Independence and Neutrality.

It is a great fault with the newspaper press of the United States, that it is generally either partizan, or neutral; the first having an opinion on one side of public affairs only, the second having no opinion at all. We Americans have plenty of Whig newspapers, and plenty also of Dem peratic ones ; we have also neutral papers, wishy-washy affairs, without the courage entious sentiments.

A newspaper of such a character, indeed, morning hymn, with a heart full of praise "Such a one as thou !" said another our own fostering. How to get Sleep:

How to get sleep is to many persons s matter of high importance. Nervous persons who are troubled with wakefulness and excitability, usually have a strotig tendency of blood on the brain with culd extremities. The pressure of the blood on the brain keeps it in a stimulated or wakeful state, and the pulsations in the head are often painful. Let such rist and chafe the body and extremities with a brush or towel, or rub smartly with the hands to promote circulation and withdraw the excessive amount of blood from the brain, and they will fall asleep in a few moments." A cold bath, or a sponge bath and rubbing, or a good run, or a rapid walk in the open air, or going up and down stairs a few times, just before settiring, will sid in equalizing circulation, and promoting sleep. These rules are simple and easy of application in castle of in cabin, and may minister to the comfort of thousands who would freely expend money for an anodyne to promote "Natura'sswort suctorer, being
