

27. Westmoreland and Fayette-Joh more per mile, than any railroad in the

A Tough Job. Some time last winter, about the period deeper it is, of course the more powerful